FOOT-BALL NEWS.

Willamette Will Play Chemawa Saturday—Monmouth on the 14th.

The interest in the coming football games increases in exactly the proportion as the rapidly with which the dates set for the games approach.

Saturday afternoon the University team will play a return game with the Chemawa team at the latter place. The boys will go down on the 2:20 local returning on the Salem local in the evening.

NOTES. Saturday afternoon, the 14th inst., the Salem and Monmouth teams will play a match game, the place for which has not yet been decided upon.

Captain Harry Olinger, of Willamette University team, expects to witness the intercollegiate game between the Corvallis and Eugene teams to be played at Eugene on the 14th inst.

Pugh, as left guard, while an amateur on the gridiron, promises to make a valuable player. His work on the field is remarkably promising for a new player.

Ridings Willamette right guard, never dreamed of being a footballist until he came to the University this fall. He is developing into a valuable player and as guard will do effective work.

Truit and Bert Savage, right and left tackle, will be in evidence on the field much to the annoyance of the opposing team. Having been surveying in the mountains during the past summer, they have acquired the staying qualities necessary for good football players.

Mark Savage and Wm. Evans, half-backs, with Jay McCormick, as full back, could not be improved upon.

Webb, as center presents an impediment to the contesting team that cannot be surmounted. He stands like a brick wall.

Max Miller, the new quarter-back is making a good showing on the field. "Cotton" will be there at every time he is needed.

Oak Beeler, right end, could not be improved upon for one so young. He takes his stand like a sturdy "oak."

Captain Harry Olinger is working hard with a team, in the abilities of which he feels, quite confident. Without the assistance of a coach, Mr. Olinger is devoting his entire attention to the instruction and improvement of the team.

Nearly Drowned. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Thurston, who live near Woodlawn, came near being drowned, and it was a mere accident that she was saved.

The mother had just prepared to do some washing, and had filled the tub in the kitchen for this purpose. The child was playing in the room, when Mrs. Thurston was called out into another room. She was gone about 20 minutes, and, on returning, caught sight of the child's heels sticking out of the tub. She quickly seized the child and pulled her out. It took some time to resuscitate the little one, but it was finally accomplished. The mother was overcome with the shock of finding her infant so near death's door that she was quite ill the remainder of the day.

SURPRISE PARTY.—Last evening about thirty of the young friends of Lee Fones tendered him a surprise party, at his home in Yew Park, that was most pleasant in its results. Mr. Fones expects to leave in a few days for Chicago, with a view to the completion of his education.

THE WEATHER.—November 5, Western Oregon had the first chilly weather and almost a frost last night at Salem. The forecast for Thursday and Friday is fair; frost Friday morning.

FOR ILLEGAL VOTING.

Chas. Schmidt Sentenced to Three Months in the County Jail.

Chas. Schmidt was arraigned before Justice H. A. Johnson at 9 a. m. this morning, charged with illegal voting on Tuesday last. A number of witnesses were examined for the state, the evidence of whom was quite convincing. The defendant refused to make any statement either in the form of a denial or an acknowledgment of the charge. Justice Johnson imposed the lightest sentence of the law—three months in the county jail.

The evidence showed that Schmidt deposited ballots in wards No. 1 and 4 of this city. It is known by several in this city that Schmidt received money for his votes, however, he is only one of the many who practiced this crime but owing to the absence of Bryan watchers, from the majority of the booths, such impositions were not detected and prosecuted to the full extent of the law as they should have been.

This fellow Schmidt will serve his sentence, but he deserves sentence not half so much as the men who hired him to repeat, who parade the streets in good clothes and are looked upon as respectable. He is not alone the criminal who violates the law at the request or in the pay of others.

SOME TOTALS.—The total vote in Marion county, without the Prohibition and Palmer vote, is 7,096. Estimating the latter vote at 150 makes the grand total 7,242. In June the total vote on supreme judge was 5,651, while the total on congressman was 6,258. This shows that the present vote is in round numbers 1,000 more than in June. Where do the extra votes come from? The presidential vote in 1892 was only 5,691, and hundreds of Populists did not vote.

Monday Morning

Come down and get a box of Butterilk Soap—3 cakes in a box—price per box 10c. We would like to have you try our fancy table syrups. We can suit you. "Morning Glory" syrup is clear, sweet and appetizing. "Tea Garden" drips is a pure sugar syrup—no glucose enters into its composition. In color it is darker than "Morning Glory," but in flavor is unsurpassed, and the more you eat the more you want.

MARRIED.

MARTZALL-JONES.—At the residence of P. W. Setlemier, in Woodburn, at high noon Thursday, November 5, 1896, Miss Cook Martzall to Prof. G. W. Jones.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the relatives and intimate acquaintances of the high contracting parties, being present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. A. Blair.

The groom is Marion county's school superintendent, having been elected to that important office last June. The bride was for several years connected with the Salem public schools, and the many friends of the contracting parties in this city, extend hearty congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Jones stand high in the educational circles of this state, having gained an enviable reputation as successful instructors.

Price 50 cents and $1.00. Get a Bottle at Fred A. Legg's Drug Store.

A RICH FIND.—Wm. Sullivan, of Mill City, returned home today, after bringing in the election returns from Horeb precinct. With his partner William has located a mining claim near the Quartzville mines which promises great results. They have a fine ledge of free milling ore which promises great things. They have been offered $5,000 for a third interest with a further payment of $20,000 when the third interest pays out a certain amount. These men are to be congratulated on their find, as good judges estimate the ore worth from two to five thousand dollars a ton.
