FORGED A $20. CHECK.

Joe Robertson Arrested in Oregon City on That Charge.

Sunday morning Chief of Police Burns of Oregon City, arrested Joe Richardson at the home of his parents near Riley's, just below Oregon City, on the charge of forgery, such criminal charge having been made against him by A. C. Dilley. Chief of Police A. C. Dilley went to Oregon City Sunday afternoon and returned this morning with his man. It seems the man, whose name is Joe Robertson, entered the store of E. T. Barnes in this city Friday afternoon, and purchased a mackintosh, suit of clothes, shirts, collars and other notions, and tendered in payment therefor a $20, check made payable to the order of his uncle, Frank Robertson, a business man of Turner. It was properly endorsed and was accepted in payment for the goods. The forgery was not detected until the check was presented at the bank. Chief Dilley was notified of the crime and having ascertained where the relation of the accused resided, he notified the officers of the valley towns with the most satisfactory results.

It seems, Robertson has just returned from California, where he enlisted in the United States army for five years, but he only served three years. It is thought, upon reaching Salem he was short of funds and adopted this means of replenishing his wardrobe as well as pocket book. When arrested, Robertson denied his guilt, but the evidence against him is quite conclusive, since the goods which he is alleged to have purchased with the check, were found in his possession when arrested.

Robertson was arraigned before Recorder Edes at 2 p. m. today charged with forgery. The prisoner plead "not guilty" and his trial was set for Wednesday at 1 p. m.

The efficiency of chief of Police A. C. Dilley in handling all cases given into his hands is again displayed in this case. Within twelve hours after Chief Dilley was notified of the forgery he had the forger located at his father's home near Oregon City. He then notified Chief of Police Burns, of Oregon City, to arrest the man which he did.

When Chief Dilley takes up a case he almost invariably meets with success which is an excellent recommendation of his services as a guardian of the peace and a detective of no small ability.

SATURDAY'S FOOTBALL GAMES.

Eugene Beats Corvallis—The Monmouth and Chemawa Games.

Saturday afternoon the first intercollegiate game of foot ball occurred at Corvallis between the U. of O. and O. A. C. teams. The game resulted 8 to 4 in favor of the Eugene "dukes." As a result the Eugene team is to play the Willamette University team at Salem next Saturday, as per schedule arranged by the Intercollegiate football association at Salem recently. The Corvallis team justly feels indignant at the treatment it received at the hands of Referee Burkhardt, of the M. A. C. of Portland, who on different occasions reversed his decisions so that they favored the Eugene team. The game came near resulting in a free-for-all fight. The referee called a member of the Corvallis team a liar and was promptly knocked down. In all the Corvallis team played a better game than that put up by the Eugene team.

AT MONMOUTH.

The Second Willamette football team played a match game with the Monmouth State Normal school team. Notwithstanding the inclement weather the game was called about 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon and resulted 2 to 2. Had not one of Salem's players made a mistake and made a safety for the Monmouth team the score would have been 2 to 0 in favor of Salem. The local team reports the most hospitable treatment at the hands of the Monmouth students. The fair sex was in attendance and it is said some of the Salem team were very anxious to remain in the evening when a reception would have been tendered the visiting team in the chapel but the majority of the boys, who are extremely bashful desired to return home. It is reported the fair sex prevails at the Monmouth school at a ratio of almost 16 to 1. No wonder there was a fascination for the Salem team at Monmouth. The Salem team lined up as follows: Webb, center; Porter and Pugh, guard; Chase, guard; J. Evans, tackle; Winters, tackle; Moir, tackle; Legg, tackle; Burns, tackle; W. Evans, tackle.

THE INDIANS WIN. In the game at Chemawa Saturday afternoon between the Salem Cyclones and the Chemawa Junior team the latter won by a score of 18 to 0. The red skins were too much for the "white men" and easily won the game.

MARION'S COUNTY CONVENTION

Of Y. P. S. C. E., to be held in Salem November 20 and 22.

The usual Marion county Y. P. S. C. E. convention will meet in Salem this year. The convention last year was held in Woodburn, which was found to be quite too small to conveniently entertain all delegates who wished to attend. Many did not go for fear of not being able to secure entertainment. That inconvenience will not be experienced this year, and a large delegation from outside of the city is expected.

The first meeting will be held on Friday next, at 2 o'clock. A very interesting program has been prepared, which, if carried out in full, will be one of the best ever followed, at a Marion county C. E. convention. The program in detail will appear in these columns later.

At a special meeting of the Local Union held Sunday afternoon to make final arrangements for the convention, the following committees were appointed: Entertainment, Mr. B. E. Stanton, Miss Bertha Savage, Miss Churchill, Miss Pearl Applegate; reception, Miss Alice Kirk, Miss Anna McNary, Miss Marie Rockwell, E. S. Prescott; committee on ushers and decorations, Mr. Walter Jenks, Mrs. Leabo, Mr. I. P. Callison, Mr. Thomas Bruce, Mr. Clarence Ferguson, Mr. Clyde Brock. The musical part of the convention was left to the efficient management of H. S. Gile, president of the state Christian Endeavor Union. Every effort is being put forth to make the convention a grand success, and the people, of Salem, will no doubt again throw open their homes to the entertainment of the delegates. Watch these columns for further particulars.

The Discovery Saved His Life. Mr. G. Calloutte Druggist, Beaverville Ill., says: To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it. Get a free trial at Fred A.

The reverend gentleman is threatened with malaria fever, but his congregation and friends entertain hopes that he may soon recover. Sunday morning Rev. Steele delivered an able sermon on "Baptism."

FABIO ROMANI. Read's Opera House Friday, November 20.

Aiden Benedict's Fabio Romani is a fine creation. It surpasses Monte Christo in its intensity of action, in its subtlety of plot, in its cause and effect. There are no chasms of sequence that must be bridged by the imagination. It steps immediately upon a high, artistic level of intense, active interest, and keeps that level up to the terrific, emotional climax, which is the submerging of the expiring bodies of the principal characters in the rolling waters of the Bay of Naples amid the crashing thunder of an awful eruption of Mt. Vesuvius.

The story of the play is sad, but mixed with the dark passage of the sombre story were many enlivening scenes that helped to make the whole a pleasant entertainment. The Fire, and other dances, by Miss Grace Hunter, are startling and wonderfully beautiful.
