MAYOR.

City Marshal and Recorder.

The Fight Over Salem City Politics Warming Up.

The Salem Republican city primaries are called for November 28th. Indications are that an immense vote will be polled and the fight will be red-hot.

E. C. Cross has withdrawn his name from consideration by his friends for office of Mayor. The various factions are trying to unite upon ex-Sheriff E. M. Croisan. The name of Wm. Cherrington is mentioned. He is now a member of the school board. All interest centers in the Republican primaries, and the Republican city machine has virtual control of their management.

For city Marshal and chief of Police Ad. Dilley, present incumbent, Wells Latourette, off Police force, and Earl Race, foreman on the State sewer, will contest before the primaries and city Republican convention. There is no disposition to unite or form combinations.

For city recorder, Ed. N. Edes, present incumbent, C. D. Gabrielson and W.A. Moores, will contest for the nomination. For Alderman not much is said.

Salem Building & Loan Association.

The Board of Directors of the Salem Building and Loan Association held a business meeting this morning when the following staff of officers was elected: President, Geo. W. Johnson; Vice President, J. H. Albert; Secretary, Paul H. Sroat; Treasurer, I. L. Patterson; Attorney, A. O. Condit. This association is one of the most successful business enterprises ever launched in this city and the business transacted in the year ending Nov. 1-96, by far exceeded that of the preceding year not only in the number of transactions but also in per cent of remuneration. With the able staff of officers that has been chosen to serve the society for the ensuing year, the association can only be more successful this year than ever in the past.

BRIDGES.

Washed Out by the Recent Floods in Marion County.

The loss to Marion county from the recent floods will be considerable, but it is nearly all on joint structures with other counties.

The bridges over the Linn county approach to the Jefferson bridge were washed away. One hundred feet of the Marion county approach to the Jefferson bridge this morning (November 19) by laying down planks to get the horses on. Two or three hundred feet of the Polk county approach are raised off the support, and will have to be put back.

The entire bridges over the Santiam at Gates and Mill city are gone out and will have to be replaced by Marion and Linn counties jointly.

Sixty feet of the Linn county approach to the Jefferson bridge are washed away. One hundred feet of the Marion county approach to the Jefferson bridge are gone. They will all have to be replaced at the expense of the two counties. That is the law that a bridge on the line of two counties must be repaired at the joint expense of both.

THE RIVER FALLING.—At 10 o'clock this morning the river registered a trifle over 20 feet above low water mark at Salem, and was gradually falling. The locks at Oregon City can not be opened so long as the river registers more than sixteen feet above low water mark; so a further fall of ten feet in the river's stage, will be necessary, before Salem will have any business intercourse with Portland, via the river steamboats.

Don't fail to call at the New York Racket for bargains in the Star 5 Star boots and shoes, also in clothing, for men and boys, and hats, underwear, hosiery, ties, handkerchiefs, ribbons, laces, embroideries, and other notions. 11 19 2d

BROKE THE WATER MAIN.—While members of the Labor Union were excavating a ditch across Commercial street directly opposite the grocery establishment of Harriet & Lawrence, preparatory to laying a new pipe connecting with the faucet in the Turner block, a pick accidentally punctured the main pipe. Through this aperture the water rushed quite rapidly making a veritable artesian well for several minutes. The break was duly repaired and work resumed.

ABOUT PIES.—THE JOURNAL prints in its Domestic department "A Treatise on Pies," that will interest every housekeeper. This department will hereafter be a regular feature, and the lady readers are invited to contribute to it.

DAMAGED

By the Mill Creek Floods.

State May Have a Bill of $50,000 to $100,000 to Pay.

The state of Oregon is liable to have litigation on its hands as a result of the bursting of the Mill creek dykes last Saturday night and Sunday.

An effort will be made to pass a relief bill through the legislature to indemnify losers by the recent floods from Mill creek.

The mill company's dam in the first ward of Salem, raises the water to a level with all the banks. The additional flood caused all the banks to overflow and physicians say much sickness is liable to follow.

The damage seems to have been caused by both the Mill Co. and the State Prison dyke built last summer with prison labor.

A lawyer who has been counselled with says the state did this damage without benefiting itself a particle. The damage done is $50,000, that the state may have to pay. If the dyke is not removed it will damage $100,000 before summer comes.

SOME OF THE DAMAGED.

J. Gardner, E. P. Walker, Mr. Torpolar, Mr. Stein, Mrs. Chaney, Paul Rhodes, Chas. Pugh, Salem Flouring Mills Co., R. S. Bean, M. W. Garretson, Chas. Parmenter, Mrs. Dinsmoor, P. H. D'Arcy, Ben Forstner, Bud Belle, R. P. Boise, E. A. Lin n, Wm. Waldo and a great many more on both sides of the creek.

TAKE ONE CASE.

Bud Belle says his property he considered worth at least $1500. Only last summer he had hauled in at least 90 loads of dirt and 750 loads in all. This is about all washed away and he does not consider his place worth more than $250 and will have to move the house.

Archie Mason, H. W. Van Avery, M. W. Hunt, Chas. Watt, Jo Albrecht and Harry Thomas were also damaged some by the floods.

FIGHTING.

To shut Silver Republicans Out of the Caucus.

Senator Alonzo Gesner, of Marion county, declares silver Republicans like Jonathan Bourne of Multnomah and H. L. Barkley of Marion shall not be admitted to the Republican legislative caucus.

It is not known just where the line will be drawn, but it is said to be the scheme of the extreme gold standard men of the general assembly to shut out all pronounced silver Republicans.

It is feared they will not stand by Senator Mitchell if he is the caucus nominee.

The votes of men like Bourne and Barkley will not be needed perhaps to elect Mitchell, but they are needed by the Republican party to pass good legislation. A legislature once elected represents all the people and not alone the party that has a majority of that body. Good economical legislation is worth more than party to the people.

A TRAGEDY!

Scene—Opera House—Time Thanksgiving Night—Tune—"And the Band Played On."

The man in the moon he is a queer coon, and the band played on.

When he heard of the show, said he, I will go—and the band played on.

He nearly exploded, for the play it was loaded with more fun than he ever saw.

To you 't would seem, like a Chinaman's dream—now this is no joke.
