Total.....41,557.

Total both districts.....89,454.

Total vote for all Oregon silver candidates for congress in June was as follows:

Vanderburg.....19,292.
Myers.....7,914.
Quinn.....12,239.
Bennett.....7,099.

Average Bryan electors.....46,544.

The average total vote in November over the vote in June Oregon was as follows:

Exceeds vote on Judge.....11,823.
Exceeds vote on congress.....7,578.

The table of complete votes by counties for all candidates for elector appears in this issue.

Total vote on secretary of state in 1894 was as follows:

Kincaid, Rep.....41,125.
Wakefield, Pro.....25,368.
Nickell, Dem.....19,001.
McKercher, Prohl.....2,108.

Total.....87,602.

Total average vote for electors in 1892 was as follows:

Republican.....34,943.
Democrat.....14,222.

Welch, Prohl.....2,768.

Total vote.....75,298.

Struck by the Wave.

A Bryau man who has been hopelessly looking for the wave of confidence to strike him got it today.

As he was passing along State street a man who was shovelling snow off a roof dumped a large scowful right into the back of his neck. That was the genuine thing.

A FORGER RETURNS.—F. L. Leonard, who was discharged from the pen about five months ago, was yesterday returned from Wasco county Thursday to serve two years for forgery.

Judge Caples, who had his thumb broken by the slamming of a car door while coming up from Portland last evening, returned this afternoon.

Crowley's Reports.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—J. J. Crowley, supervising special agent of the treasury department in his annual report devotes considerable attention to smuggling. Opium smuggling, the report says, has decreased largely during the last year as a result principally of the reduction of the rate of duty from $12 to $6 per pound; 123,850 pounds of smoking opium was imported at San Francisco during the year 1895, upon which $842,404 was paid in duty. Last year the amount was 96,126 pounds, upon which a duty aggregating $588,756 was paid.

The report shows that there has been a noticeable increase in the smuggling of diamonds since the duty on precious stones was increased by the tariff act of 1894. A return to the rate of duty provides in the act of 1890. Mr. Crowley thinks, would be in favor of revenue and legitimate trade.

Outed from the Church.

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 20.—Apostle Moses B. Thatcher will be declared "Contumacious" and dropped from the rolls of the Mormon church. This was the day fixed by the church authorities for the trial of Mr. Thatcher for his failure to take counsel for taking part in political matters a year ago, when he was candidate for United States senator.

A card appeared in the Desert News this evening, signed by the president of the twelve apostles, to the effect that a meeting of the apostle was held and that it was unanimously decided that Moses Thatcher be severed from the council of the twelve apostles, and that he be deprived of his apostleship and other offices in the priesthood.

Burglars Jailed.

SEATTLE, Nov. 20.—Charles Phillips and Chris Scott, two young men under 20 years of age, are in jail. Scott is suffering from a bullet wound in the left arm, inflicted by H. R. Bayliss, whose residence they were burglarizing. For the past two weeks the city has been overrun with burglars and fifteen residences have been looted. The young men confessed to chief of police with the result that the officers are now in possession of $1,500 worth of goods, which the boys counseled in a lodging house.

Chinese Statistics.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—During the past year 5,506 Chinese persons applied for admission to this country. Of these 1,521 were in transit to other countries; 415 were rejected, and 3,510 were admitted. The number of Chinese arrested for violation of the exclusion law was 196, and the number deported 120. Under the treaty between the United States and China, providing for the departure from and return to this country of the Chinese laborers, 936 laborers left the United States and 106 returned during the past year.

Collision.

BREAST, Nov. 20.—The torpedo boats known by the numbers 83 and 61, of the French navy, came into collision during the maneuvers off Cape De La Chevre. The former boat sunk and its crew were badly damaged and was towed here. No 83 has a complement of sixteen men.

Shot in the Street.

The Corvallis people were treated to the spectacle of the killing of a deer, on the streets the other morning. The poor thing was bewildered by the floods and had been previously wounded and yielded up its life to pistol and rifle shots.

The Sante Fe Case.

TOPEKA, Kans., Nov. 20.—Bound by ironclad restraining orders from both federal and state courts, both sides to the controversy in the Sante Fe receivership case are now powerless to move and, it is thought, there will not be any new developments until the case comes up for hearing before Judge Foster in the federal court next Monday.

Ladies' heavy sole lace shoes, the new thing, also in at Krause Bros. 11-13-14.

CANVASSSED,

The Official Vote for Oregon.

Electors Will Meet at Salem and Vote for President.

Secretary of State Kincaid at 10 a. m. today, in the presence of Governor Lord, who superintends the count, canvassed the official returns by counties of the vote on electors in Oregon.

The official vote, as canvassed and declared, will be found in this issue of THE JOURNAL in its correct and complete form. After affixing the great seal of the state, Secretary Kincaid directed the official count to be filed and a copy sent to the printer.

The four McKinley and Hobart electors were declared elected, and will be notified to meet at Salem on the second Monday in January, the day the legislature assembles to cast the ballots of the Oregon college for president and vice president, and select one of their number to act as messenger and carry the vote to Washington.

INHUMAN,

Horses Turned Out to Die.

A Party at Woodburn Charged With This Crime.

The severe weather of the past week has caused much suffering among stock that is not sheltered.

A horse has been turned out through all the storms of the past week on the flat just south of the A. Bush lands. The owner is liable to prosecution under the Oregon law.

CASE AT WOODBURN.

Woodburn, Nov. 20, One P. White, who keeps a hotel and livery here, was arrested today charged with cruel and inhuman treatment of animals. It is charged that he has turned horses out on the commons in the recent bad weather without food, and one has died of starvation. District Attorney S. L. Hayden of Salem was sent for to prosecute the case.

STATE NEWS.

Amity is trying to secure a flouring mill for that place.

Seld Back says the election of McKinley is good for the Chinese.

In the recent county teacher's institute of Yamhill county ten teachers received certificates.

Now that the election has gone to suit most sheepmen, it is quite likely that coyote scalps will be remonetized.

The woolgrowers of Grant county will meet at John Day, November 23, for the purpose of organizing a wool growers' association for the mutual protection of all sheepmen.

An eel fifteen inches long came out of a water pipe in a printing office at The Dalles the other night, and now the few printers in the office who have been in the habit of drinking water have sworn off.

An Ohio man recently wagered that he could drink a pint of brandy and six glasses of red whiskey in five minutes and won the bet. The undertaker declared he never saw a more beautifully pickled corpse.

John Moore, of Dayton, has sold from the product of one vine this year about 1,000 pounds of grapes. He received from 1 to 4 cents per pound, the latter being the price received for a lot sent to the coast.

An Iowa man bet $10 that he could ride the flywheel on a sawmill. When his widow paid the bet she remarked sympathetically: "William was a good, kind husband, but he didn't know much about flywheels."

D. Ahearn, slip young man, of Portland, who belongs to the gang of men who have made themselves odious by using obscene and insulting language to firemen and at and concerns the fire department, was yanked in out of the wet Monday night during the progress of the Alasworth fire for using obscene and filthy language. Judge Sweet fined him $25.

THE PHONES.—The Salem Telephone exchange was unusually busy the past week and today Manager Alice Steiner booked more messages than ever before. The use of the wires seem to be growing and the service is very satisfactory.

TRAINS.

Regular Schedule Will Likely Be Resumed Saturday.

It will be pleasing to Salemites to be informed that the irregularity of trains is about at an end, providing the snow does not further delay the trains. It is probable that the regular schedules will be resumed Saturday. For several days the Salem Local has been doing heavy work in that it operates not only as the Salem Local but also as the Roseburg mail. For the past five days this train has left Salem at 8 a. m. gone to Oregon City transferred passengers and returned to Salem as the 11 o'clock Roseburg mail. Thence she would go south as far as Eugene transfer again and return to Salem as the 2:30 local. She would continue to Oregon City and transfer again, returning to Salem as the 6:15 Salem local. The only barrier to the trains navigating between Salem and Portland during the present high water has been that the track just below Oregon City has been submerged at times to a depth of 6 feet, but the big falling off of the river has naturally caused this body of water to likewise fall and it is thought trains may be run over this "flooded" district tomorrow.

The damage to the road between Marion and Albany and between Comstock and Eugene was all repaired by Wednesday evening but owing to the condition of the road in the vicinity of Oregon City, the California overlands have been traveling via the West Side between Albany and Portland.

The Salem local went to Albany at 4:30 this morning but owing to extra amount of switching, failed to return to Salem until 10 a. m. when she went on to Oregon City. This delay naturally caused the 11 o'clock local as well as the 2:30 local to be about three hours late.

This will be quite gratifying to the traveling public that has been so seriously inconvenienced since the origin of the late freshet.

So Goes the Game.

A few months ago one of our prominent citizens, says the Roseburg Review, "just for a pastime" got into a game of cards in one of the saloons of this city, with professional "shufflers of the cards." He soon got rid of his cash on hand, but inspired with a desire to regain his loss with an additional inspiration by the spirit of old rye, he borrowed ten dollars from the bar for which he gave his note. But that soon went and he borrowed ten dollars more. That ten dollars disappeared also.

Soon it was discovered that the last ten dollar note was not right and a new one was demanded—the last $10 note was crumpled up and thrown away. But the new note was duly signed and as appears without inspection of its provisions. Our prominent citizen paid the twenty dollars supposing he had liquidated the debt. But lo and behold, a note was presented by one of the parties who figured in the transaction, for one thousand dollars duly signed by our prominent citizen who is considered "well heeled." This note he refused to pay and the matter came before Justice Hamlin.

The justice after hearing the testimony pro and con and upon the parties making amicable settlement of the matter by giving up the one thousand dollar note to the maker dismissed the case.

But by provisions of the statute of Oregon, it is made the duty of the district attorney to bring action against any one they may know to be guilty of a violation of said statute regarding gambling. I. B. Riddle, deputy district attorney, made complaint against S. G. Bailey and Job Howard before Justice Hamlin for unlawful gambling. After a hearing in the case, the justice bound them over to the next term of court under bonds of $250 each.

Dr. H. E. Goodrich, of Baltimore, who was recently appointed government physician at the Warm Springs Indian agency, has gone to that place to relieve Dr. Richards, who has been transferred to Neah Bay.

Jack H. Strickler, now of Oregon City, was acquitted on a charge of attacking one M. W. Shiveley with a pitchfork.

FIGHTING.

For the Oregon Speakership.

Jonathan Bourne Against the Scott Combination.

Jonathan Bourne, Jr. is a candidate for speaker of the house of the general assembly that meets January 11, 1897. He will be opposed by the gold-lites and the Scott-Dolph-Simon-Corbett combination generally.

Indications are that the lines will be drawn in the legislature between the Republicans, as they were at the spring primaries in Portland, and the light in the county and state convention will be extended into the organization of the legislature.

The Oregonian crowd want a new charter, to give them absolute control of the city and county government. They want to defeat Mitchell for senator and elect Corbett.

They want Jo Simon for president of the senate and a speaker whom Jo can control.

If the crowd that reeks inspiration at the tall tower can succeed they will enact a registration law, and a Portland charter and such other legislation as will give them absolute control of Oregon politics for years to come.

Jonathan Bourne has a terrific fight on his hands.

It does not appear that Hon. Sol. Hirsch is taking a hand openly, but those who know him are aware that he is never indifferent where his friends are involved.

BUILDING.—The outlook for some life in the building trades is more favorable. At Woodburn the burnt district will probably be partially rebuilt several towns in Southern Oregon are writing to Salem architects for plans and specifications. They will get ready to do some building early in the spring.

THE WEATHER.—A hard frost Friday morning moderated off into exactly the temperature for a snowfall and by noon from two to six inches had fallen over the valley. The forecast for Saturday is snow or rain. Temperature warmer.

EASTERN OYSTERS.—Strong's restaurant serves eastern oysters in any style at 50 cents per dozen or 25 cents per half dozen, including tea, coffee or milk. Westcott & Irwin.

Judge Caples, the Aurora miller, was in the city today.

YOU are a house-keeper. You want baking powder.

Your experience teaches you that Royal is the best and most economical. You know it is absolutely pure and wholesome. Some dealers' interests prompt them to offer a lower cost inferior baking powder upon which they can realize a larger profit.

The health of your family is at stake: Shall you be governed by your own valuable experience or some one else's pecuniary interests?
