SMALL NEWS OF OREGON.

Latest Dispatches and Items From the Web-Foot State.
Sunday evening the church bells were ringing out the hour of meeting, says the Baker City Democrat, four masked men armed with shotguns and pistols, entered Jack Walker's saloon, near the Union depot, and on covering the proprietor, and bartender, Dick Hamilton and two other men, being all present, shouted "hands up!" and up they went.

The bartender was then escorted behind the bar and per request the till was opened and the contents, about $10, was seized by the captain of the robber gang.
Before departing one of the robbers helped himself to a bottle of whiskey, thus evidencing by his conduct that he was not one of the few electors in this county who cast his vote for the "prehi" candidate at the recent election.

The outlaws then took their leave, passing out the front door and upon reaching the front door beat a hasty retreat. Dick Hamilton lost no time in picking up a doubled barreled shot gun and gave them a couple of parting salutes. While the shot fell short of their mark, they had the effect of quickening the steps of the fleeing fugitives. They made good their escape.

Mr. Walker was seen by a Democrat reporter last evening. He stated that judging from the actions of his uninvited guests they were novices, as every mother's son of them shook like an aspen leaf and their voices trembled so badly that their words could hardly be understood with the exception of the cold command, "Hold up your hands!" which was too plainly audible.

The robbers wore masks made out of dark cloth and they covered the whole head. The men were average size the tallest being about 5 feet 9 inches and the others about 5 feet 6 inches.

A Wet Experience.
Nick Galloway, Ed. Budgett, Alex Purdom and Mr. Achenbach had a very chuck experience this forenoon, says Albany Democrat. They were in a boat on the other side of the river over the road at the junction of the Peacock and bridge roads, making arrangements to repair the telephone line which had broken, when the swift current drove the boat against a snag, and the rower, Alex Purdom could not keep it upright so great was the force of the current. The four men went into about five feet of water, and managed to strike on their feet after a struggle. The boat went downstream, and there they were in water up to their shoulders, fresh from the snow fields of the Cascade, with no way to get out. They used their lungs like a campaign orator, and Mr. Wm. Peacock got a boat and went to their rescue, getting them out after nearly an hour's waiting. None of them has experienced any trouble from the wetting. The boat and entire repairing outfit were lost.

The Raging Santiam.
The O. C. & E. train was at Detroit when the heavy storm set in and is there now and will be for several days. The Santiam up that way raged as never before. At one or two points it turned directly upon the track washing everything out in sight. Mr. John Butterworth, who walked nineteen miles to get out, and arrived in Albany last night, says that trees that were there when Columbus discovered America were uprooted and toppled over. The work of putting the road in condition between Green Basin and Detroit will be a big task.—Albany Democrat.

Probably Drowned.
Mr. August Pagenkoff, residing six miles west of Albany near Wells, was in Albany Monday and left for home on foot in the afternoon, says the Democrat. He never reached home, and it is believed he was drowned. The indications are that he attempted to cross on a log over a slough and slipped in and was drowned. He had been drinking some.

After Many Years.
In 1893 Louis Davenport, who now resides near Mosier, came into The Dalles with a pack train from the upper country, having with him a bundle of gold dust valued at about $20,000. He sat the bundle down while he talked to some friends, and when he went to pick it up again it was gone. Where it went to Mr. Davenport could never learn. A few days ago a man named Bernard appeared in The Dalles and asserted that it was one of Mr. Davenport's mule drivers that stole the dust. The matter will be investigated, and possibly the mystery of the disappearance of the valuable package may yet be solved.

Catarrh in the Head.
Is a disease that may lead to consumption. Catarrh is caused by impure blood, and the true way to cure it is by purifying the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarrh because it removes the cause of it by purifying the blood. Thousands testify that they have been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.
Hood's Pills are purely vegetable and do not purge, pain or gripe. All druggists, 25 cents.

Heart Trouble Quickly Cured.
A Convincing Testimonial.
"For 19 years I suffered from heart trouble. During that time I was treated by five different physicians. All of them claimed that I could not be cured. I was greatly troubled with shortness of breath, palpitation and pain in the side. If I became excited, or exerted myself in the least, the pain in my side became very severe. At times it seemed as though needles were shooting through my side. Sometime in the month of November last, I commenced taking of DR. MILES' HEART CURE and since then I have improved steadily. I can now sleep on my left side, something I had never been able to do before. I can walk without being fatigued, and am in much better health than ever before. I would recommend all sufferers from heart trouble to try Dr. Miles' invaluable remedy without delay."
MISS ELLA KURTZ,
418 Wright St., Milwaukee, Wis.

Cripple

The iron grasp of scrofula has no mercy upon its victims. This demon of the blood is often not satisfied with causing dreadful sores, but racks the body with the pains of rheumatism until Hood's Sarsaparilla cures.
"Nearly four years ago I became afflicted with scrofula and rheumatism.

Made Well

Running sores broke out on my thighs. Pieces of bone came out and an operation was contemplated. I had rheumatism in my legs, drawn up out of shape. I lost appetite, could not sleep. I was a perfect wreck. I continued to grow worse and finally gave up the doctor's treatment to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Soon appetite came back; the sores commenced to heal. My limbs straightened out and I threw away my crutches. I am now stout and hearty and am farming, whereas four years ago I was a cripple. I gladly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla." URBAN HAMMOND, Table Grove, Illinois.

A Benton county man named Jones is suing his wife Minnie for a divorce on the grounds of inhuman treatment. As the couple have been married only six years, and have five children, aged, respectively five four, two and one years, the case suggests that if it hasn't been Jones instead of Minnie who has been cruel. There is need of a surgical operation in this case.—Ex.

Indignant News Boys.
The newboys of Portland are determined to have their rights. They say that Harvey Scott and his colleagues are robbers, and thieves, and they will not be humbugged.
They demonstrated this fact by a torchlight procession last evening. Transparencies bearing the words, "Who's a robber? Harvey Scott," and another, "We want three papers for 5 cents and returnable." They marched through all the principal streets and were lustily cheered and many kind remarks were made about them, and it was hoped they would carry the day.
