A Sore

and another wound formed and in a week or so it spread at my ankle. The bone woman said I should not have cut it through, and I should have gone to the doctor. She gave me a lot of falls about the importance of a good doctor, and said I should have consulted her in the matter. I was in a hurry at the time, and did not see her. I am now feeling very well, and hope to have a good recovery.

Foot

is a real master and his work is very fine. He taught me a lot about the proper care of feet, and I have found his advice very useful. I would recommend him to anyone who is interested in foot care.
