DISTURBANCE.

Of a Public Assemblage.

Extended Trial of Julius Pinckus Before Recorder Edes.

The trial of Julius Pinckus for disturbance in Reed's opera house on Thanksgiving evening was concluded before Judge Edes Tuesday evening.

THE CASE SUBMITTED.
Mr. District Attorney stated defendant had disturbed the assemblage at the theatre by rude and disorderly conduct, that to the terror and mortification of those assembled they had marched in like Indians by a preconcerted movement to break up and annoy the audience.

Mr. Kaiser replied that he would show that Mr. Pinckus was not the chief disturber, and made no more noise than others, that he conducted himself as well as some of the best people there. He did not wish to have the case tried otherwise than on the facts.

Hal. Patton: he was not at the Reed as manager, but as a spectator. Saw Pinckus with others; he had a peculiar voice; he talked back to the actors, mumbled and disturbed those near him; was intoxicated.

Kaiser objected as Pinckus was not charged with intoxication. Sustained. Court asked witness to confine his remarks to the accused.

Great disturbance was created as people were leaving the house; there were 450 present. Mr. Barnes, Judge Henry and others asked him to quell the disturbers. He spoke to all that they should keep quiet; defendant was muttering to those near him, ladies were disturbed, people as far back as the raised seats and even in the gallery heard Pinckus mutter and mumble.

Cross-examination: only words Pinckus used were to Burggraf about "his widow," did not remember the words; the show was over; the curtain was down; the orchestra was through playing, when he struck at McElroy.

C. H. Burggraf: saw defendant on front row of opera house; recognized Pinckus voice, who interrupted his lines as an actor, was having a good time laughing and talking with his friends; there was laughing and mumbling.

Cross-ex: the play was a society comedy; it was to make people laugh; recognized his voice next day in the police court; it was a comic play; did not see attack at close.

Willis McElroy: defendant was there in a drunken condition; heard him laugh out loud; his laughing and talking disturbed the playing and the music; he assaulted witness after the show; the blow was severe; it knocked him down; one blow aside the neck.

Cross-ex: had some conversation during play; asked him if he was raised in a barn; called him a s-n-o-b-a-b; was so mad did not know what he said.

D. W. Mathews: heard considerable disturbance; heard parties talking; Burggraf reprimanded them and they talked back in an insulting manner.

Cross-ex: Did not see or hear Pinckus.

L. D. Henry: live in suburbs; was an extensive disturbance; there was so much talk and laughing from the front seats on the right side; could not hear the noise.

Cross-ex: saw and recognized defendant as one of the disturbers.

W. B. Morse: was disturbed by talking and walking about of the parties; talked aloud and laughed; many complained; recognized defendant; he walked across aisle several times and conversed with his friends; could hear very little that was said; heard only one remark, but could not say it was this man; others whispered, laughed and talked but not so as to disturb anyone.

J. Q. Barnes: there was a great deal of disturbance by the party of thirteen; it consisted of loud talk, laughter and moaning about; could not recognize defendant as the one who created the disturbance.

E. S. Eller, called for defense; saw defendant come in with others; made no more noise than others who came in and shuffled their feet; it was not Pinckus who made the remark to Burggraf on the stage; the man who spoke had a heavy voice; Pinckus had a light voice; did not consider that they were drunk; they had been drinking some.

W. G. Westcott: saw Pinckus at opera house; he was quiet.

Cross-ex: hopgrowers generally stopped with him; they had some wine as many others did.

Mrs. Anna Nichols; manager of Postal Telegraph; attended play and sat ten feet from Pinckus; saw nothing out of way in his conduct; made some stir in getting settled; remark was not made by Mr. Pinckus; he talked in a low tone; some one said, "you bet, I'd hold her;" would have recognized his voice if he had made it; was no disturbance before I started out.

Cross-ex: Remark about widow was made in second act; he was a business acquaintance.

Mr. Ottenheimer: was at opera house with party of hopgrowers; no unusual noise; recognized faces on the stage; Pinckus did not make the remark; was positive of this; left after second act, went to rear of house and conversed with friends; Pinckus used his influence to stop what disturbance there was.

Q Who made the remark?
Court: He has said that Pinckus made no remark and that is enough. Counsel for state demanded to know who made the remark.

Counsel for defense objected. Witness had said he knew who made the remark and that it was not the defendant.

Ottenheimer: May I consult my counsel?
This was refused and witness ordered to answer.

Answer: Louis Lachmund made the remark.
Witness admitted he was a little under the influence of liquor. They had all been drinking some.

C. E. Beers: Did not see P. do anything ungentlemanly.

Cross-ex: Everybody was making some noise. Work at Strongs restaurant.

Oswald West: Was at play; sat three seats back of defendant; he did nothing out of way; was very close to him but heard no loud talk; he heard the remark made about the widow. It was not Pinckus.

Cross-ex: There was some disturbance; the hop men did a great deal of business at the bank.

Otto Shucking: Mr. Pinckus was quiet and orderly; behaved as well as anyone in the house; he did not make remark about widow; Lachmund made it; he left here Nov. 29; saw fight after crowd was all gone but friends of the performers.

J. M. Keane: Ottenheimer went in lead and made some disturbance; Burggraf talked back to a man on right side; defendant sat on left side; Lachmund sat on right side.

A. J. Churchill: Was six feet from man who made remark. It was not Pinckus.

J. Pinckus: told jury he was at play; in front row; some one made a remark about widow; Burggraf said, "if you want to act, come up on the stage;" it was not addressed to me; McElroy called him a "Hebrew s-n-o-f-a-b-ch." After the show he asked him to retract the insult; he started to pull off his coat and he, witness, struck him.

At about 7 o'clock, the case was argued to the jury. Judge Edes tried the case in a very fair manner, and to the satisfaction of all parties.

Before going to trial J. H. Lunn was substituted on the jury for F. B. Southwick. The jury retired and brought in a verdict of "guilty as charged." The jury were unanimous from the outset, as soon as the case was argued. Mr. Pinckus will be fined by the court.

City Recorder Edes imposed a fine of $40 and costs upon Julius Pinckus. B. O. Schucking plead guilty to disturbing the meeting and was fined $10 and costs.

The case of the State vs. Pinckus for assaulting W. E. McElroy was dismissed on payment of costs by defendant.

The two cases of State vs. Ottenheimer and Livesley, for disturbing meeting, were also dismissed on recommendation of District Attorney Hayden at defendant's cost.

FROM STAYTON.

Mr. Hughes, of Fox valley, was a guest at the home of Prof. Richardson's over Thanksgiving.

Warren Richardson, a student of the Capital Business College of Salem, was visiting in town the latter part of last week.

Misses Dean-Kitchens, Rita Rakestraw, Alice Balsely and Ethel Gardner, students at the Willamette university, returned to Salem Monday morning, after a pleasant week's visit with their friends and relatives, where they will resume their school work.

The young people of Stayton spent an exciting afternoon Saturday, skating on the slough, across the big bridge near town.

The ladies of the Christian church gave a Thanksgiving dinner November 26, which was largely attended by the people of Stayton.

Prof. Hughes and wife drove down from Sublimity Sunday morning, and spent the day at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Richardson.

William Wimer gave a Thanksgiving ball on Thanksgiving evening, which was well attended.

SOCIAL.

A character social was given by the Epworth League, to their members and a few friends last Thursday evening November 26th, and it is safe to say, a more noble gathering has never graced the halls of any palace, than the one that knocked for admittance at the home of M. M. Balsely, on Thanksgiving evening. All the ex-presidents and wives, from George Washington to President-elect Mc-

Kinley, were present. On entering, a slip of paper was given to each guest, bearing the name of the distinguished character they were to sustain. Great was the merriment when a staunch Bryanite would be given a McKinley character to impersonate. After receiving their name, the first duty was to find your partner, with whom they were requested to spend the evening and escort to supper. Many and varied were the new games indulged in until a late hour, when refreshments were served, after which all took their departure, congratulating the members of the League upon their success in giving something both new and unique. A few of the characters causing most laughter and many jests, were President and Mr. Cleveland, represented by Mrs. Cramer; Mrs. Frank Tasker, President-elect and Mrs. McKinley, by David White of Lyons, and Miss Tempest Dunnivin; Wm. J. Bryan and wife, by Mrs. Roy King and Miss Dean Kitchin; Mark Hanna and wife, by Mr. Dell Balsely and Miss Minnie Magers; ex-President George Washington and wife, by Billy Cooper and Miss Rita Rakestraw, of Salem; ex-President Lincoln and wife, by Decker and Miss Alice Balsely; ex-President Harrison and wife, by Edgar Waters and Miss Ethel Gardner.

Those present besides the above mentioned, were Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Balsely, Mesdames Preston, Cramer, Smith, Norton, and Wyatt. Misses Vera Gardner, Sarah Wilson, Bertha Keene, Maud Elder and Bertha Jarman.

Many a boy starts out in life with the firm determination of conquering the world. He means to achieve success and wealth and fame. His intentions are good, and his will is strong. If he has the bodily strength to carry it out, he will succeed. His efforts will be crowned with achievement. Bodily strength and health are his greatest capital. Without them he can hope for nothing. How many young men and young women are cut off just when the future seems brightest and fullest of promise! They are taken away by the disease which causes over one-sixth of all the deaths in the world—the disease which doctors call consumption. Consumption has been considered incurable, and the medical profession has never made a greater mistake than this. There is absolutely no reason in the world why consumption should be fatal—why it should be even serious. It is a disease of the blood, and can be cured absolutely and permanently by purifying and enriching the blood. The only exception to this is the case where the disease has been neglected and improperly treated until it is stronger than the body—until the body has become so weak as to have lost the ability to recuperate. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent of all cases of consumption if used according to directions. It also cures all lingering coughs, bronchial and throat affections. There is no reason why the child of consumptive parents need ever have consumption if its blood and lungs are strengthened by the proper use of the "Discovery." All who have any reason to fear consumption, should read the chapters on that disease in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This great medical work of 1008 pages, profusely illustrated, has reached a sale of over 600,000 copies. It will be sent free of charge on receipt of 21 cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only.
