Boils

It is often difficult to convince people their blood is impure, until dreadful carbuncles, abscesses, boils, scrofula or salt rheum, are painful proof of the fact. It is wisdom now, or whenever there is any indication of blood, to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and prevent such eruptions and suffering.

"I had a dreadful carbuncle abscess, red, fiery, fierce and sore. The doctor attended me over seven weeks. When the abscess broke, the pains were terrible, and I thought I should not live through it. I heard and read so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I decided to take it, and my husband, who was suffering with boils, took it also. It soon purified our built me up and restored my health so that, although the doctor said I would not be able to work hard, I have since done the work for 20 people. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured my husband of the boils, and we regard it a wonderful medicine." MRS. ANNA PETERSON, Latimer, Kansas.

to hold office. The new president will be compelled to fill his cabinet from the older growths and timber is thin and small in the younger generations. More and more the people see that the election is not the true expression of the people. The Chicago Journal cautions the money power not to show its hand so freely in the future. Henry Watterson told the rich aristocrats of New England to remember the arrogance of the slaveholders of the south.

"The election was carried by money and by the enforced idleness of the factory hands who were sent to the polls half-starved expecting to go to the factory next day with wages increased. It is all over for present but the system by which McKinley was elected was unjust and cruel. I could tell you of instances where men were laid off and paid for their time just to show an appearance of industrial stagnation. Travelling men were sent out on paid vacations to tell their customers that their firms had shut down and would never start up again if Bryan were elected. If the election had been held six weeks sooner the result might have been different, but by having the market open for four months the republicans had plenty of money to buy the floating vote. It is a gloomy subject, to write upon but it is nevertheless a lesson to perceive how poverty demoralizes the people. It was astonishing how men were charmed into helping forge new links for the chains they already bear. In the 14th century this same money question produced a rebellion in France. King John the Good debased the money, by doubling the value of gold to enable him to buy cheaper provisions to carry on the war with King Edward of Great Britain. At the battle of Portiers King John was taken prisoner and carried to England. Martzell, the provost marshal of France, by an edict at Paris reduced gold again to its former value and restored peace. It seems History will repeat itself in this country." Let jubilant McKinleyites study these words of an old man.

Medford citizens are interested in a fair for that place. An association will be formed with a capital stock of $5, 00 as a fund to erect buildings and build a track.

Lane county is threatened with a damage suit by George Campbell, who was injured by falling over an embankment on account of the narrowness of the road.

A child was taken sick at its home near town last week and the parents not knowing what to do for the child, which had symptoms of pneumonia, were persuaded by an old woman to skin two cats alive and wrap the child up in them. The child improved of course and would if warm cloths had been used instead of catskins. The worst of it was that the cats were left to die instead of being killed as soon as the skins were taken off. If the cats had been skinned after being killed the heat would have still been in the hides. Where is our humane society?—Oregon City Courier.

FREE TO EVERY MAN.

The Method of a Great Treatment for Weakness of Men.

Which Cured Him After Everything Else Failed.

Painful diseases are bad enough, but when a man is slowly wasting away with nervous weakness, the mental forbodings are ten times worse than the most severe pain. There is no let up to the mental suffering day or night. Sleep is almost impossible and under such a strain men are scarcely responsible for what they do. For years the writer rolled and tossed on the troubled sea of sexual weakness until it was a question whether he had not better take a dose of poison and thus end all his troubles. But providential inspiration came to his aid in the shape of a combination of medicines that not only completely restored the general health, but enlarged his weak and emaciated parts to natural size and vigor, and he now declares that any man who will take the trouble to send his name and address may have the method of this wonderful treatment free. Now when I say free I mean absolutely without cost, because I want every weakened man to get the benefit of my experience.

I am not a philanthropist, nor do I pose as an enthusiast, but there are thousands of men suffering the tortures of weakened manhood who would be cured at once could they but get such a remedy as the one that cured me. Do not try to study out how I can afford to pay the few postage stamps necessary to mail the information, but send for it and learn that there are a few things on earth that although they cost nothing to get they are worth a fortune to some men and mean a lifetime of happiness to most of us. Write to Thomas Slater, Box 390, Kalamazoo, Mich. and the information will be mailed in a plain sealed envelope.

Custer Battlefield

The Man Who Thinks there "isn't much to see" along the Burlington Route

Short Line to Omaha, Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago, is mistaken.

Half an hour after our train leaves Billings, it enters the great Crow Reservation. At Garryowen an excellent view of Custer Monument and Battlfield is had. At Sheridan begins the famous irrigated district of Northern Wyoming. Near Moorcroft, "The Devil's Tower" lifts its huge bulk 800 feet above the plain. Then come the Black Hills, and after them Nebraska's fertile farms.

Our other lines (from St. Paul to Chicago and St. Louis, is known as the "Mississippi Scenic Line." For more than 300 miles it parallels the banks of the great Father of Waters.
