Fishy Story From Spain.

Surrender.

CHICAGO, Jan. 8 .-- A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington says:

Positive statements were made from Spainish legation sources that Gomez, the Cuban commander-in-chief, had actually submitted a propositon for peace to Senor Sagasta, in Madrid, and that the facts have already been communicated to the junta here.

All that stands in the way, it says, is the proposed recall of Captain-General Weyler, which the insurgents declare shall be preliminary to all nego-

The statements come to the Tribune correspondent with great distinctness, but, as the source is Spanish, there is an open suspicion that the news may be given out for the express purpose of injuring the insurgent cause.

Secretary Quesada and other Cuban representatives have all along denied that the insurgents would accept anything short of independence, and they profess to be shocked and disappointed at the story of yielding on the part of Gomez. They will not admit that he has communicated with them, but the legation story is to the effect that received by the junta December 5,1in which he says that if Weyler is recalled and Martinez Campos, Calleja or General Pando sent in his place, the insurgents will be ready to talk of laying down their arms.

New York, Jan. 8 .- Antonio Aguierro, a member of the Havana produce exchange, arrived here on the steamer Orizaba, from Havana. He was a resident of Guanabacoa, where, according to recent reports from Havana, atracities were committed by the Spanish troops under Colonel Fondeyejla. Senor Aguierro when seen last night said:

"The reports which reach the United States of the state of affairs in Guanabacoa are from telling the whole truth. Colonel Fondeveila has instituted a reign of terror at the place. His name is well known to the American press.
