DEATHS.

A Polk County Pioneer Dead.

Salem Mail Contractor Dies Quite Suddenly.

James H. Emmett, a pioneer of Polk county, aged about 50, died at his home three miles west of Salem, January 7, after a short illness. He leaves a wife, two sons and two daughters. The burial took place from the residence, at Zena cemetery at 10 a. m. Friday. Deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church and United Workmen. He was well and favorably known at Salem.

SCOVILL.—At his home in South Salem, Thursday, January 7, 1897, after an illness of four days, Al. Scovill, aged about 26 years.

was a native of Salem, and died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Scovill, Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, after a short illness. Deceased was a mail carrier and contractor and was well known in this city. His funeral will be from the house at 10 a. m. Saturday, burial in Rural cemetery.

JOSEPH.—At the family home in this city, on Twelfth near Chemeketa street, at 8:30 a. m. this morning, Friday, Jan. 8, 1897, D. W. Joseph, aged 77 years, 9 months and 26 days.

Deceased was born in Newport, England, March, 12th, 1819. In 1848 he was united in marriage with Miss Hannah Davis, in Liverpool, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph removed to America in 1849, settling in Salem, Ohio. From thence he removed to New York, New Jersey, Wisconsin, and Indiana residing in each state for different periods. In 1892 they came to Or., settling at Salem where they have since resided. Mr. Joseph following his occupation, that of a stone mason, for several years, when he established a small grocery store on Twelfth street, adjoining his residence, which he has conducted until recently.

Deceased was taken ill about six months ago with trouble originating in his glands. For the past three months he has been bedfast, suffering excruciating pain. The trouble terminated in cancer.

Mr. Joseph was a devout Christian, having united with the First Presbyterian church, at an early age. His last words were: "I trust wholly in the Lord." Mr. Joseph was a Mason. Funeral services will be held from the residence, on Twelfth street, at 2 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Wm. Steele, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The remains will be given interment in the L. O. O. F. cemetery.

SALEM SOCIAL NEWS.

Harry Starritt, of Silverton, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. G. M. Beeler. Mrs. M. A. Plamondon and daughter have returned from a visit in Portland.

Miss Laura Kirk went to Portland this morning where she will be the guest of Miss Hattie Litchfield for several days.

A High Class Play.

The Stockwell-Bacon Co. who open up a two nights engagement at the opera house commencing on next Monday night will produce the High Class Comedy "The Magistrate" with Mr. L. R. Stockwell, the eminent California Comedian as the star. Mr. Stockwell's reputation as a clean cut comedian is already so well established that it seems superfluous to say more about his very clever work. The company will produce "Mr. Potter of Texas" the second night. Popular prices will prevail. Reserved seats either in the parquet or gallery 50c. General admission on the lower floor has been placed at 50c, while in the gallery you may go for 25c. This will insure this well known and popular company a crowded house at each performance. Procure seats before it is too late.

NOTES AND PACKAGES—Promptly delivered to any part of the city. Ring telephone 40 or blue boxes.

SENATORIAL

Battle is Now at Salem—A

Fight Between the Gold Standard and Bimetallism.

An old-line Republican remarked this morning that there was the utmost inconsistency in the Salem Statesman advocating a tariff on WOOL, PRUNES, LUMBER, and also the re-election of HON. JOHN MITCHELL when he had done nothing in congress but help tack fatal free coinage riders onto the tariff bills that came from the Republican house.

The whole talk to save Mitchell is now that he alone can save a tariff for Oregon when he has been one of the main obstacles to a tariff. How can the Statesman reconcile its frantic appeals for a tariff and its support of a tariff man who has helped kill tariff bills? But it assumes that Mr. Mitchell now stands on a new platform and that his mind has undergone such a change on silver that it is no longer a paramount issue. Right here the interlocutor pulls out a Mitchell speech to show that without free coinage a protective tariff does not protect.

THE SENATORSHIP fight is now on in Salem and Senator Mitchell will be in the city this evening. A leading silver senator said today: "If the gold standard men have enough votes to elect a gold standard senator they should elect a gold senator on the McKinley platform." If they have not enough votes a genuine bimetalist should be chosen. Of course, to the McKinley platform a senator would not be objectionable who is a corporation man, a Pacific railroad man, a funding bill man. To the genuine bimetalists, or opposition to the gold-monopoly system of finance, a senator against the funding bill would alone be acceptable.

THE LOBBY of Hotel Willamette is rapidly filling up, many of them being Senator Mitchell's workers. They comprise old party adherents and ex-federal office-holders who want to ensure a new grip on the McKinley administration. Some old-timers are conspicuously absent. The Dolph Lobby of two years ago is not in evidence. Sol Abraham is at Salem for a few days but the old Douglas county warhorse is not in the fight. He has been one of Mitchell's fighters in the past and is not indifferent now, but merely as a spectator. "Sol" was the man who discovered Ringer Hermann when he first landed from Baltimore, and headed his delegation to many victorious conventions with a brass band spending his money freely. But he was not wanted at the Albany convention where Herman went down to defeat. "Sol" is one of the largest land owners in Southern Oregon and can pull many a political string when he wants to. He was an aspirant for railroad commissioner four years ago, in fact was promised the place, but when Jo Simon found he wanted to fix rates for farmers and shippers his head was cut off for Jim Eddy. This year one of Uncle Sol's boys, a sharp young criminal lawyer led the canvass for Bryan in Southern Oregon.

MARION COUNTY NEWS.

Items of Interest Gathered in the Court House. A petition from L. J. Brooks is received asking that the will of W. W. Brooks, deceased, be probated. This is the case which has been contested in the courts for some time, decedent having willed most of his property to the African M. E. church. Gennelle Wright was today appointed administratrix of the estate of Eliza Ann Settlemeier.

County court adjourned, but will reconvene tomorrow to effect the annual tax levy.

JACKSON'S DAY.—Large flags are floating on the state house and at the Ladd & Bush bank corner in honor of Jackson's victory over the British at the battle of New Orleans. These are commendable displays of patriotism.

WEATHER FORECAST.—The beautiful clear January weather will be continued Saturday, with a cooler temperature.

The way to introduce a good thing that people really want is to money-back it. Schilling's Best for example.

STATE TAX LEVY FOR 1897.

Eight-Tenths Mills Less Than Levied in 1896. The state board, consisting of the governor, secretary of state and state treasurer, met in annual session today and made the state tax levy, which for the ensuing year is 4 mills even.

The levy last year was 4 3/10 mills. This includes the entire levy, to meet estimated expenses of the state government, public institutions, salaries, etc., during 1897.

VOTES OF POPULISTS.

Wanted Badly: Votes of Populists or Democrats for Mitchell for senator. All sorts of false rumors are circulated on this subject to injure People's party men, with their constituents.

Hon. John C. Young, chairman of the Populist state central committee, yesterday made public an important declaration as to the policy of his party in the coming legislature, not only on the senatorial question, but on the subject of general legislation. He says the Populists will not vote for Mitchell:

"The Populist members of the legislature, will, in all probability, vote for their own senatorial candidate from start to finish. No one yet knows who this will be, but it is likely some one can be found who will offer himself as a sacrifice. So far as I am informed, the claim advanced by the supporters of Senator Mitchell that he will get a portion of the Populist votes is not correct. From such knowledge as I have obtained, those who fought under the banner of Populism in June and November will remain true to their colors."

RELIGIOUS.—Special revival services at the Christian church at 7:30 to-night. Splendid meetings have been held so far this week, and tonight's services promise to be of unusual interest to all who attend.

Dissolution. The undersigned have this day dissolved their co-partnership by mutual consent. All accounts will be settled at once by either of the old firm, J. C. Goodale will continue the lumber business at the old stand hereafter. J. C. GOODALE, C. J. SCHIRAMM.

REMOVED from Polle's old stand, to two doors west of the engine house. We will be pleased to meet all our customers at said stand, where we will be prepared to do general repairing and horse-shoeing. GLOVER & PUGH.
