

Oregon General Assembly

The Nineteenth Session Will Convene Monday.

ALL POLITICAL HEADQUARTERS

Open - A Contest Over Preliminary Organization of House.

KING CAUCUS IS DEAD - DEAD!

Mitchell Has Not Enough Votes to Elect Him Senator.

Dunn's commercial report today reports the highest list of failures in the entire history of our country.

The city is full of assembled legislators, and the indications are that the session will be a most exciting one.

Nearly all the political leaders on all three sides of the great senatorial fight, are now in the city.

Each house is the judge of the election and return of its own members and as the seat of W. H. Noslter of Coos county, elected as a Populist, is contested, or will be contested, the preliminary organization of the house is very important.

The senate will be called to order at 11:30 by one of the holdover senators, when a temporary organization will be effected and the committee on credentials appointed.

The caucus is a thing of the past. The day when a majority of a majority can rule the whole is no more.

Last evening a wager was made between a Populist and a Republican on Mitchell's chances for the senate.

that "Mitchell will be elected on the first ballot."

With the Statesman it used to be the "Little Sawed-Off Poo-Bah" Dock Smith, but now it is the "Little Hercules," of the Marion county delegation.

Hon. H. L. Barkley has a number of bills framed for introduction at the first session of the house, Monday.

The crop of candidates for minor offices were never so late a crop in appearing as this year.

At 2:30 the People's Party members went into conference in a room in the basement of the state house.

Information for Persons Receiving Copies of This Issue.

THE JOURNAL has in the past year gained a state circulation. It is the only paper in Oregon besides the Oregonian that is taken in every part of the state.

1. It is a clean paper. 2. It is an independent paper. 3. It is an opposition paper. It opposes corrupt politics, corrupt methods and corrupt men in all parties.

THE JOURNAL advocates old fashioned honesty and Jeffersonian simplicity. It don't know the meaning of compromise of principle.

Exposure to Disease

CRIMINAL.

Bold Hold-Up in Chicago Cashier Campbell to Fork Over the Duckets.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Two armed robbers entered the buffet of the Auditorium hotel at 1:30 this morning, while twelve people were sitting at the table, covered the cashier, D. Walsh, with their weapons, seized $100 which he had just deposited in a tin box, and then escaped.

The men entered the buffet from the door in the annex. They were well dressed, and created no suspicion until they drew their revolvers. Cashier Walsh had counted out the money and deposited it in the box when one of the robbers said: "Cry for help and you're a dead man."

His companion seized the cash and both backed out of the door with drawn weapons. They ran into Lake Front Park and the police could find no trace of them.

The annex is one of the most prominent hotels in Chicago, and is located in the heart of the city.

Lady Scott Goes to Jail.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—Lady Selina Scott, mother-in-law of Earl Russell, who through her counsel pleaded guilty yesterday to criminally libeling his lordship in conjunction with John Cockerton and William Aylott, was sentenced this morning to eight months' imprisonment without hard labor.

Lady Scott, accompanied by her daughter, Countess Russell, entered the courtroom early. They walked up and down the corridors, the daughter having an arm around her mother's waist.

Probably Murdered.

CHICO, Cal., Jan. 9.—Word has been received in this city of a supposed murder and robbery at Butte creek, seven miles from here.

George Wolfe, teamster, left Chico Wednesday night for Magalla, 18 miles from this city. Late that night pistol shots were heard by the people near Butte creek bridge.

Parties were out all night searching for the missing man, but up to the present time, nothing has been seen of him.

When Wolfe left Chico he is supposed to have had about $1,500 in his possession. Wolfe had been showing his money freely, and it is thought that he was murdered and robbed.
