Cripple

The iron grasp of scrofula has no mercy upon its victims. This demon of the blood is often not satisfied with causing dreadful sores, but racks the body with the pains of rheumatism until Hood's Sarsaparilla cures.

"Nearly four years ago I became afflicted with scrofula and rheumatism.

Running sores broke out on my thighs. Pieces of bone came out and an operation was contemplated. I had rheumatism in my legs, drawn up out of shape. I lost appetite, could not sleep. I was a perfect wreck. I continued to grow worse and finally gave up the doctor's treatment to

Douglas county has gone into debt $125. 000.

The tax levy for Clackamas county is 25 mills—1 mill less than last year.

Mrs. S. C. Wilson, mother of Mrs. B. S. Huntington, of The Dalles, died last Friday.

The marshall of Corvallis has stopped the salvation army from singing on the street.

Hiram A. Straigt, of Oregon City died on Jan. 8 at 3 p.m. being two month under 88 years of age. Heart trouble was the cause.

The Lawler mines have started up again after an idleness of a few weeks. An immensely rich pocket of porphery is said to have been struck.

Professor Kanematz's silkworm colony, comprising more than 80,000 worms, at Coquille, Or., has concluded its cocoon spinning. The professor says the work has been done much quicker and better this season than before, and, if anything, the cocoons are better also.

Last week Mr. Anderson was held up between Canyonville and Bollenbaugh's residence, in Douglas county, by three men. It was dark, and he, in the scuffle which ensued, stabbed one of them. They went through his pockets, but got nothing, as he left his money at Canyonville.

Chief of Police Wells, of Corvallis, has acqaintance cards. They are ornamented with pictures of skull and crossbones, and have this laconic legend: "Tramps, bummers, hobos and beggars are not wanted in Corvallis. So git. C. B. Wells, Chief of Police." When the chief hands this card to a new comer he might as well obey.

A strange story comes from Stayton that a man named Popple was stricken suddenly blind, last Saturday, while working in the hop fields. It is asserted that Popple called to his companion that he could not see, and was at once conducted to his home and medical aid summoned. The unfortunate man was apparently stone blind.

Information for Persons Receiving Copies of This Issue.

THE JOURNAL has in the past year gained a state circulation. It is the only paper in Oregon besides the Oregonian that is taken in every part of the state as the postoffice records show. You are asked to circulate it Because:

1. It is a clean paper.
2. It is an independent paper.
3. It is an opposition paper. It opposes corrupt politics, corrupt methods and corrupt men in all parties.

It supports aggressively the GOOD it finds in public and private life and in all parties. It attacks the evil wherever it finds it.

THE JOURNUL advocates old fasnioned honesty and Jeffersonion simplicity. It don't know the meaning of compromise of principle. It is always on the side of the people as against the aggressions of power that tend to destroy freedom and equal rights.

Exposure to Disease

Does not necessarily mean the contraction of diseaae provided the system is in a vigorous condition, with the blood pure and all the organs in healthy action. When in such a condition contagion is readily resisted and the disease germs can find no lodgment Hood's Sarsaparill is the best medicine to build up the system because it makes pure, rich blood, and pure blood is the basis of good health. In cold weather it is especially necessary to keep up the health tone because the body is subject to greater exposure and more liable to disease. Hood's Sarsaprilla is the safeguard of health.

Is it Simon's Plan.

A Portland letter to Corvallis Times points out that the senatorial fight may interfere with needed legislation. The writer says: "Simon' who leads the opposition to Mitchell, believes that posponement of the election would injure Mitchell's chances. He is endeavering now to delay the organization of the house. The law provides that the vote in the two houses for senator shall take place on the "second Tuesday after the meeting and organization of both legislative branches.' Should the house organize next Monday, the first ballot for senator would take place on the Tuesday of the following week. Mitchell is strong in the senate but not in the house. Simon therefore directs his attention to the latter body. Should the house fail to organize Monday, the first ballot for senator could not happen on Tuesday of the following week, but would be posponed to the week following. Simon would have gained a week's time, and a week's time now is said to be harmful to Mitchell. It might increase the defection from his following.

"This is Simon's programme, and its chances of success are increased by the strong fight over the speakership Simon may hold enough votes to name any man he wants for speaker. If he can so distribute those votes on Monday that there can be no election of speaker, his end will be attained. A plan to secure an adjournment of the house Monday without organization is known to be on foot, and it will be interesting to watch and see what members vote for that adjournment, for that vote will show what members desire a prolongation of the senatorial tight.

"Of course this plan may not be successful. It is however on foot, and its succes will delay and prolong the senatoral contest, will interefere with needful legislation, for until the senatorial question is disposed of law-making cannot proceed."

FREE TO EVERY MAN.

The Method of a Great Treatment for Weakness of Men.

Which Cured "Him" After Everything Else Failed.

Painful diseases are bad enough, but when a man is slowly wasting away with nervous weakness, the mental forbodings are ten times worse than the most severe pain. There is no let up to the mental suffering day or night. Sleep is almost impossible and under such a strain men are scarcely responsible for what they do. For years the writer rolled and tossed on the troubled sea of sexual weakness until it was a question whether he had not better take a dose of poison and thus ends all his troubles. But providential inspiration came to his aid in the shape of a combination of medicines that not only completely restored the general health, but enlarged his weak and emaciated parts to natural size and vigor, and he now declares that any man who will take the trouble to send his name and address may have the method of this wonderful treatment free. Now when I say free I mean absolutely without cost, because I want every weakened man to get the benefit of my experience.

I am not a philanthropist, nor do I pose as an enthusiast, but there are thousands of men suffering the tortures of weakened manhood who would be cured at once could they but get such a remedy as the one that cured me. Do not try to study out how I can afford to pay the few postage stamps necessary to mail the information, but send for it and learn that there are a few things on earth that although they cost nothing to get they are worth a fortune to some men and mean to lifetime of happiness to most of us. Write a Thomas Slater, Box 390, Kalamazoo, Mich, and the information will be mailed in a plain sealed envelope.

M. Ostrogorski, 132 Rue D' Arsas, Paris, France, who is about to bring out a book on American political methods, writes to the author. "Perusing the books on the subject I was fortunate enough to find your book on 'The School of Politics.' I was wondering whether the evils of machine rule and of bossism were obtainining in the west as well as in the East, read it with the greatest interest."

"THE SCHOOL OF POLITICS,"

—OR—

THE AMERICAN PRIMARY SYSTEM EXPOSED.

Published by Charles H. Kerr & Co,, Chicago, Ills. Price 25 cents. A hand book for citizens, legislators and students.

1. The Primary and Spoils Politics.
2. How Primaries Are Conducted.
3. The Primary As It Should Be Safegarded by law.

"The School of Politics" shows that the corrupted primary is the political crime of the Nineteenth century, and that reforms in city, state and national government are out of question until this evil has been remedied.

The little book then lays bare the methods of the bosses from New York to California showing how, under laws made ostensibly to protect the people, they have legalized their fraudulent methods.

The practical working of the primary in city politics is shown up in our principal Western cities.

Also the perfected law adopted in California last year, but knocked out in the courts of that state. The remedy is plainly pointed out.

Should be read by every student of American politics and every legislator. They wile here find the facts of the pernicious system, clearly set forth, also the needed remedies.

"The School of Politics" has had an extended sale in the East, and has been reviewed by many leading journals. If you read a copy you will want others to read it.

Single copies, 25 cents. Special rates on larger numbers. The author would be pleased to receive communications from readers of the book, on the subject under discussion.
