ANOTHER STORE BURGLARIZED.—Last night burglars entered the Southern Pacific toolhouse near the passenger depot and carried off a heavy pick which was found this morning at the rear of the San Francisco second hand store on State street near Commercial, which was burglarized last night. Entrance was gained through the back door by forcing it open with a pick. Five gold watches, about a dozen watch chains, a Smith & Wesson 35 calibre revolver, and a quantity of underwear is missing. There is no clue to the burglars but the robbery is supposed to have been the work of hobos who have been waiting for a favorable opportunity for committing the burglary.

Whereas, There has been much careless legislation in regard to appropriations, appropriating money to sectarian institution also to certain normal schools where but few can be benefited thereby in proportion to the taxpayers also for the state fair and other institutions which are purely private. Also in our county salaries that are fixed by the legislature are much too high and are not uniform and should be reduced in accordance with the times and made uniform with the times and made uniform by allowing officers of counties of about the same population about the same salaries.

Therefore, Be it

Resolved, That we petition the state legislature to act in accordance to these resolutions.

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarth is a blood constitutional disease and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarth Cure is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous faces. Hall's Catarth Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifier, acting directly upon the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarth. Send for testimonials free.

PROMINENT

Methodist Minister Dead.

Rev. J. N. Denison Expires at Grants Pass Wednesday.

Rev. J. N. Denison, one of the most prominent ministers of the Methodist church on the Pacific coast, died at Grants Pass Wednesday night. The reverend gentleman had been suffering for several weeks, but the immediate cause of his death was heart failure.

Rev. Denison has been prominently connected with the Oregon Methodist church for years and his untimely death will be a great loss to the church.

Rev. Denison was a half-brother of Miss Abbie Mills, of this city, superintendent of the Salem hospital. At 1:40 p. m. Wednesday, Miss Mills received a dispatch from Grants Pass announcing that Mr. Denison could not possibly recover. At 11 o'clock this morning she received another dispatch announcing his death which occurred last night.

The parents of the deceased left Hartford, Conn., in Dec. 1849 for Salem, Ore., coming via steamer around Cape Horn. The deceased was born on ship-board just as they entered upon the Pacific Ocean, Christmas day, Dec. 25, 1850. His father died when the deceased was only nine weeks old and his remains were given a grave in the deep. They arrived in Salem early in 1865. A few months later they removed from Salem, settling near Brownsville. The son was sent to Willamette University where he prepared himself for the ministry. Shortly before graduation, Mr. Denison went east to attend the Drew Theological school located in New Jersey. While there he received four diplomas. Having completed his course, Mr. Denison returned to Salem and received the degrees A. M., D. D., and L. L. D.

He has served as pastor in some of the largest churches in Oregon and Washington, the churches and periods of his pastorates being as follows: Century M. E., of East Portland, 1878-1879; Salem M. E., 1879-1883; Seattle First church, 1883-1886; Port Townsend, 1886-1890. In 1890 he took charge of Portland hospital, in that capacity he served for 16 months. He then served as pastor St. Paul's M. E. church, of Portland, in 1893. In 1894-1895 he was pastor of the East Portland Centenary church, and in the fall of 1895 removed to Grants Pass, where he served as pastor of the church there until September 1896.

The deceased was offered a fellowship in Harvard university, which he intended to accept had he recovered from his late illness. He has been a trustee of Willamette University for several years. He leaves a wife and three sons, viz: Willard, Arthur and John. Miss Abbie Mills of this city is a half-sister, and Supt. J. L. Carter of the State Blind school is a cousin of the deceased.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed but will probably be announced tomorrow.

NEXT ATTRACTION.—Sutton Vane's

melodrama, "Humanity" which made such a hit at the Academy of Music, New York, and the Columbia Theatre, San Francisco, will be produced here for the first time at Reed's Opera House next Monday with Joseph Grismer and Phoebe Davies, at the head of the enormous cast. The play is one of William A. Brady's most successful attractions, and it will be put on with a splendidly equipped company—the latest stage effects. With true love that runs roughly for its theme, and war, murder, bomb explosions, broadsword combat, fox hunting with English thoroughbred and trained hounds, and similar realistic features to enliven a sensational plot, "Humanity" is unquestionably one of the strongest melodramas on the American stage. There is no waiting for the last act for some realistic feature. The play is laid in England, and in the African Transvaal, the scene of many a bitter British struggle, and very recently the seat of diplomatic complications that shook the civilized world. There are five great acts, and ten beautiful scenes by the best living masters of the brush.

JOURNAL "X" RAYS.

Directed Upon the Oregon Legislature and Lobby.

The ship of State has struck a snag. Wanted at any price: The presence of the forty thieves.

The big three of the regulars: Benson, Lake and Somers.

Mr. Mitchell's Republican senatorial caucus is called at the House this Thursday evening, Jan. 14th.

Crawford, of Douglas, is the clearest debater on the side of the regulars. He has a good voice and don't posture.

Senator Mitchell is so confident of his success he has determined to remain at Salem during the entire session.

How much a day does the Statesman get for holding up Senator Mitchell as a true-blue original gold standard man?

One of the regulars tells the truth when he said of THE JOURNAL: "It made the fairest report of the proceedings we've had so far."

U'Ren told the people in the lobbies and corridors that it was useless to talk of resorting to violence of repeating the Kansas episode.

The absentees from the House cost no more to the State than those present, and will cost nothing after five days if the House don't organize.

The Washington legislature has honored a number of ladies on the rolls of its permanent House and Senate officers. But what can you expect of a Populist state?

A Portland sketch artist has been working hard to get a correct sketch of Granger Vaughan for an eastern paper. Vaughan is one of the most independent and picturesque men in the legislature.

The regulars who aspire to represent the Republican party in this day and age of the world, who go into a parliamentary contest without organization or leadership, are entitled to sympathy but hardly respect.

The senate is all right; it is organized; it went to work; it appointed all its clerks and got them sworn in on the payrolls; now it has adjourned four days! Shame on the do-nothing house with out a clerk!

This morning before the house was called to order a distinguished looking figure, like a medieval robber, sauntered in. He counted noses and said: "Yes, forty are present. I congratulate the people, gentlemen. My name is All Babo."

Farmer Tom Vaughn of Lane, who came across the plains with an ox-team will find the silver men are not holding up the House. The fellows that are holding it up are a crowd who want to elect a bogus silver man senator and a corporation lawyer into the bargain.

Harvey Hudson has faith to believe that if the legislature could only get to work it would abolish all the "useless" commissions. The sincere, intelligent and independent men in the house begin to regard that expression "useless" as quite a fake.

A Republican legislator from Polk county said today: "So far as passing new laws is concerned, the state of Oregon could afford to pay Mr. Bourne $1000 to keep this deadlock on for forty days. It would be money in the pockets of the people." And he was about right.

As we go to press the opposition presents an unbroken front, while the old timers are all distrustful of one another. The "push" is talking Phil Metschan for governor. Mitchell and Hirsch are watching one another like two monkeys over a piece of cheese. Thus closes the battle at the end of the fifth day. If the opposition combination goes down they will all go down together, fighting for the people.

DIED.

HARRIS.—At the family home near Ricker school house, east of Salem, on Wednesday, January 13, 1897, Violet Harris, aged 8 years.

Funeral services were held at Macleay this afternoon, conducted by Rev. E. Maurer, of Salem.

Catarth in the Head is a disease that may lead to consumption. Catarth is caused by impure blood, and the true way to cure it is by purifying the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarth because it removes the cause of it by purifying the blood. Thousands testify that they have been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable and do not purge, pain or gripe. All druggists, 25 cents.

CUBANS

Remembered by a Member of the Oregon Legislature.

Following was introduced by Senator King.

To the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled:

Your memorialist, the legislative assembly of the State of Oregon most respectfully represents:

Whereas, It is a primary principle of the people of the United States, that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; that, whenever these rights are violated, it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its power in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to affect their safety and happiness.

Whereas, The principles, history and traditions of the people of the United States are favorable to the advancement of civil and political liberty everywhere, as evidenced by the Bartholdi statue, guarding the entrance of New York harbor, a free gift from a free government, which has inscribed upon her brow the sentiment dear to every true American heart, "Liberty enlightening the world."

Whereas, The people of the island of Cuba, who have been oppressed by the tyranny of the government of Spain for centuries, and who, two years ago declared their intention to shake off the yoke of Spain and establish civil and political liberty, and who have during this time successfully resisted the power of Spain to extend and continue her power over them.

Whereas, The proximity of this people to our shores and mutual business intercourse makes them of special interest to us, and whose ability to govern themselves has been demonstrated by their intelligence and patriotism manifested during the present struggle.

Resolved, That we earnestly request congress to recognize the independence of Cuba, and that the government of Spain be notified that if her present method of warfare in the ruthlessly slaughtering of pacific and prisoners of war does not end within the next sixty days, that the government of the United States will interfere in behalf of the Cuba cause.

That our representatives in congress be requested to labor for such action on the part of congress.

That the secretary of state is hereby requested to forward a copy of this memorial to our senators and congress.

The memorial was ordered printed and will probably be passed without division.
