HOP SHIPMENT.—Friday afternoon Heron & Levy, the hop and wool commission merchants, shipped a carload of hops, consigned for the London market. The car contained 75 bales and was the Z. Craven crop.

A stomachful of undigested food is about as unhealthy a mass as one can well imagine.

What can be done for it? There it stays. It won't digest. It churns up, ferments and decays; becomes poisonous as all putrid matter does and causes great pain and diseased disorders.

In order to change all this, take Shaker Cordial.

It stops fermentation and decay at once, so that no more poisons are created. It clears the stomach of poisons already there. It helps it to turn the food that remains into healthful nourishment. It strengthens the stomach for the next meal.

Here is the whole philosophy and cure of indigestion in a few words. And what's more, it's all true. Try it. Shaker digestive Cordial is for sale by all druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 a bottle.

The Social Events

Mrs. J. A. Guiss, of Silverton, who has been visiting Mrs. Carey F. Martin for several days, left this morning for her home, via Woodburn.

The Friday night club met in Hughes' hall last evening. The next meeting of this popular club will be held on February 5, at which time each member is to invite one guest.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Martin gave a reception in honor of Representative Howser of Jackson county Wednesday evening. Quite a number of invited friends gathered and enjoyed refreshments and music until a late hour.

The past week has been rather quiet in Salem's social circles. With our law makers now in our midst, Salemites are preparing for their entertainment. The ensuing weeks, especially during the legislative session, will be marked by many pleasant social events. During next week we will have two excellent entertainments prepared by home talent which never fails to win kindly mention, at the hands of the public. Legislative balls are also mentioned and, in all the ensuing four weeks promise to furnish pleasant entertainment for our visiting legislators.

TWO ENJOYABLE COMEDIES.

The young people, of the Catholic church, gave a delightful entertainment in their hall, just east of the church edifice, last Monday evening, that was much appreciated by the good sized audience in attendance. Some good local talent is found among the young people of this church and in presenting the two laughable farces, entitled, "Who is Who," and "Jumbo Jim," they were warmly congratulated upon the success of the affair.

The cast of characters, in "Who is Who," was:

- Simuldee... (A model young bachelor) W. J. Rafter. Laurence Lavender... (A servant) John Albricht. Mr. Brambleton... (A Hucklestein) Cecelia... (Brambleton's daughter) Mrs. Margaret Cruse. House Maid... Mrs. Joe Aiken. Those presenting "Jumbo Jim" were: Mr. Gobbleton... (A Southern planter) A. Hucklestein. Jumbo Jim... (Gobbleton's servant) Frank Albricht. Mrs. Gobbleton... Mrs. Margaret Cruse. Hannah... (Gobbleton's housekeeper) Mrs. B. A. Kirk. Adelaide... (Gobbleton's ward) Miss Merle Davey. Harry Merville... (Adelaide's lover) John Albricht. Lawyer Cheatem... W. J. Rafter. Laborers... Frank Barr, Freddie Derughish and Leo Barr.

PLEASEANTLY SURPRISED.

On Saturday evening the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Davis gave them a most pleasant and complete surprise. At 8 o'clock the crowd numbering 27, opened the doors and walked in upon them, bearing with them dainty refreshments. Cards and music were the order of the evening until called to the dining room to enjoy a most sumptuous supper. Long after the clock had tolled the hour of midnight the crowd dispersed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Davis many more such happy evenings. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Grant Kightlinger, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lousignot, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Minton, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Darling, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Flagg, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Southwick, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davis, Mrs. Ida Landon, Messrs. A. F. McAtee, Andrew Hansen, Schuyler, Kightlinger, Will Landon, Lloyd Darling, Misses Allie Woodruff and Rosa Tower.

WHIST AND DANCING PARTY.

On Friday evening last, Misses Jessie Sattlemier and Oskie Matthews entertained a small company of their friends at the home of the latter in Englewood addition. That fascinating game of whist was greatly enjoyed followed by a delicious lunch. The pleasures of the evening concluded with dancing which was pleasantly indulged in until a late hour. The first prizes for whist playing were awarded to Miss Leona Paine and Max O. Buren, while Miss Leona White and Dilosa Plamondon carried off the boobies. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Cunningham, Miss Matthews, Miss Sattlemier, Miss Ether Collins, Miss Leona Paine, Miss Nannie Paddock, Miss Hortense Kimball, Miss Sophia Wolf, Miss Pearl Carter, Miss Lona White and Messrs. Max O. Buren, Harry Olinger, Dillon Plamondon, Matt Whan, Chas. Huelat, Walter Stolz, Harry Albert, Bert Hopf, Rex Byars, Boyd Richardson.

INSTALLATION CEREMONIES.

Olive Lodge, No. 18, I. O. O. F., installed officers Saturday as follows: Clarence S. Hamilton, noble grand; Oswald West, recording secretary; Amos Vass, permanent secretary; Samuel Nye, treasurer; W. S. Waterbury, warden; W. H. Joy, conductor; John Q. Wilson, right supporter noble grand; Richard Carlson, right scene supporter. W. J. Culver, district deputy grand master, was the installing officer, assisted by A. O. Condit, acting grand marshal, E. E. Sharon, grand secretary, and John Q. Wilson, acting grand treasurer.

SALEM'S DEBATING SOCIETIES.

At the Y. M. C. A. literary and debating society last evening Max O. Buren was elected president of the society to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of J. W. Reynolds. The subject for discussion was "Resolved, That capital punishment should be abolished." It was warmly discussed, many good points being presented pro and con but a decision was rendered favoring the negative. The society will debate next Friday evening on the subject "Resolved, that crime decreases with the advance of civilization."

The students of the blind school last evening held a very interesting meeting when the ever debatable subject "Resolved, That fire is more destructive than water," was thoroughly discussed. The young people had spent considerable time in preparing for the debate and were well supplied with logical and convincing arguments. The decision was given to the negative, the leader of which was Miss Maude Potter. Considerable ability as a careful debator was exhibited in Miss Mary Roberts who lead the affirmative.

"Resolved, That capital punishment should be abolished" was the subject of an intensely interesting debate that was had at the regular meeting of the W. U. Philodorian literary society last evening. The young debaters had spent considerable time in gathering valuable matter and the discussion became quite lively. Carl G. Morris lead the affirmative in a skillful manner and by his logic and eloquence, made many points. The with marked dignity. A few introductory remarks by Prof. Stahley were followed by prayer from Rev. W. C. Kantner when the popular Chemeketa Quartette sang a beautiful selection for which they received a generous applause, responding with an encore. This splendid quartette of vocalists appeared a number of times during the evening, and the appreciation of the audience was evident each time. The speakers for the evening were Justice R. S. Bean, Rev. W. C. Kantner, and Prof. W. C. Hawley, and the value and sterling qualities of the W. of W. were clearly and intelligently presented. One of the features of the evening's entertainment was the quartette consisting of Misses Haas and Brandenburg and Messrs. Theill and Gardner.
