

LINN AND MARION COUNTIES

The county tax levy in Linn county is thirteen mills. This is lower than it has been for some years.

Marion has a much larger valuation, has fewer bridges to maintain and is not "cursed" by a Populist or Democratic county government.

In Linn, Clackamas and some of the Populist counties all the county officials pay their own deputies and are making records of economy.

DR. DRIVER'S DRIVE

Dr. Driver's second bill in the senate is likely to be no more fortunate than the first. His first was to fine members of the legislature $50 for refusing to attend and "organize" when wanted or required under the law.

This was clearly unconstitutional, as the legislature is the sovereign power in the state, the representative of the supreme will of the people and limited alone by the provisions of the constitution made by themselves creating the legislature and prescribing its functions.

WHICH IS THE LEGISLATURE?

When sixty members of a house participate in forming a temporary organization under the constitution of this state, and a minority of twenty-eight then repudiate their own actions by electing a rump speaker, what cannot be done by a defeated faction?

It is plain the Benson faction had no legal authority to repudiate the temporary organization, which they had helped to perfect. That temporary organization will stand as the legally organized house of representatives until it is dissolved by a higher legal authority construing the constitution. The situation is an interesting one and the people will be interested in its development.

HOFER BROS. Editors.

AMOUNTMENT.—The A. P. A. adjourned yesterday, after having installed the following officers: F. A. Alexander, of Corvallis, state president; George A. Hall, of St. Helens, state vice president; C. O. Hofsford, of Multnomah county, state chaplain; J. T. Hayne, of Portland, state secretary (re-elected); J. W. LET US PRAY.

Let us pray that legislators, who are here in session now will be granted grace sufficient to fulfill their stated vow. And as much more as is needed to withstand the ills of fate which are thrown with reckless freedom at a legislator's gate.

Let us pray that they may gather just enough of ignorance, to ignore the third house party. Which so often makes men dance. To a tune which coming later causes weakness in the knees, and debars the blessed chances of just doing as they please.

Let us pray that they are fondled for these homicidal chaps, that their lights may not be snuffed out.

By such grievous, sad mishaps, but that grace enough be given each and every mother's son, to go back to early statutes when our statehood first began.

Let us pray that they'll have patience with the beneficiary call—Not stop over with profusion nor be niggardly at all. But with even-handed justice—Knowing times are might tight—Ladle out the people's money in a manner just and right.

Let us pray that they will listen to the universal call, and avoid the festive junket—Which so often gets them all—Saying headaches and expenses saying nothing of galore, and retrieve the fading virtues of the sessions gone before.

Let us pray that they go lightly on expenses, one and all, but with just and careful prudence. Deal the same with great and small, and altho' their hat bands tighten, that their heads will not swell so their constituents won't know them as they homeward bounding go.

Lastly, let us pray sincerely, that they struggle all the while, night and day, both late and early, and without the slightest guttle, to abbreviate their session—Cut it short and do it quick—Then will people call them blessed and they'll terrify old Nick.

Items From Chemawa.

Elijah Brown returned from Carlisle, Penn., Tuesday, where he has been for several months. He returned because of poor health, and will continue his studies at Chemawa where he has been attending school for several years. Several former students of Chemawa are now at Carlisle and from the latest report are doing well.

Improvements are going on at the school, which, when completed, will add greatly to its appearance. Contractors are excavating a well and a natatorium. The well will furnish a plentiful supply of good water and the natatorium will take the place of four present bathing systems.

D. E. Brewer is away on a business trip to Tacoma and will not return for a few days.

At present there are over 300 pupils on the ground and letters are being received daily from others desiring admission. Never before in the history of the school has there been such an awakening among the Indians of the surrounding states. They are beginning to realize the necessity of having their children educated and taught how to compete with the white man in the pursuits of life.

The Indian School band will soon rank among the leading bands of the county. It is making good progress under the able management of Mr. Josiah George, of Six Nations, New York. Concerts are given twice each week, on Tuesdays and Fridays at 1 p. m.

Rev. Burdette preached at the school Sunday. The sermon was interesting and instructive to the listeners.

A game of football is scheduled to take place between the Chemawa and Salem juniors on Saturday afternoon. The boys are undergoing practice daily and expect to have a hard fought battle with the young Salemites. The game will take place on the school grounds and all are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. Armstrong, one of our former pupils, is visiting relatives at the school. Since leaving our school her home has been at Jeneau, Alaska.

Mr. Edgar Laufman, of Illinois, is at present visiting relatives at the school.

Judge Riddle of Douglas showed his colors like a man. He has blood in him and is not white-livered at all. Fresh supply of the noted Stockton tomatoes, at Strong's restaurant.

CONGRESSIONAL

Not Much Business Is Done.

The Yost-Tucker Contest Comes Before the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The senate chaplain made a feeling reference to the affliction of Senator Harris, of Tennessee, in the death of his wife and the confinement of his own health, and to the continued illness of Senator Warren.

The house joint resolution authorizing Fort Bidwell, Cal., for an Indian training school was agreed to. The house bill was passed extending the time for the building of a railroad through Omaha and the Winnebago Indian reservation of Nebraska.

The house resumed consideration of the Yost-Tucker contested election case from the tenth Virginia district.

Dearmond of Missouri a member of the elections committee, took the floor in support of the majority report which favored the contestee, Tucker. Dearmond argued that the house should be governed by the Virginia law, which, for the purpose of the case, was a federal law. He admitted the house could disregard the Virginia law in order to determine the intentions of the voters, but to do so, he contended, would be to establish a dangerous and far-reaching precedent.

The conferees of the house and senate on the bill providing for the organization of the Atlantic & Pacific railway were conference over the amendments made in the senate. The conference adjourned until Saturday without reaching an agreement. Indications are the house bill will be substantially adopted.

The work required ten days. Owing to a number of repetitions, the report submitted will have to be corrected in some respects preparatory to filing it at the annual meeting next March. However the census shows about 2000 children of school age residing within the district.

Sometimes a dead man may be revived—may be resurrected. Sometimes it is often hard to tell whether the man is dead or alive. We hear of people who have been buried and then found to be alive. A man must be completely dead before hope should be abandoned. It is a fact to be true that when a man found himself apparently dead he had consumption. He gave up immediately. His condition was considered a necessarily fatal disease. It was considered incurable. As soon as it developed enough so that a physician could decide that it was really consumption, the patient was considered as good as dead. Years ago, Dr. Pierce found out that consumption was not incurable, that it was not necessarily fatal. He not only found this out, but he found out a way to cure consumption. He introduced his "Golden Medical Discovery." The "Discovery" will cure 99 per cent of all cases of consumption. Consumption is a disease of the blood. It is caused by impoverishment of the blood, and by the existence of disease germs in the system. If the body is perfectly strong and healthy, and the blood perfectly pure, germs are easily thrown out. If the body is weak, if the tissues are incapable of much resistance, the germs take a resting place and develop. That is the way consumption begins.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" searches out the germs, forces them out of the system and purges consumption and other kindred diseases of the throat, bronchitis and lungs. No doubt about it, no question about it. It has done it in hundreds and thousands of cases. The "Discovery" is sold at drug stores.
