OREGON LEGISLATURE

Temporary House in Session

And Adjourns Over a Day According to Law.

To accommodate Chief Clerk Moody and the Portland members the temporary house organization met at 2 o'clock and adjourned over to 8 o'clock Sunday evening, when it will again adjourn to Monday morning. The Benson, or Rump faction made a serious mistake in passing a joint resolution by viva voce vote, as the constitution requires such a resolution to be passed by a majority of the members elected on an aye and nay vote.

The struggle for recognition of the jump-house in the senate is about abandoned. The Davis organization will assemble from day to day until a quorum is present. Speaker Davis will not leave the city until the legislature is permanently organized.

School meeting at 7:30 this evening—Opera house.

A SNEAK THIEF.—A house on Court street just back of J. J. Dalrymple's dry goods establishment, was visited by a sneak thief early last evening. The building is used as a lodging place for persons employed in Strong's restaurant and when Willis Judson, one of the waiters, went to his room for the purpose of making some changes in his toilet, he discovered that some one had entered the room and removed a suit of clothes and a mackintosh. It is not known how the man gained entrance to the room since he left no trace whatever of his visit. The same place was visited only a week or ten days ago and a quantity of clothing removed. There is no clue to the guilty party.

DAVIS BOUND OVER.—The preliminary examination of Frank Davis, who was arrested in Corvallis early this week on the charge of adultery, was held in Police court this morning. All spectators and witnesses were excluded from the court room, the trial being conducted behind closed doors. District Attorney S. L. Hayden appeared for the state while Messrs. McCourt and Prescott conducted the defense. Davis was bound over to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $500 in default of which he was committed to the county jail.

MISINFORMED.—It seems THE JOURNAL was misinformed in stating that Mrs. Ed Burton and Mrs. W. J. Polly were held up and robbed by a footpad Wednesday evening. The ladies did not happen to attend the meeting of the lodge that night at all. It is quite probable that no such a hold-up actually occurred, since the police have as yet not been informed.

STOPPED BUYING.—The mill has stopped buying wheat today and will not buy any more for a number of days.

A WATCHWORD.—Protection is a watchword among the Republicans, but so far as protecting home industry is concerned it should be universally adopted. Its only a small matter, but in purchasing your cigars smoke only the 10 cent La Carona. It has no equal.

School meeting of legal voters this evening at Opera house, to levy tax and consider matter of renting Polytechnic building.

A GREAT SPREAD.—Turkey and chicken, and all you can eat of it, at Strong's restaurant for Sunday dinner.

ORANGES.—Small and great of the choicest varieties, at Sonneman's, 124 State street.

NOTARY.—J. G. B. Philips, new notary today. If you are interested in the public schools, attend the meeting tonight.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. Look out for the grand masquerade and auction to be held in the city hall on Monday, February 1, under the auspices of the Episcopal church. Come one, come all, masked and in appropriate costumes.

A POPULAR PLACE.—The White House restaurant, on State street, conducted by George Bros., is evidently a popular place to eat, judging from the immense throngs that gather there daily.

NEVER FAILS TO CURE.

Astonishing Record of the Great Paine's Celery Compound.

Paine's celery compound has never yet failed to cure. Where all other medical treatment has failed to relieve Paine's celery compound has succeeded time and time again.

John W. Boyd of Mishawaks, Ind., says of his own case: Last winter I was taken down with a very severe attack of nervous and muscular rheumatism, so bad that I could not lie down sit up or stand, without excruciating pain. I was all the time under the care of two of the best physicians of the place, but I did not improve. I took different rheumatic cures and used an electric battery a half hour each day for 10 days, without any relief.

"Finally I concluded to try Paine's celery compound, and to my surprise after using one half of a bottle I was able to get out and vote on election day and before I used the whole bottle I went to work, and have worked every day since. I have gained 20 pounds in weight and am feeling first rate.

My wife has also been taking it for nervousness, and thinks that there is nothing like it. We both recommend it to all of our acquaintances, and you are at liberty to use this letter as you see fit, if it truly worked wonders in my case."

And Paine's celery compound is working just such wonders in every state, county, city and village of the country today. The reader must know some one who has tried it. Ask that person if he or she was at once benefited! Don't let a dealer palm off anything else on you, however; for there is as much difference between Paine's celery compound and all the ordinary sarsaparilla, tonics, nervines and compounds as there is between an electric motor and a boy's windmill. There is power to cure in Paine's celery compound.

Sheriff's Sales. Sheriff Wrightman conducted four execution sales at the court house today as follows: Hoefler & Zorn vs. A. M. Keene et al., 400 acres, bid in by plaintiff for $6,743.63.

H. P. McNary, receiver of the Williams & England Banking Company vs. James and Emma McCourt, lots 7 and 8, block 1 in the southwest addition to Salem, sold to plaintiff for $349.46.

American Mortgage Company of Scotland, Limited vs. B. E. and Amy Robertson et al., 230 acres, in secs. 25 and 26 in township 8 south range 3 west sold for $2,771.09, interest and costs.

Lands in blocks 1 and 60 of Salem, sold for $350 in case of H. P. McNary receiver, vs. T. H. and Carrie I. Burley, et al.

Columbia Implement Company vs. John C. Barnes, an undivided seven-eighths of the undivided half of 200 acres and 124.52 acres in Marion county to satisfy a judgment for $157.85 and interest and costs was settled before offered for sale.
