Pianos, $185.
Pianos, $285.
Pianos, $185.

Gilbert Bros. have just received a carload of pianos and among the lot is two very fine ones, one in Mahogany and one in oak, these will be sold at $185, just to introduce them. Anyone wishing a piano will do well to call and see them as no such bargains in pianos was ever offered at such prices before. A fine stool and spread with every instrument. We also have a full line of organs that we will sell all the way from $35 up; they are standard goods and a full guarantee goes with every instrument.
If anything we sell you is not right all you have to do is to call on Gilbert Bros., and not have to hunt up some one in Portland to make it right.
Call and see for yourselves is all we ask.

A RELIC OF THE CIVIL WAR.—Justice H. A. Johnson today received from the east a valuable relic of the late rebellion and more especially of the assassination of President Lincoln: It is a reprint copy of the New York Herald, published Saturday morning April 15, 1865, the morning following the assassination. It is a seven column folio and the greater part of the front page is taken up in an account of the assassination. A large portrait of the assassinated president adorns the first page. The remainder of the paper is filled with war news, touching on the closing scenes of the great rebellion. The editorial page contains two patriotic articles, one on "The Assassination of President Lincoln and Attempted Murder of Secretary Seward," the other on "The War Situation."

LAND TRANSFERS.—The following deeds were filed with County Recorder F. W. Waters this morning: Gloriunda Kell, unmarried, to Jacob Giesy, 1 acre, sec. 12, t. 4 s. r. 1 w., consideration $300; Sylvia G. and J. N. Smith to Nellie E. Cook, lots 5 and 6, block No. 23, Highland addition to Salem, consideration $500; Jacob Ogle and Martha A. Ogle, his wife, lots 10, 11, 16 and 17 in block 1, Ogles addition to city of Woodburn; consideration $1300; Jno. C. Barnes and Floie M. Barnes, 124.52 acres in t. 5 s. r. 2 w., consideration $1500; John W. Simpson and wife to A. D. Gardner, et. al. of the Stayton labor exchange, 734 rods in city of Stayton, consideration $40.

THE BEARS HAVE COME TO TOWN.—Two Italians arrived in the city overland this morning with two cinnamon bears. Several performances were given on the streets and of course they did not fail to pass the hat. Judging from the collection they received it was a cold day for these people at Salem in more than one respect.

SUSTAINED THE OBJECTIONS.—Today was set for hearing the final account of D. B. Pickens administrator of the Hill estate. The heirs filed objections to the final account which were sustained by Judge G. P. Terrell.

It's Really Amusing.
It is very amusing to see how impossible it is for our "would-be" competitors to write an advertisement without referring to the Kimball Co., or its representatives, but perhaps they do this to identify themselves with the musical world and to give their advertisements some tone.
The Kimball is a thorn in the side of all competitors, and the Kimball representatives are driving that thorn home, and it makes them squirm. They know they can't compete with the Kimball in tone, touch, durability and finish, and last, but of the greatest importance to the purchaser, they can't reach the prices which the manufacturers are now making. You have our sympathy, boys, but you must not play with fire if you don't want to get burnt.
The public are cordially invited to call and inspect the elegant assortment of Kimball pianos we are now showing at 310 Commercial street.
The Kimball walked off with the Highest Award at the World's Fair and has received the highest honors wherever and whenever exhibited and has the unqualified endorsement of all the leading local musicians wherever known. Call and see the Kimball and investigate our prices.

Factory Representative.

MARKETS.
WHEAT.
The liberal acceptance of wheat for export failed to hold prices today. Disappointing cables stimulated the bearish sentiment already existing among local traders. Values were depressed however, more from lack of outside speculative support than from any other cause. It must be admitted that wheat does not respond as readily to bull news as it did a while ago. Every southern wind brings to our ears reports of Argentina crop ruin. Argentina's last crop has been ruined so many times that we may now consider it extinct and the attention of traders can be turned to other news. May wheat struck the lowest figures today that it has been yet.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—May wheat opened on board at 78 1/2 and closed at 77 1/2. Cash wheat sold for 75. Liverpool January wheat opened at 6s 7d—1 cent lower than yesterday.

DIED.

JORDAN.—At the family home, corner of Marion and Liberty streets, at 3 p. m., Monday, January 25, 1897, Mrs. Helen S. Jordan, aged 58 years, of Bright's disease.

Owing to ill-health Mrs. Jordan, accompanied by her husband, went to California early last fall to spend the winter in hopes that the change of climate might prove beneficial. Instead her condition became more serious making it necessary for her to return to Salem, arriving home only last Thursday.

Deceased was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1839 and crossed the plains with her parents in 1853. Three years later she was married to J. D. Jordan at Albany and in 1861 removed to Salem where she has since resided.

She leaves a husband and a son, Harvey S. Jordan. A sister, Mrs. Thos. Reynolds, of Portland, also survives the deceased.

Deceased was an honored member of Salem Rebekah Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F.

ATTACHED.—The stock of cigars and tobacco at the state house the sale of which is conducted by W. E. Burke, of Portland, were yesterday afternoon attached by Deputy Sheriff A. T. Wain to satisfy a claim held by Thomas Watt & Co., against W. E. Burke for $31.85. The matter was settled, however, and the business is still being conducted.

Dawson's Bitters for indigestion.

JUDGMENT.—A suit has been instituted in the Marion county circuit court, by H. Stapleton whereby he seeks to recover judgment against F. and Yenne Vander Baan for $900 and interest at 8 per cent from July 7, 1893.

DIVORCE.—Mary F. Bogan has instituted a suit for divorce from Sylvester A. Bogan.

A Refined Entertainment.
The Webbling sisters will give one of their superb entertainments at the opera house, tomorrow night. The Seattle Post-Intelligence says: "The musical and literary entertainment, given in Ranke's hall, last evening, well deserved the large house it received. The Misses Webbling are decidedly clever and versatile. The selection from the "Hunchback" and the "Taming of the Shrew" were finely rendered. "The April Jest" and "Columbia" also showed a keen appreciation of the characters undertaken. "A Dance of the Summer Flowers," by Miss Rosalind and Lucy, was the most graceful performance seen in Seattle for some time, and was heartily enjoyed by the audience. Miss Kenrick was enthusiastically applauded for her delightful music upon the piano.

Popular prices will prevail—50 and 25 cents. Secure your seats at Patton's.

Call for Warrants.

Notice is hereby given that I have cash on hand to pay all warrants endorsed up to June 7, 1895, and interest on the same will cease on the date of this notice. Dated January 9, 1897.

Information for Persons Receiving Copies of This Issue.

THE JOURNAL has in the past year gained a state circulation. It is the only paper in Oregon besides the Oregonian that is taken in every part of the state as the postoffice records show. You are asked to circulate it.

1. It is a clean paper.
2. It is an independent paper. It opposes corrupt politics, corrupt methods and corrupt men in all parties.
It supports aggressively the GOOD it finds in public and private life and in all parties. It attacks the evil wherever it finds it.
THE JOURNAL advocates old fashioned honesty and Jeffersonian simplicity. It doesn't know the meaning of compromise of principle. It is always on the side of the people against the aggressions of power that tend to destroy freedom and equal rights.

Hearth® cured by Dawson's Bitters.
Catarrh Cannot Be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood constitutional disease and in order to cure it you must take internal remedial medicine. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is the best tonic known, combined with the best blood purifier, acting directly upon the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials free.
