Mr. Watson is Elected.

The Student Body of the Willamette university held a business meeting Tuesday afternoon, when the resignation of Chas. J. Atwood, as editor in chief of the Collegian, was accepted. It was necessary to hold an election that the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Atwood might be immediately filled and the work of editing the paper continue without any interruption. Ralph Watson, an academy student, received a large majority of the votes cast and was declared elected. Heretofore only a college student has been thus honored and the election of Mr. Watson is evidence of the confidence the students have in his ability to most acceptably fill that position. Mr. Watson possesses more than ordinary ability as a writer, as is evident from his latest poetic production, entitled "The Creation", besides numerous other compositions. We predict the interest and popularity of this valuable school publication will be materially advanced under Mr. Watson's management.

The marriage of Miss Adda Denham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Denham, to Mr. Delbert Dinmore, the popular and well-known salesman at the "White Corner," is announced to take place at high noon on Sunday, February 7, 1897, in the Unitarian church, corner of Cottage and Chemeketa streets.

Tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock the sale of tickets for the Salem Jolly Lady Minstrels will begin at Patton Brothers Store Tickets 50 & 25 cents. Don't fail to secure your seats in time as there is a large demand for them.

You should try Dawson's Bitters.

JOURNAL "X" RAYS.

Directed Upon the Oregon Legislature and Lobby.

A Salem Mayor would make a good senator.

The Benson house can't afford to be undignified. Dignity is all it's got.

The "Push" wore anxious hungry faces and most of them went without dinner.

A redeeming feature of the rump legislature—the presence of a few ladies.

"We are ready for the next candidate with a sack."—Salem Statesman.

"Standing advertisements of senators, with picture, for the session, $2."—Salem Statesman.

Dr. J. A. Richardson has not been near the legislature. Is Salem's mayor a candidate?

Query: Is not an average school meeting, the peer in every respect of an Oregon legislature?

There are very few dog-salmon democrats out side of Salem, and there ought to be more here.

Brown of Morrow and Somers of Linn, seem to have no difficulty in getting the ear of Speaker Benson.

The loyal push at Salem, hired or expenses paid, have an intense admiration for Gratke's dog-salmon Democracy.

Uncle Sol Hirsch is on the ground taking a hand in electing Mr. Mitchell. He wants to go to Italy for his goodnight.

The Statesman talks about Representative Howser selling a pass. What hasn't it sold? It is an authority on selling.

The dull vacuity and insipidity of the Benson house is relieved by the occasional presence of some very fine looking ladies.

The first duty of the "national mother's congress" is to take across their knee and spank the various deadlocked legislatures.

Mr. Jim Robinson, a Mitchell man from Eugene, was in Salem yesterday, a caller upon Representative Palm, of Lane county.

Senator Hatch and a lot of pages occupied the seats placed for the senate in the rump joint convention. The senators were absent.

The fellows who want a fat thing out of their devotion to the people will oppose Lake's reform resolution for pay of the house employees.

THE JOURNAL is not afraid to talk about bribery when there is evidence of it in the air. Honest men are not hurt by calling a spade a spade.

An impressive sight for the rising generations—a rump speaker in the chair of the Oregon legislature puffing a two-for-a-nickel-cabbageolito.

Lake, of Lincoln, voted for Mitchell in the Benson house, yesterday, but will not associate with a fragment of the senate on top of a minority house.

The JOURNAL said Howser was the youngest man in the house. Hudson claims to be younger, and Gratke is not much over 21. They are only in the Benson house, however.

A distant relative of Representative Kruse was hired to come all the way from the state of Washington to endeavor to influence Kruse by means of money. He offered Kruse $5,000. Kruse had already been offered $3,000 by a stranger.

That contractor who tried to bribe Elder Barkley said that he did not expect that he (Barkley) could support Mitchell but that he could influence two votes that were worth $10,000 to Mitchell.

The legislature should pass a bill to change the name of "experts" the county books to some term that would define it more accurately, as for instance, "salary drawing."

You can expect too much of Schilling's Best—it is only tea.

But your grocer gives your money back if you don't like it.

In packages, full weight.

A Schilling & Company San Francisco

Senator Mitchell, Judge Carey, Dave Dunn, Captain Beecher, Wilson Hume, Chas. Runaway Fulton and other celebrities of the sack, were an interesting group to study in the senate chamber when the joint assembly collapsed.

Which will get the United States Marshallship, Capt. Belcher or John Hall? Mitchell has promised it to both. Belcher seems to have been the most active and doing more "business" for Mitchell at Salem recently than Hall.

One of the men who tried to bribe Representative Howser is well known and can be identified. He has sandy whiskers four or five inches long and is a very large tall man. He is fifty-five years old, (one of the witnesses thinks,) and is quite bald-headed. You can sometimes see his bald head from behind when his hat is on.

Mitchell representatives offered Davis of Umatilla $1,000 if he would simply sign the call for Republican caucus. He did not need to vote they said, but just simply sign the call. This base offer made Davis so mad that he has fearlessly stood out against Mitchell ever since. Davis is a man of principle.

C. W. Washburne, of Junction City, Dr. Kuy Kendall of Eugene, and Jim Robinson, of Eugene, assisted Father Burlingame in keeping Palm, from Lane in line for Mitchell. Palm is a gold standard man and would not vote for Mitchell if he did not believe Mitchell were for the gold standard without any qualifications. The gold standard push is here to see that he does it.

Lane county virtually has only one senator now. Poor Old Man Driver has insulted more than half the senate, so that it will be useless for him to try to get through any legislation. Driver made some good points in his really strong speech in the senate yesterday, but more than spoiled it all by entirely losing his temper, and has since declared that he made a fool of himself. There is still hope for Driver if he really realizes this fact.

"I stand exactly where Mr. Corbett stands on this question of finance," said senator Mitchell to a People's member this morning, "except that Corbett don't believe in international bimetallism and I do." To the credit of Mr. Corbett, be it said he does not believe in that gold-plated fraud, called international agreement. Corbett stands on the same platform with Hon. Lyman Gage, secretary-to-be of the treasury.

Senator Reed was for Mitchell until he found out that Dr. Driver, Mitchell and God had declared a state of anarchy and had deserted all law and the constitution. Senator Reed says he will support the constitution of this state and of the United States. He is a patriotic American. He don't want in with this party of men running by divine law. Human, American, United States, Oregon law is good enough for him.

Father Burlingame, the A. P. A. leader from Eugene, had to go and take poor old Dr. Driver to dinner yesterday after the defeat of that antiquated gentleman in the senate. The poor old senator, in his dotage had stopped in the corridors to explain to some small boys how it had happened and would have been there yet had not Burlingame (who already had Representative Palm, the dough man from Lane in tow) come along and took them both off to dinner.

As Brownell is well enough to participate in the proceedings it is well enough to recall a few of his performances of two years. He came to Salem swearing the senators ought never elect Simon President, or the legislature elect Dolph. It was he that nominated both, and in the end revealed that he was a leader in the McBride movement. Mitchell prefers such a leader to an honest man like Jack Bourne.

Two weeks ago a prominent contractor of this state went to Elder Barkley and offered him ten thousand dollars if he would procure two votes for Mitchell. The Elder asked where the money was and he said that a certain real estate man and banker of this state had the money. When reprimanded by the Elder the contractor said that the reason he wanted Mitchell elected was that he (the contractor) had been doing work for the public and that he would not be able to get his money unless Mitchell was elected and the house organized.

MARRIED.

KINSEY-COLLISON.—At the residence of State Superintendent G. M. Irwin, corner of Chemeketa and Capitol streets at high noon, Wednesday, February 3, 1897, Miss F. Mayne Collison, of this city, to Mr. I. E. Kinsey, of Baker City. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. M. Irwin in the presence of only the relatives and immediate acquaintances of the contracting parties. A sumptuous wedding breakfast was partaken of immediately following the ceremony.

The bride is one of Salem's handsome and accomplished young women and has been teaching school at Aurora. The groom is a successful young business man of Baker City, being clerk in the "Washer House."

The newly married couple left on the 2:30 local for Baker City where they will make their home.

Justice Court.

The damage suit of Mrs. Lizzie Makenny vs. Mrs. M. Frazier has occupied the time in Justice Johnson's court the past two days. The testimony was all submitted this morning and an adjournment was taken until 10 a. m. Thursday, when the case will be argued pro and con by respective counsels. The plaintiff seeks to recover damages amounting to about $221, and her attorneys are Holmes & Kellogg. Wm. Kaiser, is attorney for the defense.

A LARGE ADVANCE SALE.—Louis James will have one of the largest attendance in the history of the Reed! Already 251 tickets have been sold. It has been suggested by a few society ladies that all ladies attending tonight's performance will remove their hats. The company arrived on the 11 o'clock train and are hard at work arranging their scenery.
