Scrofula

Infests the blood of humanity. It appears in varied forms, but is forced to yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies and vitalizes the blood and cures all such diseases. Read this: "In September, 1894, I made a misstep and injured my ankle. Very soon afterwards,

A Sore

two inches across formed and in walking to favor it I sprained my ankle. The sore became worse; I could not put my boot on and I thought I should have to give up at every step. I could not get any relief and had to stop work. I read of a cure of a similar case by Hood's Sarsaparilla and concluded to try it. Before I had taken all of two bottles the sore had healed and the swelling had gone down. My is now well and I have been greatly benefited otherwise. I have increased in weight and am in better health. I cannot say enough in praise of Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. H. BLAKE, So. Berwick, Me.

CUBA

Gen. Weyler Greatly Worried.

His Perilious March to Havana--A Correspondent's Arrest.

NEW YORK. Feb. 8.—A Key West special to the World says:

As General Weyler was marching with his column just before entering Santa Clara, his horse was shot from under him by a Cuban sharpshooter. It is supposed the shot came from a distant hillside.

Throughout the march was Rodas, the captain-general was assailed by mis-iles of this kind, and several times barely escaped being wounded. He is greatly worried over it, and large scouting parties precede the advance of the Spanish columns to capture the daring marauders.

A Spanish force of 5000 was ambushed Wednesday night near Nazarene, just west of Santa Clara, where General Weyler was then, and narrowly escaped annihilation Arrested.

WASHINGTON. Feb. 8.—Consul-General Lee telegraphed the state department from Hayana:

"Sylvester Scovel, a World correspondent, was arrested at Tunas Santa Clara province."

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Sylvester Scovel is the only New York correspondent who has been for any length of time with the Cuban army in the field. He has had considerable success in eluding the vigilance of the Spanish troops and getting his dispatches out of Cuba. He is the son of Rev. Dr. Scovel, president of Wooster university. He is well educated, and an allround athlete.

Sylvester Scovel, who, it is stated, has been arrested by the Spanish authorities, was a former resident of Cleveland and went to Cuba about a year and a half ago. He was on Maceo's staff, and was intrusted by that officer to carry important dispatches to Gomez. He has also acted as a correspondent of several newspapers in the United States. Two or three times he boldly left the Cuban army and entered Havana, and finally caused suspicion to be directed against him by the Spaniards. Some months ago, it is alleged, General Weyler offered $10,000 reware for the capture of Scovel.

In Prisons.

HAVANA, Feb. 8.—Senor Eduardo Arail, editor of El Pueblo, published at Puerto Principe, in the province of the same name, and correspondent of La Discussion, who was charged with being guilty of evolving newspaper articles inimical to the government of Spain, and who has been confined in prison in this city, will be embarked tomorrow for the penal colony of Chafarinas.

Eduardo Hernandez, Rafael Hernandez, Luis Casco and 43 others, charged with political offenses, were placed in jail here yesterday to await a disposition of their cases by the governor-general. Abrea, a sister of Francisco and Esperanza Sanchez, who a few days ago were captured in the province of Pinar del Rio, has been imprisoned in the Woman's Refuge, to await action on the part of the governor-general. Another prisoner confined by order of the Spanish authorities is Valentine Buiz, who at one time acted as executioner for the Nanigoes.

Filibusterers.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 8.—The steamer Three Friends was seized and libeled upon her return today from a towing trip down the coast. The libel charges piracy; that a Hotchkiss gun was mounted upon the bow of the steamer and was fired at a Spanish gunboat at the mouth of the San Juan river, while endeavoring to land an expedition. The persons named in libel are John O'Brien, W. T. Lewis, John Dunn, August Arnau, Michael Walsh and Ralph D. Payne. Judge Locke fixed the bond at $5,000, which was immediately furnished, and the boat was released, upon the special provision that a deputy marshal should be placed on board and have authority to take charge of the boat in ease an attempt be made at any time to violate the law.

The Woodall Case.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—When the cases of Roloff, Luis and Trjiullo, charged with violating the neutrality laws, were called for hearing before Commissioner Shields; United Statey Marshal McCarty asked that the action based on the defendants' alleged participation in the Woodall expedition be dismissed. This course was taken in view of the fact that indictments have been found against the men named by the United States grand jury at Baltimore, from which port the Woodall sailed on her so-called filibustering expedition. The commissioner complied with the request, whereupon bench warrants from the Baltimore court were served upon the accused Cubans. Counsel for Roloff, Luis and Trujillo waived examination upon the charges relative to the Horsa expedition, and the men were released upon their own recognizance.

FREE TO EVERY MAN.

The Method of a Great Treatment for Weakness of Men.

Which Cured Him After Everything Else Failed.

Painful diseases are bad enough, but when a man is slowly wasting away with nervous weakness, the mental forbodings are ten times worse than the most severe pain. There is no let up to the mental suffering day or night. Sleep is almost impossible and under such a strain men are scarcely responsible for what they do. For years the writer rolled and tossed on the troubled sea of sexual weakness until it was a question whether he had not better take a dose of poison and thus ends all his troubles. But providential inspiration came to his aid in the shape of a combination of medicines that not only completely restored the general health, but enlarged his weak and emaciated parts to natural size and vigor, and he now declares that any man who will take the trouble to send his name and address may have the method of this wonderful treatment free. Now when I say free I mean absolutely without cost, because I want every weakened man to get the benefit of my expirience.

I am not a philanthropist, nor do I pose as an enthusiast, but there are thousands of men suffering the tortures of weakened manhood who would be cured at once could they but get such a remedy as the one that cuerd me. Do not try to study out how I can afford to pay the few postage stamps necessary to mail the informrtion, but send for it and learn that there are a few things on earth that although they cost nothing to get they are worth a fortune to some men and mean to lifetime of happiness to most of us. Write a Thomas Slater, Box 390, Kalamazoo, Mich and the information will be mailed in a plain sealed envelope.

President JOHN SMITH,

AN APPEAL FOR MAJORITY RULE.

"The Right of an American Citizen to Demand and Obtain Work at Wages sufficient to Support Himself and Family shall no longer be Denied."—JOHN SMITH.

A MASTERLY SOCIAL SKETCH by Frederick Upham Adams.

PRESIDENT JOHN SMITH is the most valuable contribution yet made to the social and economic literature of this generation. It is an earnest protest against the existing rule of a wealthy minority. It relates the story of the election to the presidency of John Smith: a plain, common-sense and patriotic American citizen. It proposes a new constitutional convention at which such amendments shall be proposed and submitted as will secure the people their right to share in the triumphs of modern invention and progress. It is American in every paragraph and line, and breathes a patriotism as broad as the liberty inspired lines of the immortal Declaration of Independence.

President John Smith should be read and studied by every American voter. It is a finely illustrated book of 250 pages.
