Bombarding the Creten City.

Christians in the City Have Hoisted the Greek Colors.

BERLIN, Feb. 9.—A special from Athens says:

It is rumored here that foreign warships have begun bombarding Canea, island of Crete. No confirmation can be obtained here. The German warship Kaiserin Augustine has been ordered to proceed as soon as possible for the island of Crete.

A dispatch from Canea received this evening says the Christians about Canea have hoisted the Greek flag proclaimed a union with that island with Greece and invited the king of Greece to take possession of it.

In Possession.

ATHENS, Feb. 9.—The announcement that Prince George, second son of the king of Greece, will command the torpedo fleet which is now in readiness to start for Crete to join the Greek squadron, has added strength to the rumors that Greece will insist upon a union with Crete. It is well known fact that the Christians who are now in possession of the whole island, with the exception of Heraklion and Retimo, are only waiting a signal to proclaim a union with that country.

The uprising in Crete is looked upon by many statesmen in this country as a movement on the part of the sultan of Turkey to draw the attention of England, France and Russia away from Constantinople. Greece, whose quarrel with Turkey has been growing more serious from day to day, has not hesitated to take advantage of the excesses of the Turkish soldiers on the island, and is sending all her naval forces there. Should the sultan regard this move as a challenge there would be presented complications which will quickly force the hand of the powers in dealing with the Turkish situation.

These fresh and unanticipated difficulties, the sultan is no doubt aware, will put a strain upon the harmony between the powers which only existed for a short time. The sultan, therefore, will naturally be only too glad to destroy the unity of purpose among the powers at the expense of a controversy with Greece.

The Grecian squadron on arriving at Canea did not salute the Turkish squadron.

Advices say the Mussulmans are preparing for a massacre at Retimo. Representatives of some of the powers have expressed to the Greek government surprise that it sent warships to Crete.

Three thousand people took part yesterday evening in a manifestation in front of the ministry of marine. There were continued cries of "Long live the union." It is thought possible that a ministerial crisis will result from the manifestations.

All Tranquilly.

CANEA, Island of Crete, Feb. 9.—It is officially announced that the fires here have been totally quenched. Nearly 200 buildings were destroyed and 5000 Christians have fled. Of this number 2000 are on board British warships. Greek warships have taken off the remainder of the Christian refugees. In conclusion, the report says tranquility reigned in the town and vicinity and the Turkish troops throughout behaved in an orderly manner. No excesses are reported on their part. It is asserted there has been no plundering.

Request Declined.

BERLIN, Feb. 9.—The Frankfort Zeitung correspondent at Constantinople telegraphs that Germany declined the sultan's request to send officers and financiers to reorganize their country as being inopportune. France and Belgium, the dispatch adds, also declined.

Captured.

ROME, Feb. 9.—A dispatch from Canea says Mussulmans at Heraklion, Crete, have attacked the arsenal and carried off 2000 rifles.

RECEPTION TO PROF. HERITAGE.—Prof. R. A. Heritage, of the W. U. college of music, who has just returned from an extended visit at Chattanooga, Tenn., was given a reception last evening at the college of music. It was a happy surprise to the professor and the occasion was indeed a pleasant one. A dainty luncheon was served followed by impromptu speeches and music by Prof. Heritage and also by the Chemeketa quartette.

Hill Wants an Open Session.

Strong Opposition to Hill's Motion and it Failed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The first question that arose in the executive session of the senate was a motion by Hill that the arbitration treaty be discussed in open session. He said it was a matter in which the people were greatly interested. There was nothing in the treaty or its discussion that demanded secrecy.

Gray of Delaware, member of the committee on foreign relations, opposed a public discussion. He said that on a matter dealing with foreign government the senators ought to be free and unhampered in the expression of their views, which could only be when the session was held behind closed doors.

After considerable further debate a ye and nay vote was taken on Hill's motion for an open session, which resulted against the motion by an overwhelming majority.

BECOMES A LAW.

The senate, by a vote of 57 to 1 (the one being Caffery of Louisiana), passed over the president's veto the bill for a division of the Eastern judicial district of Texas. The bill is now a law, having passed the house over the veto.

NO DECISION REACHED.

The senate committee on interstate commerce considered the bill to prevent ticket brokerage. Without coming to a decision the committee adjourned until Wednesday, although the opinion was expressed it would be useless to report the bill because of the opposition, which would prevent the passage of any bill this session.

The position of the railroads in the last campaign was the basis of some opposition. In addition to the alleged attempts by railroads to evade the interstate commerce law was urged, especially by Gorham, Chandler and Chilton. No vote was taken, but there was general acquiescence in the opinion that it would be best to allow the bill to go over until the next congress, when, it was suggested, the evils complained of could be remedied by a general amendment to the interstate commerce law.

Wheat.

Talkington, Bottinger & Co's report today says:

It has been a rocky day for the talent. The high rollers and dead sure winners started in to sell the bottom out of the market. They were encouraged by the weakest cables we have had for months, and by the reported absence of any shipping or exports demand. While it is true that the exports yesterday were very discouraging. It is also true that they are running on the average quite large, and will compare favorably with any other seasons. More important than this is the fact that primary receipts are not half what they were a year ago, and out of these small receipts and the visible must come a steady domestic demand of a million bushels a day and an export demand of nearly half as much. The visible is only 2,500,000 bushels larger than last July. It will become evident that the constant and heavy drain on visible stocks must reduce them heavily before next harvest. Chicago, May wheat opened today at 76½ and closed at 77½. Cash wheat 76½. Liverpool no change.

Eugene France, receiver of the J. M. Weatherfax Lumber Company, Aberdeen Wash., reports that practically all the liabilities of the firm have been paid and that as soon as the demand for lumber will warrant starting up, he will do so. In the meantime the foundation of the mill is being looked after, and improvements are being made to the mill proper.

The only time at a local entertainment "standing room only" sign displayed at Heeds opera house was the former presentation of the Salem Jolly Lady Minstrels, all who have witnessed it have been unanimous for a reproduction which will be given Tuesday evening Feb. 9th the second time. New specialties will be introduced. Reserved seats 50 cents gallery 25 cents.

Fight With the Elements.

Bunces Squadron Severely Shaken By the Storm.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Feb. 9.—Admiral Bunces's blockading squadron made this port, after a stormy voyage, from Hampton Roads, losing three men from the Maine during the gale on Friday. The fleet is now anchored at the jetties and shows no sign of the terrible weather experienced. The squadron weighed anchor in the Roads Thursday morning and put to sea. Friday evening the weather thickened, and by night it was blowing a gale. The Indiana returned to the Roads, owing to the condition of her turrets. The rest of the fleet, however, poked their noses into the storm and headed South. When about fifty miles off Cape Hatteras the fleet felt the full force of the blow. The open squadron formation was maintained and the vessels were put in order for a siege of the weather.

The battleship Maine washed her decks at every plunge. It was late on Friday afternoon when the accident occurred which cost three seamen their lives. Three others were rescued only by prompt and heroic work. A gang of men were ordered forward to secure the lashings of the big guns. The deck was deluged and the wind was freshening every moment. The men were at work at the lashings when an unusually heavy sea came over her bows and swept aft. Six of the gang were picked up and carried overboard before they could escape the wave. When the cry of "man overboard" was carried back there was a scene of momentary confusion, but in an instant the splendid discipline of the crew was apparent. Life buoys were cut loose and the order was given to get a boat overboard. The high seas made this work one of peril and difficulty, but a boat's crew, under Naval Cadet Walter R. Ghirardi, a son of Rear Admiral Ghirardi, retired, was finally lowered.

Meantime the drowning men fought bravely and three of them managed to keep afloat until their mates hauled them out of the water. The remaining three men were not to be seen. The life boat cruised back and forth over the sea, but the brave fellows had given up the struggle and met a sailor's fate.

Friday night the fleet had heavy weather of it, but managed to keep within signaling distance of one another. Towards morning the squadron was hove to. The officers say it was one of the worst gales the fleet ever experienced.

MORE INJURED.

Admiral Bunces's blockade squadron reached port today after a disastrous voyage from Hampton Roads. Three men were lost overboard from the battleship Maine during the gale of Friday, one man was crushed to death on the cruiser Marblehead, another was fatally injured and six others were so fatally hurt that several may lose limbs. Details of the accident on the Marblehead are not obtainable, and as she lies off the jetties she presents a dismantled appearance. Her fore-castle is stove in and a portion of her superstructure and two hatches are carried away.

MYSTERIOUS.

Something Has Dropped

The Mitchellite Double Rump Suspends Action.

The legislative atmosphere at the state house was highly impregnated with political excitement today.

Senator Mitchell arrived early and unattended on the field of battle. It came very near being a Waterloo. But for a swift move of the Marion county Napoleon the day had been lost. As The Journal forecasted, the presence of the two Democrats Monday was for political effect, and they did not reappear today.

THE JOINT CONVENTION

was short and sweet. It lasted about ten seconds. There was a delightful air of uncertainty as to the outcome and it never came off.

The senate clerk called Bates twice. At this moment, in a highly tragic manner, the tall form of Senator Iky Patterson rushed up the center aisle and waved its arm wildly and moved to adjourn one day.

Brownell brought the hammer down and the joint convention was again declared off.

REASONS SUGGESTED

are numerous for the hold-up of the double rump. The Mitchell men were disposed to treat the matter lightly but the best nose-counters in the building agreed that only 37 were present. Bilyeu and Lee were absent, but there was also a Mitchellite absent, and the result of the joint assembly was NIT.

Other reports are to the effect that four Mitchell Republicans went to Mitchell, last night, and told him they would quit unless his managers let up on their efforts to make up the needed 46 with Democrats and Populists when there are Mitchell caucus Republicans who declare that for legal and moral reasons they cannot enter the double-rump joint.

The report that Pennoyer is coming to Mitchell's support and seeking to persuade Populists to join the Mitchell forces has no foundation but rumor and that may come from political enemies. Senator Pennoyer has so far expressed the kindest feelings for the opposition to Bensonism and Mitchellism.

JOINT ROLL CALL.—MONDAY NIGHT. The usual crowd assembled to see Mitchell elected but were doomed to disappointment when the following showed up:

Benson, Bilyeu, Bridges, Brown, Chapman, Conn, Crawford, David, Driver, Dufur, Gowan, Gratke, Gurdane, Harmon, Hogue, Hope, Hudson, Hughes, Jennings, Johnson, Langell, Lee, Marsh, Mitchell, Palm, Patterson of Marion, Price, Rigby, Smith of Marion, Somers, Stanley, Taylor, Thomas, Thompson, Nosier, Veness, Wagner, Merrill. Mr. President—39.

As usual Mr. Brownell counted the absent and announced forty as the result of the roll call. If the result were close this practice would be dangerous.

BENSON HOUSE—TUESDAY.

Called to order at 10:45. Regular order, first reading and introduction of bills.

No. 83. By Chapman to regulate dragging logs over public highways.

No. 84. By Thomas, relating to causes for which marriage may be dissolved.

No. 85. By Bridges, to amend charter of Drain.

Mr. Hudson introduced house joint resolution No. 2, providing a constitutional amendment changing the time of holding general elections in Oregon from June until November.

SENATE BILLS.

215. Dufur, by request, to enable school districts to borrow money without issuing bonds.

216. King, to regulate employment of clerical aid for the legislature, providing that the secretary of state shall employ 10 clerks for the senate and 15 clerks for the house, 17 of whom to be stenographers.

217. Johnson, to regulate charges and tax express companies.

218. King, to prevent fraud in the sale of mines, by making "salting mines" a crime.

219. Daly, by request, providing for reclaiming of lands.

220. Johnson, to regulate charges and tax telegraph companies.

221. Dufur, by request, to amend code as to stock inspections and diseases of cattle. Judiciary.
