Of ill health, despondency and despair gives way to the sunshine of hope happiness and health, upon taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it gives renewed life and vitality to the blood, and through nerve stren and energy to the whole body. Read this letter: "Hood'sSar saparilla helped me wonderfully, changed sickness to health, gloom to sunshine. No pen can describe what I suffered. I was deathly sick, had sick headaches every few days and those terrible tired, despondent feelings, with heart troubles so that I could not go up and stgirs without clasping my hand bottle, it is sufficient to recommend itself." Mrs. J. E. Smith, Beloit, Iowa.

IMMIGRATION.

Bill Passed by the House.

Sections Barring Out "Birds of Passage."

WASHINGTON, February 15 .- The bill shutting the doors of the United States against the influx of the de based, the ignorant and the criminal of other lands finally passed the house of representives. This was the second time it had been reported by the conferees, and, as finally amended. met the approval of 217 members, 37 registering their votes against it.

The bill, as agreed upon, proviyes for the admission of the illiterate wives and children of immigrants who themselves are eligible to admission. The educational test was changed so as to admit any male immigrant, otherwise qualified, who can read and write the English or some other language. The first agreement compelled the immigrant to read and write the language of his or her native or resident nation.

The sections relating to the coming of " birds of passage," especially over the Canadian border have been likely to come here this year send their names and addresses to the undersigned and I will see that they be unlawful for any male alien, who has not in good faith made his declaration before the proper court of his intention to become a citizen of the United States, to be employed on any public works of the United States, or Corvallis, whose license was revoked to come regularly or habitually into several weeks ago has again been re-the United States by land or water stored to good standing by a special for the purpose of engaging in any merchantile trade or manual labor for wages or salary, returning from time to time to a fereign country.

Section 5. That it shall be unlaw ful for any person, partnership, company or corporation knowingly The Method of a Great Treat to employ any aliens if coming into the United States in violation of the preceding section of this Act: Provided that the provisions of this Act Which Cured Him After Everything shall not apply to the employment of sailors, deck-hands or other employees of veesels, or railroad train hands, such as conductors, porters, brakemen, firemen or baggagemen, whose duties require them to pass over the frontier to reach the termins of their runs, or to guides or pilots on the lakes and rivers they do For years the witer rolled and as conductors, porters, brakemen, fireon the northern border of the United they do. Monday February 8, was the anniversary of the Dawe's bill which was passed in congress and became a law on February 8, 1887. It has always been the custom of the school to observe the anniversary of the Dawe's bill by giving an entertainment, so on Monday evening the Reliance and Atheniam Debating Societies met and gave a public debate on the question. Resolved: "That the Dawe's bill, permitting the Indians to beover my heart and resting. In fact, it come citizens of the United States would almost take my breath away. I suf- and take their lands in severalty fered so I did not care to live, yet I had emancipates the Indian race and promuch to live for. There is no pleasure in motes their peace and prosperity." life if deprived of health, for life becomes The question was thoroughly disa burden. Hood's Sarsaparilla does far cussed by pupils and employees and more than advertised. After taking one after careful consideration the judges rendered their decision which was in favor of the affirmative which was ably handled by the Reliance Society.

The anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birthday was observed by the pupils and employees of the school. In the evening an excellent program was prepared by the literary societies, and a speech from Judge Davis of Tennessee, on "The Souths oppinion of Lincoln" was greatly appreciated.
