

THE AMERICAN PRIMARY SYSTEM.

Nominations by Direct Vote of All the People in a Party,

A Sure Method to Overthrow Bossism and Make Combines Impossible.

(By E. Hofer, author "The American Primary System," published by Chas. H. Kerr & Co., Chicago, Ill. Price 25c.)

Do you favor an American system of holding primary election?
Then abolish the present system of electing slates of delegates that form combinations in county conventions and result in dividing political parties into factions.
You cannot destroy bossism and restore the representative principle until you take away from the boss his control over nominations.
So long as the boss or the machine makes the slate at the primary they will make the slate at the county convention, and the people at the polls will only ratify the will of the boss and carry out the edicts of machine politics.

WHAT IS THE REMEDY?
There is no remedy that does not go to the root of the evil. The power to nominate candidates for office must be exercised by the people direct. When they delegate that power they deed away in fee simple all control over their government. The people must nominate as well as elect if they would have government responsible to them. If the boss nominates government is responsible to the boss, if the machine dictates nominations the machine will be supreme. This is not a people's government unless the power of the boss and the domination of the machine can be broken.

What is the remedy? Take from the boss the power to make nominations. How can that be done? Simply by placing the power to make all nominations directly in the hands of the people, on the Australian plan.
We print below a sample ballot used at the primary elections in one county in this state. The plan is this: Nominations are made by petition of voters naming a candidate. This is filed with the county central committee of the party.
The county central committee prepares a ballot according to the form below and on a day fixed for holding the primary election a vote is taken in each precinct in the county or city. The candidates having the highest vote are the candidates of the party.

Can you beat that for simplicity? No county convention is held. The county central committee canvasses the returns from each precinct and announces the result. The voter of the party votes direct his choice of nominees, just as he does at the election his choice of candidates.

In the perfect nominating primary every member of every party should have a direct vote in the choice of every candidate whose name appears on the ticket of his party.

Whence comes the great source of fraud and political corruption? From the packed primaries, and manipulations of political machines, rendered possible thereby all over our country. The criminal politics of our cities, that contain nearly one-third of the population of our country, extends into and corrupts our state and national government. The primary is the source whence springs all political power. If the source is vitiated, how can the stream of our national life be otherwise than impure, corrupting and finally destructive to our government? The answer to this inquiry is: The corrupted primary is the political cradle of bossism.

Purification of the primary unit of our politics is absolutely necessary if we would not see our country go down into the worst quagmire of corruption that ever swallowed a republic. All the remedies of fragmentary state-manship will be applied in vain so long as we allow the very source of all our political activity to be poisoned at the primaries as it is now done all over this land. Large sums of money are spent in nearly all large cities and in many of the county precincts to carry the party primaries for the slates of the bosses.

Self-government by the people is on trial. The people want the best. The masses have no interest in anything but good government. When they vote at the polls they do not knowingly vote for corruption and extravagance. They do not knowingly and intentionally put bad men in office. The theory of a people's government does not embrace the idea of the enrichment of the few and the impoverishment of the many. Yet that is what our government is tending to become more and more. During the past few years of depression and hard times, the salaries of the official classes have not been diminished. Congress after congress has appropriated over a billion of dollars.

can not be tampered with and corrupt combinations are impossible.
Under the Crawford system, candidates for congress and state officials are chosen in the same way.
The people of the United States will never have a representative or responsible Democratic form of government until they destroy the present system of political corruption.

WHAT IS THE REMEDY? Until the conduct of the primary election is rigidly safeguarded by law and the expense thereof is borne by the state, large sums of money will be necessary to hold the primaries of the different parties in large cities. This money will be advanced, and it is quite natural that politicians should be called upon to furnish the required capital. Public sentiment must compel protection and purification of the primary.

THE SYSTEM HAS BEEN TRIED.
The primary must be placed beyond the control of the selfishly interested office-holding and office-seeking class. The power to make nominations must be placed in the hands of the masses of each party, where it belongs. Thus alone can government become responsible to the governed, and without this there can be no just or good government. The principle that obtains in the old Crawford system, still in vogue in many of the older states and practiced in some of the largest counties and cities of Ohio, Illinois and Iowa, cannot be much improved upon. It can be perfected and the result safeguarded and made as sure and certain to do its work as the Australian ballot. Under the old Crawford system there was no delegate county convention. In each precinct the party voters cast a ballot direct for their choice of candidates for office within the party. The primaries are held all over the county on the same day, and are conducted like a general election. If there are six candidates for nomination for representative, sheriff, or any county office, the voter marks his name for each office, and the candidate for nomination receiving the largest vote throughout the county is the party candidate for election. This is a simple and direct plan of nominating. It is said that it is cumbersome, expensive and old-fashioned. But it cannot be tampered with and corrupt combinations are impossible.

Under the Crawford system, candidates for congress and state officials are chosen in the same way.
The people of the United States will never have a representative or responsible Democratic form of government until they destroy the present system of political corruption.

ABOUT THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS
Board of School Directors for District No. 24 Transact Business.
The board of school directors for school district No. 24 held its second regular meeting for February, Wednesday evening.
The minutes of the previous meeting having been disposed of, the semi-annual report of City Superintendent Geo. A. Peebles was submitted and ordered filed.
The following bills were audited and ordered paid by warrant:
Gray Bros. $2 44
Patton Bro. 13 40
Knox & Murphy 11 25
A. B. Rhodes 2 00
G. G. Van Wagener 8 75
Superintendent Peebles made a number of recommendations to the board as to the present necessities of the city schools, and upon motion they were referred to the executive committee with power to act.
C. A. Whale was the recipient of a vote of thanks for the use of a piano at the recent graduating exercises, while a like recognition was bestowed upon Prof. M. G. Royal, of Weston, for the practical address delivered on that occasion.
Adjournment was then taken until the first Wednesday in March.

NOTES.
The various schools of our city are making preparations for the observance of Washington's birthday after a truly patriotic manner. Friday afternoon will be devoted to the rendition of a program consisting of recitations, declamations, addresses etc. Monday, being Washington's birthday. There will be no school.

STATE NEWS.
Sumpter, Oregon is to have a new paper called the News.
Captain Hans Reed has contracted to take the gasoline steamer Bessie K. off the beach at the entrance to Coquille river.
The payroll of the Bandon woolen mills, in Coquille City, is $1600 a month, and that of the broomhandle factory $2400.

The oil well reported to have been struck down in Douglas county, on the Looking Glass, has been tested and pronounced a fraud.
A nugget weighing $200 was picked up in Jewell & Hayes' mine in Oscar creek district, Josephine county, one day last week. Several smaller pieces have been found there lately.

Twenty-three liens were filed against the White Swan mine, in Baker county, by the employees. They aggregate about $1,500. This step is taken by the workmen in order to collect their wages.
Mr. B. W. Cooper, of Albany, recently sold his wheat, consisting of 7500 bushels for 70 cents or about $5250. Some of this he might have sold for 85 cents, while part of it passed through an era of 45 cents if not less.

Robert Thomson, one of the old pioneers of 1852, died at his home in Marquam, Clackamas county, on the 11th inst., aged 73 years, 3 months and 6 days. Mr. Thompson was born in Morgan county O., November 5, 1823. At the age of 22 years he married Miss Rachel Harris. They emigrated to Oregon in 1852, locating on the old homestead, now adjoining the town of Marquam, where the deceased lived until his death. October 11, 1886, his wife died, and November 22, 1888, he married Mrs. Jane Becket, of Salem Or., who survives him.

candidates for the legislature, pledged in the event of their nomination to vote for certain aspirants for senatorial honors, and, as Earle was the most popular candidate in the race, tickets headed by his name won by a large majority throughout the state, and when the legislature met Judge Earle was promptly chosen senator without any friction, bickering, delay or subsequent whitewashing, and the legislature itself at once took up the work before it and proceeded with the performance of its duties uninterrupted. If the South Carolina plan were to be adopted by all the states, the question of senatorship would be settled by popular vote in advance of the assembly of the legislature, logrolling and deadlocks at the expense of needed legislation would be eliminated and the purchase of seats in the United States senate by men of wealth, which is one of the evils and scandals of our politics, would be made difficult if not impossible by reason of the fact that in order to control the election of a senator it would be necessary to buy the majority of the people who voted at the primaries.
