DIED.

MORLOCK.—At the family residence on Rural avenue, Salem, Or., Sunday, February 28, 1897, at 8:30 p. m., Christiana Dietz, wife of J. Morlock.

After an illness of four months the companion of an esteemed citizen has passed away. Mrs. Morlock led a very quiet home life and never moved widely from the sphere of household duties. She was native of Stofburg, Germany, born April 18, 1855. She came to America with her parents as a child. At an early age she was confirmed in the Lutheran faith. She was married at Belleville, Ill; June 2, 1851, to Jacob Morlock who survives her. Of a family of nine children seven are living, as follows: Louise Mathilda Kaemper, Cape Girardeau, Mo.; Louis D. and Charles Fredrick, Evansville, Ind.; Mrs. W. W. Goldsworthy, Brockton, Mass.; Estella E. Hattle A., and Paulina C., at Salem. With their father they will deeply mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother, who was a most faithful and exemplary Christian wife and mother. The funeral will be held at the home at 10:30 Tuesday. Services conducted by Rev. W. C. Kautner.

FORSTNER.—At his residence on North Commercial street, at 3 p. m. Saturday, Feb. 27, 1897, Benjamin Forstner, aged 62 years, 11 months and 2 days of la grippe.

Deceased was born in Beaver county Pa., on March 25, 1834. He came to Oregon in 1863 and assisted in the colonization of the town of Aurora. In 1865 he removed to Salem where he married in the following year Miss Louisa Snyder, a sister of Mrs. John Knight. Mrs. John Forstner formerly of Salem but now of Corvallis is a sister of the deceased. Mr. Forstner was the successful inventor of the "Forstner flange bit" or Webfoot augur that is being so largely manufactured by the Colts company, at Bridgeford, Connecticut.

Funeral arrangements will not be completed before this evening but in all probability it will be held Tuesday.

PAPE.—At the farm home four miles east of Salem at 1:30 p. m. Sunday February 28, 1897, Arthur L. son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pape, aged 20 years, of consumption.

Funeral services were conducted from the house at 1:30 p. m. today Rev. Batty, of Zena, officiating. The remains were given interment in the Macleay cemetery.

New York, March 1.—Advises to the Herald from Rio de Janeiro state that great anxiety is felt by the government as to events in the state of Bahia. No news has been received from the federal troops engaged in an attempt to suppress the fanatics under Condeleiro since yesterday. If the army should be conquered by the rebels, it is feared that the monarchist faction would take advantage of the effect of the defeat, because the press of Rio de Janeiro demands that the government give orders that no new attack be made upon the fanatics until the arrival of strong reinforcements in Bahia.

The commercial situation in Brazil is reported to be serious. Business is very dull.

The Argentine government has ordered the mobilization of the national guard for extended maneuvers. They will last 60 days.

Murder and Suicide.

SALT LAKE, Utah, March 1.—A special to the Tribune from Plain City Utah, says:

John Nichols shot and fatally wounded Joseph Lewis and then turned the gun on himself with fatal effect. Lewis had sworn out a warrant charging Nichols with stealing a watch, and the sheriff was on his way to make the arrest. Nichols heard of it, and rode two miles to where Lewis was at work, and, after a few words, began to shoot. When Lewis fell, Nichols went home and reported that he had killed Lewis, and said he would kill himself. In the presence of his wife and others, he took out his pistol and shot himself in the forehead, dying almost instantly.

A paw ticket for the watch, which was claimed to have been stolen, was found in Nichols' pocket.

An Umbrella-Mender Murdered.

SALT LAKE, March 1.—Fred Eutler, a poor umbrella-mender, was murdered on West South Temple street Thursday night by two men, who walked past a group attracted by the cries of the victim and made their escape. The police were not summoned until the murderers had made their escape. Two men who were seen in the vicinity a few minutes before the crime have been arrested.

Highbinder Plot.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 1.—Rumors of a plot of Chinese at Merced Falls to King Owyang, the Chinese vice-consul, have excited the members of the race he represented during the last few days. According to the story, Merced Falls is a palace to which the highbinders flee for safety when the presence of the police make safety in flight imperative. They were to send one of their number to the city to do the work.
