

Charles F. Carr

PROMINENT FARMER AND STOCK MAN OF THE BLACK HILLS.

Makes Affidavit to the Curing Powers of Pink Pills for Pale People—Volunteers His Own Statement in the Interest of Suffering Humanity from a Sense of High Appreciation of Benefits Received by Himself.

From the Chronicle, Custer, S. D.

CUSTER CITY, S. D., Aug. 1, 1896.

To All Whom It May Concern:

I take pleasure in stating to the public that I am well acquainted with Mr. C. F. Carr, the man who has this day under oath related the remarkable history of his cure by the Pink Pills for Pale People. I know of his case, and knew of his condition. I recommended the medicine, feeling that it was just what he needed, and am more than pleased with the result. Upon examination of his affidavit I find that much of it is within my knowledge, and that it is a true statement. Mr. Carr is a prominent rancher of this country, and is one of the best citizens. I do not believe he would make a statement under oath that was in any way incorrect or unwarranted. The affidavit was without my solicitation. I did not see Mr. Carr with reference to any matter therein stated, nor did I see the affidavit until it was presented to me by the notary after having been sworn to. I have sold the Pink Pills to many people who have expressed themselves grateful for the benefits derived from them. I regard Mr. Carr's remarkable recovery considering his age, and the exposure to which he is placed in his work at which he appears to make a full hand. I will always take pleasure in furnishing reference to parties who have tried the virtues of this medicine, for which I find ready sale.

Yours truly,
A. J. JONES,
Signed after examination of the affidavit,
Ed. L. GRANTHAM, Notary Public.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are an unfailing remedy for all diseases arising from a poor and watery condition of the blood, such as pale and sallow complexion, general muscular weakness, loss of appetite, depression of spirits, lack of ambition, anemia, chlorosis or green sickness, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, nervous headache, dizziness, loss of memory, feebleness of will, ringing in the ears, early decay, all forms of female weakness, leucorrhoea, tardy or irregular periods, suppression of menses, hysteria, paralysis, locomotor ataxia, rheumatism, dropsy, chronic cystitis, catarrh, consumption of the bowels and lungs, and also for invigorating the blood and system when broken down by overwork, worry, disease, excesses, and indiscretions of living, recovery from acute diseases, such as fever, etc., loss of vital powers, spermatorrhoea, early decay, premature old age. These pills are not a purgative medicine, they contain nothing that could injure the most delicate system. They act directly on the blood, supplying to it its life-giving qualities by assisting it to absorb oxygen, that great supporter of organic life. In this way the blood, becoming "built up" and being supplied with its lacking constituents, becomes rich and red, nourishes the various organs, stimulates them to activity in the performance of their functions, and thus eliminates diseases from the system.

These Pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., and are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper, and of 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, and are never sold in bulk. They may be had of all druggists, or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company. The price at which these pills are sold makes a course of treatment inexpensive as compared with other remedies.

Signed and sworn to before me this 1st of August, A. D., 1896.
Ed. L. GRANTHAM, Notary Public.

I hereby certify that Charles F. Carr, the party making the foregoing affidavit, is a reputable citizen of this county, against whose name or fame, integrity or honesty here can be nothing said in truth.
Ed. L. GRANTHAM, Notary Public.

APPROVED

The Senate Confirmations. Will Defy All the Powers

Teller Opposed to Gage and Bliss— Sherman Was First.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The president today sent in the following nominations: Secretary of state, John Sherman, of Ohio; secretary of the treasury, Lyman J. Gage, of Illinois; secretary of war, Russell A. Alger, of Michigan; attorney-general, Joseph McKenna, of California; postmaster-general, James A. Gary, of Maryland; secretary of the navy, John D. Long, of Massachusetts; secretary of the interior, Cornelius N. Bliss, of New York; secretary of agriculture, James Wilson, of Iowa.

To compliment Mr. Sherman, his nomination was immediately confirmed. The other nominations were referred as follows: Gage and Bliss to the finance committee; Alger to the committee on military affairs; McKenna to the committee on judiciary; Gary to the committee on postoffices; and post roads; Long to the committee on naval affairs; Wilson to the committee on agriculture.

The senate, without going out of executive session, took a recess until 2 o'clock.

The first nomination taken up when the senate re-convened at 2 o'clock was that of Gage. This nomination caused considerable discussion, the silver men taking occasion to point out the position Gage occupies on the financial question. The silver senators said they did not intend to interpose any objection to the confirmation, but wanted to make it plain that while there were pledges made by the new administration for bimetalism, the new secretary was a gold man. The other nominations were confirmed without debate.

Senator Teller, silver Republican, made the principal speech. After the discussion of the nomination of Gage, he took up that of Bliss to be secretary of the interior. He said he considered this a most unfortunate selection. Bliss was an estimable man, who would have filled other positions with credit, but was entirely unfitted for the secretaryship of the interior, a position of vast importance. More cases were decided involving property rights in the secretary of the interior's office than were decided by the United States supreme court. They were for the most part legal questions and required a knowledge of law. Bliss was not a lawyer, but a banker and a business man, who knew nothing of the many questions which were to come before him as secretary of the interior.

Hear paid a high tribute to Bliss and pointed out that many questions decided by the secretary of the interior were prepared by the law clerks and no matter how good a lawyer a man might be he could not investigate all matters that come before the secretary, and for that reason a law force had been provided to assist the secretary. He said the business ability of Bliss was unquestioned. After a little more talk all the nominations were confirmed without objection.

GREECE

Will Defy All the Powers

ATHENS, March 6.—A statement made by King George in an interview is probably a forecast of the reply Greece will make to the identical note of the powers, insisting upon the withdrawal of the Greek fleet and troops from Crete within six days from noon of Monday last. His majesty said:

"The Greek nation is unable to bear any longer the strain and excitement caused by the constant Cretan revolutions and our finances will not permit us to support the refugees who now number about 17,000. Nothing will prosper in Greece until the question is definitely settled.

"Autonomy of Crete is out of the question, because the Cretans reject it and have lost faith in the promises of the powers. They prefer to die in their own defense rather than to be laughed like Armenians.

"The recall of the Greek troops from Crete would mean a signal for new massacres on a large scale, owing to the fierce fanaticism of the Muslimans, who see they have the support of the six great powers, since the latter covered the Turkish attack on the Christians and shelled the victorious Cretans fighting for freedom and the cross, and at the moment when the Turks were compelled to retire."

Premier Delyannis, in an interview, is reported to have reiterated that the Greek troops would not be withdrawn from Crete, and expressed the fear that the national clamor would compel the government to invade Turkey. Greece, he is quoted as saying, had not accepted the scheme for autonomy for Crete, proposed by the powers. The premier said that a plebiscite of the Cretans be taken, and added that Greece would prefer to disappear from the map rather than withdraw her forces from Crete in the face of threats.

Viewed in London.

LONDON, March 6.—It is generally believed here that war between Greece and Turkey is imminent. The decision of Greece to defy the powers is confirmed on all sides.

It is generally felt in England that the dispatch signed by a hundred liberal and national members of the house of commons, sent last evening to the king of Greece, expressing sympathy with the efforts of the Greek nation and government in behalf of Crete was a great mistake, and will only mislead the king and nation into the belief that Great Britain will not join the powers in coercive measures.

Wants an Explanation.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 6.—The Turkish government has called the attention of the ambassadors of the powers to two declarations contained in their note to the effect that Crete will not be annexed to Greece "at the present juncture," and that "an autonomous regime" will be conferred on their land. The Turkish ministers wish a further explanation of the words "present juncture" and "autonomous regime." They want a precise definition of these terms.

The Italian embassy, has demanded formal satisfaction for the firing of a shot across the bows of the Italian mail steamer while passing through the Straits of the Dardanelles Tuesday evening, by the Turkish fort, although the vessel displayed the usual signals and had obtained a pratique.

Greece Will Soon Reply.

New York, March 6.—A Herald special from Athens says: It is understood that the Greek government will submit a reply to the identical note of the six great powers within a few days.

From present appearances, King George and his government are not likely to give in. They trust that the powers will disagree as to the form of the coercive measures they threaten to take in case of Greece's non-compliance with their requests.

Only a few papers hold that it would be advisable to follow a more prudent policy towards the powers. On the other hand, people at large are clamoring for war.

FREE TO EVERY MAN.

The Method of a Great Treatment for Weakness of Men.

Which Cured Him After Everything Else Failed.

Painful diseases are had enough, but when a man is slowly wasting away with nervous weakness, the mental forbodings are ten times worse than the most severe pain. There is no let up to the mental suffering day or night. Sleep is almost impossible and under such a strain man is scarcely responsible for what they do. For years the writer rolled and tossed on the troubled sea of a weak mind until it was a question whether he had not better take a dose of poison and thus end all his troubles. But providential inspiration came to his aid in the shape of a combination of medicines that not only completely restored the general health, but enlarged his weak and emaciated parts to natural size and vigor, and he now declares that any man who will take the trouble to send his name and address may have the method of this wonderful treatment free. Now when I say free I mean absolutely without cost, because I want every weakened man to get the benefit of my experience.

I am not a philanthropist, nor do I pose as an enthusiast, but there are thousands of men suffering the tortures of weakened manhood who would be cured at once could they but get such a remedy as the one that cured me. Do not try to study out how I can afford to pay the few postage stamps necessary to mail the information, but send for it and learn that there are a few things on earth that although they cost nothing to get they are worth a fortune to some men and mean to lifetime of happiness to most of us. Write a Thomas Slater, Box 309, Kalamazoo, Mich and the information will be mailed in a plain sealed envelope.
