A Suggestion.

Tomorrow is Saint Patrick's day. Saint Patrick's day is of Irish origin. Ireland is the home of fine linens. Fine table linen is the beauty of the dining room.

We are showing over 50 beautiful patterns in fine cream damask table linen, table cloths and napkins to match. Table linen by the yard, napkins by the set.

T. Holverson.

Turned after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Walter Denton, in Portland.

Geo. S. Downing went to Roseburg today in response to a dispatch announcing the serious illness of typhoid fever of his niece, Miss Emma Schellberg.

El. Smith, John Wright and Oscar Victor are recent immigrants from Kearney, Neb. They were accompanied by their families and are residing south of Salem.

Bert Barker who is attending the university of Chicago, has been shown as one of three students out of about 800 to debate against a like team from Michigan university. This is a great honor for a Salem boy.

Gene Barnes, of Colorado Springs, is in the city for a two weeks visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Barnes on the Garden Road. Mr. Barnes is accompanied by W. H. Crasby, also of Colorado Springs.

Mr. John Davenport and wife, of Spokane, passed Sunday in Salem at the residence of their brother, T. W. Davenport. They went on to California on Sunday night's overland train and will visit relatives, for some time, at Los Angeles.

A. J. Hamilton has moved his tinning and plumbing shop from Winter street, North Salem, to the store next the Savage feed mill on Commercial street. He does all kinds of tin work, plumbing and galvanized iron work.

Homer Davenport is not at Carson, Nev., with the training pugilists, but has been called to Albany, N. Y., to assist in preventing the New York legislature from passing the Ellisworth bill, which, if it becomes a law, would stop the publishing of cartoons in New York state. The bill is a direct thrust at American freedom.

CAPITOL.

Governor Lord issued a notary commission to Robt. Catlin, of Portland, this morning.

Mr. Willis Dunnaway, the governor's private secretary and Mr. Carey Martin, the Secretary of State's deputy both at their desk again this week after an attack of influenza.

Walker Bros. & Co., a company of contractors of Portland, filed articles of incorporation today.

Yesterday the people of Richardson precinct in Lane county filed articles and incorporated the Sweet Home cemetery association. This makes about a dozen cemeteries in this state incorporated by the name of Sweet Home. Just how any one knows that cemetery is a query.

In the matter of the removal of the present superintendent of the state reform school, it may be said the Mr. Hendricks the present Supt. has very earnestly asked the board to let him stay till his four years are up, which will be some time late in the summer. He doesn't want to hand in his resignation till his term is ended. It is said that the board would not hesitate to accept his resignation at any time. The resignation has not yet been asked for, although the superintendent must know that his presence at the school is not desired by a single member of the board.

AN EXCITING RUNAWAY.—About 11:30 a. m. today those who happened on State street at that hour witnessed a short but exciting runaway. A large horse attached to a cart became frightened while standing near Bush's bank and dashed east on State street at a dangerous rate of speed. Reaching High street the animal made directly for the west steps of the court house. When the cart struck the curb it was thrown about ten feet in the air, badly demolishing it. The horse fell to the hard cement walk where he was caught by a number of bystanders who turned the frightened animal over to its master who then appeared on the scene.

Advertising is almost ruined by lies. That is why we say so little else but "your money back if you want it." Ask your grocer for Schilling's Best; if you don't like it, he pays you back your money.

COURTS.

Jury-Bottger Case on Trial

Department No. 2 in Session—The Supreme Court.

Judge Geo. H. Burnett convened department No. 1, of the Marion county circuit court, Monday morning. The day's session was consumed by the action for money case instituted by H. F. Jory vs. James Bottger et al. The first movement on the part of Messrs. Ford & Kaiser, counsel for the defense, was to file a motion, asking for a change of venue on the grounds "that we can not obtain a fair and impartial trial before him (Geo. H. Burnett) sitting as a court, and we ask that the trial of this cause may be changed to some other court, and we further say, that we are perfectly willing to try the same before any circuit judge in Oregon except said Geo. H. Burnett." D'Arcy & Richardson, Mr. Jory's attorneys, vigorously opposed this, and the defendant's motion was overruled by the judge. The trial was then opened James Bottger being the first witness. When court adjourned last evening, Mr. Bottger was still on the stand.

The Jory Bottger case was resumed this morning before Judge Burnett and a number of other additional witnesses examined. It is quite likely the case will be concluded at a late hour this afternoon when the respective counsels will make their closing arguments.

JOURNAL "X" RAYS.

Directed Upon the Oregon Politicians and Public Men.

Isn't the Ill. bee a $50,000 club?

What has become of T. T. Geer?

Silverton wants a board of trade.

Both Corbett at Washington and Corbett at Carson will win.

Except Driver, all good things in Oregon seem to come from Lane county.

The men raised $25,000 for a woolen mill last year. Let the women put up the $10,000 flax mill this year.

You may as well look for all kinds of woolen goods to advance when the Dingley bill goes into effect.

By vote of 183 to 152 congress adopted Reed's rules again. Look out Mr. Reed; your rules will yet be your death.

At last accounts Judge Burnett knew more about wheat options than Lawyer Ford. But the supreme court may know more than either.

Today's Examiner says Vice President Hoop. Adlai E. Stevenson, having emerged from his four years of retirement, seems to enjoy the publicity of private life.

Well-balanced persons are pretty sure of the following: There will be a special session of the legislature in the fall. There will never be a lawsuit to test the legality of the two legislative organizations.

THE JOURNAL has excluded sensational details of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight that is to come off. Of course it believes Corbett will whip, and will print the full account of the fight on Wednesday, March 17.

Sheriff Johnson, of Lane county, has broken the record by oulting the $2.50 back lire for taking a prisoner to the pen, and simply charged the state car fare 25 cents. Let's see, Kincaid comes from Lane county.

It is not true that State Supt. Irwin and Attorney-General Idleman are starting together or that any political bedfellows exist between them. It is doubtful if they would get onto the same platform together. They were up at C. Ralls together entirely accidentally.

Do you know how Dr. Driver the preacher-senator from Lane county came to be a John H. Mitchell man? It was this way. Along during the presidential campaign the state republican committee engaged Driver to make several speeches for McKinley for pay of course, (he never did any thing from principle) and he took the stump. Well, when the speech making was done he called for his money, but the committee was hard up for money (so it said) and gave him what he thought was a small amount for his extraordinary services, and promised more after the election. After the election the balance did not come and the preacher-senator kept worrying about it and telling how much more he could have made lecturing in the same time. Mitchell heard of it and sent for Driver. "I'll advance that money to you Driver," said he, "and will take my chances on getting it back from the committee, and, by the way, how much is it?" "— hundred dollars." "Well if you need any more just call on me, and of course now that I helped you to get your money you will be for me and with me in my fight at Salem this winter." "Certainly." "I am for you first, last and all the time. Have always been for you, from the beginning of time till now, and will be till eternity" (or till some one bids more). There are persons who can prove every word of the above.

H. P. McNary receiver, vs. G. W. Williams et al, equity, dismissed as to Chas. H. Dodd & Co., and decree on pleadings as to other.

H. P. McNary, receiver, vs. Wm. England, et al, equity, decree on pleadings. The amount claimed by county as taxes to be paid into court to await the further order of the court. Motion and demurrer continued.

James McCourt vs. Johns et al, decree on findings.

T. R. Hibbard, L. Ames, and James Finley have been appointed appraisers of the estate of Nicholas Lichty deceased, who left property to the probable value of $1,100.

There was a large amount of business before the supreme court. Attorneys present were E. B. Watson and Judge Smith of Portland, A. H. Irvine of McMinnville, and J. F. Hall of Marshfield.

Oregon Pottery Co., respondent vs. P. Kern appellant, ordered that respondent have 10 days additional time to file a petition for rehearing.

Peter Conrad et al respondent vs. the Pacific Packing Company et al appellants, argued and submitted on motion to bar respondent from filing brief the time for so doing having expired and respondent being in default.

A. T. Ambrose appellant vs. B. Huntington respondent ordered on motion that appellant have until May 1, 1897 to serve and file his brief.

D. K. Warren et al appellant vs. J. H. De Force et al respondent ordered on stipulation that respondents have until April 1, 1897 to serve and file their brief and that appellant have 60 days thereafter to serve and file a reply brief.

H. N. Dunham respondent, vs. W. H. S. Hyde submitted on motion to advance cause for hearing.

Clatsop Mill Co., respondent, vs. City of Astoria et al appellants ordered on stipulation that decree be modified as stipulated.

State of Oregon respondent, vs. Andrew Robinson appellant appeal from Marion county argued and submitted C. M. Idleman and S. L. Hayden attorneys for respondent G. G. Bingham and A. H. Irvine attorneys for appellants.

Then H. Leclie, respondent vs. Louis Nicola et al. appellant, appeal from Multnomah county. Judgment affirmed opinion, Moore, C. J. John J. Jennings, respondent, vs. Anna P. Gardner et al. appellant appeal from Multnomah county. Judgment of the lower court affirmed opinion by Wolverton, J. John Haas appellant, vs. W. L. Dudley et al, respondents, appeal from Multnomah county, judgment of the lower court affirmed opinion by Wolverton, J. John Weaver respondent, vs. The Southern Oregon company appellant appeal from Coos county (2 cases) Judgment in both causes. Affirmed. Opinion of Bean J.

The Dundee Mortgage and Trust Investment company respondent vs. Josiah Houser et al. appellants appeal from Multnomah county. Judgment reversed and the demurrer to the complaint sustained. Opinion by Bean J.

Milton W. Smith respondent, vs. John W. Minto appellant, appeal from Multnomah county. Judgment of the lower court. Affirmed Opinion by Bean J.

Isom White, respondent, vs. Cor-della Johnson, appellant, ordered on motion that appellant have until April 1, 1897, to serve and file his abstract.

H. D. Dunham, respondent, vs. W. H. S. Hyde, recorder, appellant; ordered that this cause be advanced for early hearing and be heard on oral argument without abstract or brief.

State of Oregon, respondent, vs. George Hanlon, appellant, argued and submitted for respondent, so one appearing for appellant.

EXAMINATION

Of W. U. Medical Students

Will Begin on Wednesday—"Open Meeting" Friday Night.

The first year of the Medical Department of Willamette university since its location in Salem will close on the last of the present month. In view of this fact the students are busily engaged preparing for examination.

There are three candidates for graduation viz: J. L. Johnson, of Eugene; Messrs. Jones and Schraider, of this county. Should the candidates attain the grade required in the examination they will be declared "full-fledged M. D's."

The last lecture for the school year will be delivered on Saturday of this week. The first examination will be held daily until the various topics have been exhausted.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

There will be a meeting of the faculty of the medical department this evening when the arrangements for commencement exercises will be perfected. It is quite probable they will be held on Wednesday evening the 31st inst., but this will all be determined at the meeting of the faculty tonight.

Mr. Shraeder, a member of the graduating class, has just recovered from a six weeks illness of typhoid fever and may not be able to take the examination.

OPEN MEETING.

On next Friday evening will occur the regular semi-term "open-meeting" at the University. The Philodorian literary society will entertain its friends on that occasion. It will be seen by glancing over the program that none of the fair sex have been to contribute to the evenings entertainment and it remains to be seen if the boys are successful entertainers.

All student, members of the faculty and friends of the University, are invited. The program arranged for the occasion is as follows: Address of Welcome—President R. A. W. Mason. Vocal Solo—C. W. Livesay. Prose—R. W. Davis. Selection—Male Quartette, Messrs. S. P. Early, John Byrne, A. O. Garland and C. W. Livesay. Impromptu—Carl Morris. Farce—"A Pair of Gloves," Messrs. Miller, B. Bollinger, R. A. Watson, R. V. Oumart and Bert Hainey. Selection—Male Quartette, Messrs. C. H. Woodbury, R. V. Oumart, Carl Morris and B. E. Hainey.

About Fanny Rice.

An exchange, in criticizing Fanny Rice's performance says: "Nothing more refreshingly funny than her more refreshingly funny than her business with the napkins in the table scene, or more artistic than her tipsy scene in the third act (where she pretends to be under the influence of wine in order to defeat schemes) has been seen on the stage for years, and in this act, more than ever, Fanny Rice proves herself the artist that she is. Although the opportunity is abundant, she never descends to anything that is coarse or vulgar. Our theatregoers will surely find rare entertainment tomorrow night at the opera house when Miss Rice presents "At the French Ball."
