EDITORIAL.

Dr. Richardson, as mayor, is the last man who ought to jump onto anyone on account of "pap." He gets more pap than any physician in Salem. The bill to create the office of consulting visiting physician was put through and the place occupied by Richardson at $1200 a year—a mere sinecure, until it was learned the bill never had become a law and was cut off by Secretary of State Kincaid.

While the money was drawn illegally and the service rendered was merely a nominal one, Richardson has never offered to refund this "pap" to the taxpayers. We will not say the money which the city has lost in the Williams & England bank has inured to Richardson's benefit. But he is said to be a $10,000 stockholder, one-half of which is paid by his note for $5,000, which the bank holds uncollectable assets. Under the law his stock would be liable for $5,000, but he is said to be execution-proof. His property here not being in his own name, and the lands owned by him in Eastern Oregon being of no value. So the city cannot hope to get back the "pap" that went to the bank. It is unpleasant to discuss these matters, but the mayor descended to a personal attack on this newspaper and used his official position to injure this newspaper and its business, when it was in the public interest and in support of his own message that this paper discussed public affairs. No "pap" has been given this newspaper by the city council. It bid for the city advertising at a very low rate and got it with no thanks to the mayor, or to any political party, but in accordance with the business practice of the council, established before Richardson took the mayor's chair. The city council has no occasion to take lessons in good business management at Richardson's hands. It has never stooped to so low an act as to strike at a business firm's contract for personal or political malice. The last man on earth to cry "pap" should be "Pap" Richardson. THE JOURNAL would like to see this city administration do two things: 1. It should put the city in a first-class sanitary condition. The streets and alleys and vacant lots should be kept in such condition as not to breed diseases. The sewerage, vaults, stables and back yards should be subject to inspection and regulation such as health, law and order demand. If there is no ordinance to accomplish the decent cleanliness and sanitation of the capital city let such an ordinance be enacted. 2. It should put our finances in order so that the warrants issued should be legal. The city's credit demands this. There should be no illegal city paper outstanding. There should be no city money where it cannot be obtained on a moment's notice. The health of the city and the integrity of its finances are first to be looked after, not opera house fire-escapes, "pap," and personalities.

There is controversy between the state treasurer and the county judges over the question of collecting and paying in the state taxes. The practice has been to collect taxes all through the year, but the law requires the first taxes to be paid over to the state treasurer, and the last money collected is used to pay the county debts. The county authorities want to reverse the process this year, and pay the state tax out of the taxes collected last. The state is not likely to have use for money to any great extent until the legislature meets and appropriates money. If the state were to be advantaged in any way by the prompt turning over of the very first taxes collected to the state treasurer, the case would be different. The state treasurer insists the secretary of state shall bring suit to enforce prompt payment of the state tax from the counties. The letter of County Judge Northup states the situation thus:

"If money is paid into the state treasury, it must remain there unused. The total state tax is about $600,000. If the full amount is paid, this large sum will be taken from the taxpayers and locked in the state vaults. The business of the state, however, must be carried forward. The insane must be cared for; the violations of the law punished; the penitentiary supported; the judicial officers of the state must be maintained and the general functions of the state continued. Claims, therefore, against the state must necessarialy be incurred. It may be that interest upon these claims will, when the time of payment comes, be allowed.

"In the end they must be paid by the counties, for the only source of revenue of the state is the state tax collected from the counties. The counties, then, in time will be called upon to pay these claims, and maybe with interest added. The money meanwhile in the case of payment of the state tax is idle in the strong-box of the state. Multnomah county, unfortunately, owing to the loss of its money deposited in banks which failed four years ago, is in debt. Unpaid warrants draw interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum. It is the purpose, therefore, to apply the state tax in payment of these unpaid county warrants. By this means, if called upon to pay interest on the unpaid claims of the state, the county will not be the loser, for all the money raised by tax will be immediately applied to the payment of outstanding obligations, and the cutting off of so much interest. If these claims do not bear interest, then the county is ahead just to the amount of the interest saved."

The secretary of state will be loath to bring suit, as a suit once started might be delayed so long that the money could not be had from the counties when it would be most needed.

NO OFFICAL ACTION.—At the meeting of county judges held at Portland Thursday there were present Judges Terrell, of Marion; Martin of Umatilla; Hayes, of Clackmas; Potter, of Lane; Gray, of Clatsop; and Northup, of Multnomah. No official action was taken at the meeting but the proposition of the respective counties turning over taxes to the state treasurer was thoroughly discussed. The judges in attendances at the meeting were uncompromisingly against allowing the people's money to be sent to the state treasury when it could be well used at home.

BIMETALLICS.

They Hold a Lively Meeting

Discussion of the Coinage Question--Appropriations.

The Bimetallic Union held a very interesting meeting Thursday night. There was a good attendance of gentlemen and ladies and a splendid program.

D. H. Wegant of the committee on finance made a report that was adopted.

A statement was read that the Inauguration ball cost $60,000, and that all employes of the government pension building were dismissed one week to prepare the building for the ball. They were paid wages of $78,000 for doing nothing for a week and examination of pension cases was stopped for that time. This was facetiously referred to as a high crest of the wave of prosperity.

Major D. C. Sherman suggested that, as there was a remarkable increase in immigration between the June and November elections, there be a committee to copy and compare the poll lists and prosecute any frauds. The matter was discussed. A committee of three was appointed to copy the poll lists Rigdon, Sherman and Pugh, were appointed.

It was moved to add two ladies to the program committee.

W. T. Rigdon was introduced to discuss the coinage laws. He presented the subject briefly outlined as follows:

The coinage of 1793 provided the first mint.

Carlisle's statement that the double standard of 1 to 15½ was established in 1784, was shown to be false, in that the Spanish milled dollar of silver was the only mint. Carlisle then said that the standard of 15 to 1, or 371¼ grains silver as the mint was established in 1792, with gold eagles of ten "dollars or unints." This law still left silver the standard, but provided gold coins, their measured value being of silver mints. In 1816 the rate was changed from 15 to 1 to 16 to 1. The silver dollar of today was 412½ grains standard silver, or 371¼ pure silver. Silver remained the unit dollar of value until 1873 when the gold dollar was substituted as the unit of value. The gold dollar piece was not a coin of practical value. None were now in circulation or coined, but it was put in there to accustom the mind to the idea of the gold dollar as the unit. He showed that in 1853 subsidiary silver was badly knifed. It was lightened as to legal tender quality. Carlisle says these coins are legal tender for $10. But the revised statutes say the limit is $5. The gold dollar was worth four cents less than the silver dollar. So silver was lightened seven cents on the dollar for a time.

Up to 1853 the silver in two half dollars was exactly the same as in a dollar.

Section 3586 of the revised statutes showed that for any amount not exceeding five dollars fractional silver was a legal tender. The law of 1879 says fractional silver is a legal tender for $10. The standard dollar was legal tender for any amount.

The discussion of appropriations by congress revealed the fact that the last two sessions had appropriated $516,000,000 and $529,000,000 respectively, or $1,045,000,000 for the Fifty-fourth congress. The average for the 52d and 53d congress were only $388,453,603. The United states, state and local governments of our country were expending $1,229,287,408 a year, or $4,000,000 for every working day of the year. The county that spent the next highest amount was Russia with $885,000,000. France spent $690,000,000 in 1893. England $469,592,105 in 1895. Germany $297,240,240 in 1896.

It was shown that we were expending a greater sum than the entire value of the cotton, wheat, corn, oat and tobacco crops all put together We are actually expending—most of which is paid out to government officials—a greater sum than the value of the products of the toil of all the farmers of the United States.

Judge R. P. Boise was invited to discuss the question of reducing the rate of interest at the meeting two weeks hence. The subject of parity is to be discussed at the meeting next Thursday evening.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Reed Will Favor the Tariff.

Arbitration Treaty and Matters Considered.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Speaker Reed has definitely decided that, for the present at least, he will not appoint any of the regular committees of the house, beyond those already announced. In this way all miscellaneous legislation will be blocked and the entire attention of the house focused on the tariff bill.

The house was in session for only fifteen minutes and that time was consumed in the reading the journal. The gallaries were filled in anticipation of the opening of the tariff debate, but Henderson announced that the ways and means committee would not be ready to report until tomorrow and accordingly, on his motion, the house adjourned.

A RELIEF BILL.

The session of the senate today was brief and uneventful. A large number of bills were introduced. A smile went around the chamber when Stewart, a resident of Carson City, Nevada, where the pugilistic contest occured, offered a bill for the relief of one Corbett. It proved to be a private pension.

ARBITRATION TREATY.

The senate went into executive session, nominations for foreign embassadors and the arbitration treaty being reported. Senator Morgan began speaking on the treaty, opposing it on the grounds he did when it was first before the senate.

Before the executive session began Senator Gear, of Iowa, presented the first report of the session, it being a recommendation that the Pacific rail roads committee bill be passed for readjustment of the Pacific railroad debts by a commission. On objection the bill went to the calendar.

NOMINATIONS.

President McKinley sent the following nominations to the senate:

State—Powell Clayton, of Arkansas, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Mexico; William Osborne, of massachusetts, consul-general at Paris; John M. Brigham, of Ohio, assistant secretary of agriculture; Perry S. Heath, of Indiana, first assistant postmaster-general.

War—Captain Charles Shaler, of the ordnance department, to be major; Henry L. Marindin, assistant of the United States coast and goodetic survey, to be a member of the Mississippi river commission.

Crown Prince Dead.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—Captain S. A. Day, United States army, late commandant at Front Mason, this city, and more recently of Fort Canby, Wash., who has just returned from a several motnhs' stay in Japan on the steamer Peru, says that Crown Prince of Japan is dead, and that the sad event was being openly discussed in diplomatic circles, although at the time the news was a state secret and was kept from the public.

The heir apparent to the Japanese throne, according to Captain Day, passed away at one of the palaces of the royal family between Yokohama and Kioto several days before the sailing of the Peru, but for various reasons the fact has not been publicly announced as yet. Japan has just recovered from a month of mourning oaer the death of the empress dowager, during which period business was suspended and festivities of all kind avoided. To inflict the whole empire with another siege of grief and mourning at this time has been deemed inadvisable, and for that reason, so the story gose, the death of the Crown Prince is being kept a secret for the time being.

Captain Day said it was reported in Yokohama that the death of Crown Prince had completely prostrated the emperor, whose health has not been good of late. A rumor was circulated that the emperor also was dead, but this was quickly denied. One rumor had it that smallpox had broken out in the emperor's palace, and that the queen dowager and the Crown Prince had both died from this disease.

THE DEADLOCK CONTINUES.

Board of School Directors for District No. 24 Fail to Elect a Clerk.

The deadlock in the election of a clerk of the board of directors for school district No. 24, to succeed Scott Bozorth, continues with no signs of being broken until the return of Mr. E. M. Waite, senior member of the board, who is absent in California.

The directors met in adjourned session at 7:30 o'clock last evening and after casting nineteen ballots and failing to elect a successor to Mr. Bozorth, an adjournment was taken until 10 a. m. on the 29th inst, when it is expected Mr. Waite will have returned from California.

Notwithstanding the names of several new candidates suggested last evening still the members of the board were unable to agree on a candidate. The candidates balloted on last evening, besides those named in THE JOURNAL, Thursday evening, were: Earl Race, E. H. Flagg and A. W. Prescott.

Preceding the attempt to elect a clerk the directors elected Miss Cora Litchfield to a position in the city schools.

A Suggestion to Singers.

Many young people choir singers, who have excellent voices are hindered along with only half success, because they cannot read music. This is unnecessary, for the art reading music is quite readily mastered in a few months. Why will so many musicians go on "guessing" all their lives when in a short time they could be independent readers.

Do not neglect this opportunity. It is a splendid time to begin. For further information call, at any time, at the "Vocal Studio" on the second floor of the college of music building on Winter St. near State St. or address.

HER LIFE TRULY SAVED.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Does It.

Mrs. Chas. La Point, a well-known resident of Denver, praises this wonderful remedy. Her testimony should convince all as to the worth of the New Heart Cure and Restorative Nervine. Her letter dated Sept. 11th, 1894, reads as follows:

MRS. LA POINT, 2137 Humboldt St.

"Typhoid fever left me with heart trouble of the most serious nature. Nothing the doctors gave had any effect. I had severe pains in the heart, and was unable to lie on my left side for more than three minutes at a time. My heart seemed to miss beats, and I had smothering spells, in which it seemed every breath would be my last. We accidently saw an advertisement of and Restorative Nervine, and purchased a bottle of each. After taking the remedies a week, I could be lifted in a chair and sit up an hour, and in a short time I was able to do light housework. I shall be ever grateful to you for your wonderful medicines. Truly they saved my life.

MRS. CHAS. LA POINT.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Restores ...Health.

How much business can a man do whose system is in a state of disorder? Headache is only a symptom. It is not a disease. The pain in the head is the sign of rebellion. There have been mistakes in diet. There has been overwork and sleepless nights. The machinery of the whole system is demoralized. A business man feels that he cannot afford to be ill enough to quit work. He drags along day after day, makes bad deals, says the wrong thing, and health and business collapse together. There's no need of either disaster. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a gentle, effective renovator of both stomach and bowels. They assist nature without threatening to tear the body piece-meal. There are no griping pains, no nausea. One is a barely perceptible laxative. Two give more noticable results, and they may be continued until the system is throughly renovated, strengthened, and put into harmony with nature. One need not fear a "habit" of taking the "Pleasant Pellets." As soon as health is restored they may be discarded without a return of illness because of their absence. Therefore, you don't become a slave to their use.

A GREAT BOOK FREE.

When Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., published the first edition of his work, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, he announced that after 680,000 copies had been sold at the regular price, $1.50 per copy, the profit on which would repay him for the great amount of labor and money expended in producing it, he would distribute the next half million free. As this number of copies has already been sold, he is now distributing absolutely free, 500,000 copies of this most complete, interesting and valuable common sense medical work ever published—the recipient only being required to mail to him, at the above address, twenty-one (21) cents in one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only and the book will be sent post-paid. It is a veritable medical library, complete in one volume. It contains over 1000 pages and more than 300 illustrations. The Free Edition is precisely the same as those sold at $1.50 except only that the books are bound in strong manilla paper covers instead of cloth. Send now before all are given away.
