Mrs. Hannah, a Life Time Convict Committed to the Asylum. Late Friday afternoon Mrs. Emma G. Hannah was examined as to her sanity, and as a result of the examination the woman was committed to the insane asylum.

The examination was conducted before County Judge G. P. Terrell, at the penitentiary, by District Attorney S. L. Hayden and Dr. S. R. Jessup. The woman was received at the penitentiary from Linn county in November, 1895, under life sentence, having been convicted of the murder of Mrs. Lottie G. PROPERTY TRANSFERRED.

Two Street Car Lines Consolidated Under One Management.

An important deed involving the ownership of Salem's principal electric railway was filed with County Recorder F. W. Waters Friday afternoon. The deed is from A. L. Barbur and wife to the Salem Light and Traction Co. by which all of the property of the Salem Consolidated Street railway Company is transferred, the consideration being $75,000. It will be remembered that Mr. Barbur bid in the property at the sheriff's sale last November, under a decree rendered by Judge Hewitt in the case of E. P. McCornack vs the Consolidated Company.

The property of the Salem Motor Railway Co. has also been transferred by Receiver E. C. Giltner to Manager F. R. Anson. The bid of Archie Mason for $3000 for the road in the interest of Mr. Anson was accepted by the receiver and the sale confirmed by Judge H. H. Hewitt.

The new management assumed the operation of the road this morning. No change in the schedules of the respective roads will be made until the condition of the service and public needs have been ascertained. Lee McGraw will continue to superintend the "big line" while W. F. Michaelis has been retained to look after the "little line." Tickets in books of fifty each will continue to be sold for $2. There will be no transfers issued but the tickets will be good on either line. Tickets and checks that have heretofore been in use over the cars of the Salem Motor Railway have been abandoned and more will be accepted. They can be exchanged however for tickets.

SOCIAL NEWS.

PHILODORIAN "OPEN MEETING."

The entertainment given Friday evening at the university chapel by the Philodorian literary society, was a decided success. It was one of the most pleasant and enjoyable entertainments ever presented by the young men of the university. The chapel was filled with Salemites whose entertainment was complete.

R. A. Watson, president of the society, presided over the meeting and opened the program with a short address of welcome.

The committee on program made no mistake in assigning the task of "society prophecy" to R. W. Davis. That young gentleman's paper exhibited great care in its preparation. Mr. Davis' glimpse of the future as indicated by his paper, was indeed flattering to those with whom he dealt. It only remains to be seen if his happy predictions are realized in even the smallest detail.

Mr. Carl Morris' impersonation of an aged gentleman, possessing all modern ailments of which he was constantly complaining, was very cleverly done. The selection by the quartet consisting of Messrs. Garland, Livesay, Early and Byrne was so well done that it received an encore. The laughable farce "A Pair of Gloves" was next presented and kept the audience in constant laughter for about thirty minutes. Max Miller, as the popular maiden whose hand and heart was so eagerly sought for by three eligible gentlemen, sustained his difficult part very creditably. Roy Ballanger, as the maid, experienced considerable difficulty with his bearing whenever there was a favorable opportunity for having that deficiency. Bert Haney and Roy Ohmart, as the two unsuccessful rivals, acted well their parts while R. A. Watson, the true lover, owed his good fortune in again winning the love, etc., of the woman he adored, to an old "Pair of Gloves." Following the program the young folks repaired to the society hall where a good social hour was enjoyed.

During the evening, the C. L. S. C., better known as the ladies' auxiliary of the A. D. A. C., was organized with a large number of charter members. The society takes a great deal of pleasure in initiating members and applications for same may be filed at any time.

No Remedy to Compare With Paine's Celery Compound.

Read the Really Wonderful Experience of Rev. Dr. Bailey and His Good Wife, and the Indorsements of Other Eminent Divines.

Here is a letter from the pastor of the most influential church in South Baltimore, that every truth-seeker should read carefully.

Every disheartened sick person and every man or woman who has lost faith in the remedies he or she has tried because none of them has done any good—every one who is sick ought to be cheered up and filled with new hope and determination by the letter written by Rev. William T. Bailey, pastor of the Curtis Bay Church, the most influential church in South Baltimore.

On March 31, 1896, the Baltimore Sun, under display headlines, published the following news of Rev. Mr. Bailey's affliction:

"Rev. Wm. T. Bailey, pastor of the Curtis Bay Baptist church, was paralyzed in the tongue while preaching Sunday night, and lost the power of speech. The congregation was at once dismissed. Dr. — was called. He said Mr. Bailey was suffering from a severe attack of nervous prostration caused by hard study and overwork, and that he must have rest and quiet."

The whole city was shocked. The papers soon began to record improvement.

On April 13, 1896, the following open letter was addressed to the proprietors of Paine's celery compound:

SOUTH BALTIMORE, Md., April 13, '96. Messrs. Wells, Richardson & Co., GENTLEMEN:—I was taken very ill while preaching Easter Sunday night. My doctor could not help me, so I discharged him and began to use Paine's celery compound with crushing effect. I will not hesitate to say that it is the best medicine in the world. I am, Fraternally, WILLIAM T. BAILEY.

Later in the year the proprietor of this wonderful remedy received still another letter from Dr. Bailey, as follows:

GENTLEMEN:—I propose to do what I can to let people know of your Paine's celery compound, the medicine that has done me so much good. I shall in my own way, in speaking of my rapid and great improvement from the pulp, give as is justly due, tribute to Paine's celery compound. I married, six years ago, Miss Lillie B. Dunnavaan, a lady well known in social life, the niece of Capt. Robert F. Lewis, U. S. navy. During the whole six years she has been an invalid, suffering from hysteria, laughing, crying and screaming, so that she could be heard for squares. I have had a great deal of trouble and expense. Eighteen doctors have, first and last, attended her, and one bottle of Paine's celery compound has done her more good than all of the other medicine. She and I are together using Paine's celery compound, and I will with pleasure let you know the result. Fraternally, WILLIAM T. BAILEY. BALTIMORE, May 18, 1896. Wells, Richardson & Co., GENTLEMEN:—It is impossible for me to express the emotions of my heart on the great good Mrs. Bailey and I have derived from the use of Paine's celery compound. I am a new man. We have taken together eight bottles, and I wish to continue its use. The people of my church are very kind to the poor, and I have given to some of the poor money with which to purchase the medicine. You may use my name if you wish and I will with pleasure answer all communications sent me. I believe the remedy is the best in the world. Yours very truly, WILLIAM T. BAILEY, Pastor Curtis Bay Baptist Church.

A few weeks ago there was published a testimonial of the great virtue of Paine's celery compound from Rev. Charles L. Thompson, D. D., LL. D., eminent Presbyterian preacher of New York City. Rev. Dr. McKee, editor of the Central Methodist, recently wrote an open letter, telling that Paine's celery compound had worked a remarkable cure in his case. And last month the great temperance evangelist, Francis Murphy, told the public how Paine's celery compound had been a blessing in his family. There are a few among thousands. Every one knows conscientious, charitable persons who are too busy, more often too procrastinating, to have their health from going to pieces and find it easier to help others than themselves. Such persons fill up the army of broken down business men and sickly women. Every one in the spring time needs to purify the blood and regulate the nerves. Carry home today—not by a bottle of Paine's celery compound. Cure nervousness, neuralgia, and rheumatism this spring. You can now put your health on a sound basis by means of Paine's celery compound. Charly should now begin at home. Attend to your own health and that of your family. Paine's celery compound is within the reach of every family where there is a member afflicted by any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. It cures permanently and rapidly. It must be distinguished from all other remedies.

A Suggestion to Singers. Many young people choir singers, who have excellent voices are blundering along with only half success, because they cannot read music. This is unnecessary, for the art reading music is quite readily mastered in a few months. Why will so many good musicians go on "guessing" all their lives when in a short time they could be independent readers. Do not neglect this opportunity. It is a splendid time to begin. For further information call, at any time, at the "Vocal Studio" on the second floor of the college of music building on Winter St. near State St. or address: R. A.
