T. HOLVERSON.

JOURNAL "X" RAYS.

Directed Upon the Oregon Politicians and Public Men.

They have a Cumberland Presbyterian college up at Sodaville that is making a success without any aid from the state or taxpayers.

A few Salem boys are discovering that it requires something besides appetite and duplicity to hold public places.

THE JOURNAL offers of a $100 reward for any paper, except the Oregonian, that can show an equal state circulation.

This was April fool day sure for many a bill collector.

The Democrats and their Wilson tariff busted nearly everybody; now let's try high protection and see if it won't help us out.

The secretary of state actually believes that the way to get a special session of the legislature is not to audit and allow everybody's bills. He is right.

The dog editor, of the Statesman, is reminded that all the curs in Marion county have out cost the taxpayers as much as one pap editor, who has run the state fair and state reform school as "pap" annexes of his printing office. The taxpayers are getting rid of their worst nuisances first.

The rich can read themselves out of Heaven according to Rev. Mathew in this issue.

Not nearly so many people are in danger of being shut out of their chance for Heaven on account of riches, as a few years ago, thanks to the Cleveland administration.

The only way the nineteenth general assembly can ever get a cent for their services is by a special session. Do those fellows imagine the people would ever elect a legislature to pay them per diem and mileage when they never even organized?

Kineald has a clear head for a man who is only a country newspaper man.

If Secretary of State Kineald would go to grinding out deficiency warrants there would be no end to the claims that would be piled up against the state, and the nineteenth general assembly would never meet.

A letter from one of their leaders, in this issue, says that thousands of Populists voted for McKinley. They must be getting their eyes open.

THE JOURNAL don't use type-setting machines and prints a better paper than the Statesman. It pays fifteen people cash wages without "pap."

BY ORDER OF COURT.

Assignee of the J. M. Moyer & Co. Stock Forced to Sell.

OFFICIAL

Proceedings at State House.

Personals and Pointers from the Departments.

This was an April fool day for those who based their hopes on getting state warrants cashed and is very hard on all Salem business people and enterprises.

The weather forecast for today was rain and cooler. It was dry and warmer.

Adjutant General Tuttle is in the city for a few days.

D. M. Jones, of Sodaville, founder of the Mineral Springs college at that town, was a caller at the governor's office. He was present when Judge Lord was admitted to the bar and has known him ever since he was a young man. Mr. Jones had a pleasant visit in recalling old times at Salem. He says Governor Lord's hearing is much improved.

State Treasurer Metschan received one remittance of taxes March 31, $7,000 from Jackson county. That county has remitted $9,000 in all so far, and owes $10,242.13.

Joseph Cook, of Marion, and Wm. D. Fenton, of Portland, were made notaries today.

The state house barometer today was rising—indicating good weather. Senator Calbreath has gone east to take a post graduate medical course. Governor Lord's message indicates that preparatory departments in state colleges are an injustice to the other colleges.

Attorney General Idlemann is kept busy nearly all the time at his office these days, furnishing opinions and legal advice to the state officials, boards and even to county and school officers.

STATE CLAIMS.

The Oregonian prints the following from Salem:

"The first quarter of the year without an appropriation ended yesterday. The state's 'pay-day' is at hand. There will be some difference from the usual mode of collection. Claimants will not go to the office of the secretary of state, procure warrants and walk across to the state treasurer's office and have them cashed, as usual.

The state's servants will not resign, either. Money can be had on just and regular claims. There is going to be an effort to realize on all manner of claims. Claims unlawful, and for which the state has received no benefit, will be pressed. Some were touched upon in the governor's message. The effect will be to let in much light on the drain from the public treasury that will doubtless result in a great saving to the state.

Claims for necessary services and supplies can be sold at par when the secretary of state and money-loaners can agree upon a negotiation form for the claims. Of course, it is expected the state will pay interest on claims from the time they are due until paid. But the interest would be offset many times by rejecting parasitical and unlawful claims.

STATE DIPLOMAS.

The following state papers were issued by the state board of education: Life diplomas—Anna S. Ross and Emma G. Claggett, of Portland; M. C. Case, Gale's Creek. State diploma—Bertha Cavanaugh, of Portland.

State certificates—William Martin, of Florence; Charles E. Hall, W. S. Gordon, L. R. Trauer, of Forest Grove; Jesse M. Starr, of Salem.

SUPREME COURT.

The case of H. W. Dunham, respondent, vs. W. H. S. Hyde, recorder of the town of Marshfield, appellant, from Coos county, was argued and submitted in the supreme court.

The orders made by the court were as follows: Adolph Frank vs. Harry Bailey; respondent allowed 30 days' additional time to serve and file brief.

Donny Falconio, respondent, vs. E. S. Larsen, appellant; order that cause be advanced for hearing.

Maria Feldman, respondent, vs. W. W. McGuire, appellant; ordered that the respondent have until April 20, 1897, to serve and file brief.

Eldon A. Kern, appellant, vs. J. W. Kern et al., respondents; ordered the appellant have until April 20, 1897, to serve and file brief.

J. A. Allef, appellant, vs. Leroy Byerby, respondent, appeal from Polk county, argued and submitted. W. H. Holmes attorney for appellant. Butler & Townsend attorneys for respondent.

This suit is over possession of land in Polk county. The jury found the defendant, Leroy Byerby, not guilty and the court entered decree accordingly and costs against plaintiff to amount of $33.25 were entered.

FOR EVERY BICYCLIST: FRIDAY AND SATURDAY: SPECIAL SALE!

Champion Michael Advises Use of Paine's Celery Compound.

James Michael is the champion long distance bicyclist of the world. He recommends all wheelmen to take Paine's celery compound.

His experience is that of thousands of others. With the opening of the bicycle season many a young person and hundreds of older people who have determined to take up bicycling as a health-giving exercise find themselves really lacking the proper "snap" or stamina to begin on. Their bodily condition prevents so spirited exercise.

They would like to ride, but they are out of sorts, run down by a winter of work or indoor life. Many who are really sick, who have suffered from debility or wasting diseases for a long time until they began to think their trouble had become chronic, as nothing gave them relief, would turn to bicycling for relief. But this splendid exercise, like any other, requires strength to undertake. The blood is out of order, the nerves are deranged, and nature's food for both is needed.

All such persons will find to their immense joy that Paine's celery compound, taken now, will make them well. Paine's celery compound works wonders in the spring. If you have labored under the load of repeated headaches, neuralgic pains and days of nervous debility, now is your best time to get well.

Michael is today the most phenomenal rider in professional ranks. As far back as 1894 he was undisputed champion of Great Britain, and in the following year he went to France and scored 25 straight wins against the picked riders of Europe. He has defeated such famous men as Jacquelin, Gougoltz, Huret, Riviere, Bonhours, Bourillon and Barden of England, and Leyten, the Belgian champion.

Every one needs to take a spring remedy to purify their blood, arouse the circulation and counteract the debilitating effect of months of confining work, worry and excitement.

The more intelligent portion of every community are the ones who best recommend Paine's celery compound. They have looked into this great remedy, followed its remarkable achievements in the case of friends, neighbors and relatives, and know just what to expect from its use as a nerve and brain strengthener and restorer and an ideal invigorator for a rundown system.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. WEST.

Following tribute to the late Mrs. West, was written for THE JOURNAL by Emma Babcock, secretary of the Ladies' Aid Society:

Softly, softly, the Boatman Came in the shadowy dawn That the silent watchers, scarcely Knew when the soul had gone.

Only a trembling hand clasp— Only a fleeting breath— And the spirit burst its fetters, Triumphant over death.

Bearing her trials with patience' Thinking it all for good, Waiting the summons bravely As ever soldiers should.

Leaving her best and dearest In the Commanders' hand, Bravely she followed the Angel Into the "Promised Land."

Of the scores of souls the Boatman Bears off as the hours fly, How many know how to grandly live! How few know how to die!

He has just returned from Europe and is now ready to join the racing men on the Pacific coast, despite the large amount of work he has gone through during the past months.

Michael has made cycle racing a careful study and is in a position to give excellent advice not only to racing men but to wheelmen and athletes in general. In reference to his own methods the following letter will interest everybody:

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 21, 1897. After the exertion of my record rides while with the Morgan & Wright team in the south last winter, during which I lost somewhat in weight, on account of the unaccustomed climate, I was advised to use Paine's celery compound. I am pleased to say that it gave such satisfaction that I was impelled to use it again to brace up from the effects of the two unusually rough ocean trips that I have taken during the past month. I believe the wheelmen who have to undergo the hardships of "circuit chasing" will find Paine's celery compound of assistance in keeping up their physical tone.

The Best is Not too Good. There never was a truer saying than that "The best is not too good" when speaking of accommodations for a long overland journey and therefore it will be well for the traveler going east to remember that he will be very weary when he gets to St. Paul or Minneapolis, and that he should make a wise choice of routes from there to Chicago or Milwaukee. The Wisconsin Central trains run between these points making close connections with all trains at both terminals. Posted travellers seek this route for many reasons, one of which is, they can get a well cooked meal at a moderate price, and eat it at leisure as they speed to their destination. Address Geo. S. Batty, General Agent, 246 Stark street, Portland, Or., or Jas. C. Pond, General Passenger agent, Milwaukee, Wis., or apply to your nearest ticket agent.
