ELECTIONS.

Chicago's New Mayor-Elect.

Will Follow in the Footsteps of His Illustrious Father.

CHICAGO, April 8.—Speaking of his victory, Mayor-elect Harrison said:

"There is no danger that the city will be handed over to two years of vice and debauchery. I will also promice there will be nothing of what is characterized as 'wide open' days. I do not recognize the necessity of public gambling in Chicago, but believe largely in the German idea of personol liberty. It draws a sharp line between liberty and license."

"I shall enter upon the duties of this office wholly unhampered by pledges of any kind. My purpose is to give the city a conservative, business administration. I shall not be dictated to by any man or league, or any association and, so long as I occupy the chair, no one will be mayor but Carter Harrison."

THE VOTE.

The mayorality vote complete is as follows: Carter H. Harrison, Democrat, 144,828; J. M. Harlan, independent, 64,072; N. C. Sears, Republican, 57,566; W. Hesing, business men's, 15,116; John Glembeck, socialist labor, 1226; H. L. Parmelee, Prohibition, 852; J. I. Pearce, Jr., independent, 686; F. Howard Collier, independent, 88. Total, 287,434 Harrison's plurality, 77,736; Harrison's majority over all, 2222.

Complete returns show the election of twenty-three Democratic aldermen, six Republicans and five independents. The Democrats will have a majority of eight over all in the next council.

According to the Record the vote for the Democratic ticket was increased through Republican strength thrown by machine Republicans who feared the election of Harlan, independent. The Democrats also aided the Republican politicians who separated from the regular organization after the recent bitter contest for the United States senatorship. One consequence of the overwhelming Democratic victory will probably be the formation of a new civic party which will not recognize national issues.

NEARLY BLOODSHED.

The attempt to steal a ballot-box in the 17th ward and a few scraps were the only incidents yesterday. A mob made a desperate attempt to steal the ballot-box of the 14th precinct of the 17th ward. The bravey of the police prevented the consummation of the crime. The poling-place was kept in a restaurant at 309 West Kinzie, kept by John Rubert.

A few minutes after 4 o'clock men gathered in front of the poling place. The judges and clerks paid no attention to them and continued counting the ballots. The men crowded in the doors. The police warned them to keep away, but this seemed to be the signal for an onslaught. The plate-glass door was broken and the mob pushed in the door and tore away the locks which held the door. Once on the inside the men began to yell "The ballot box."

Policeman Eastman and Sawyer took out their clubs and began knocking down the invaders. Still the men poured in, pushing closer to the ballot-box. For the time it looked as if the men would succeed in stealing it. It was a fight between 700 men and two policmen and the judges and clerks of election. When it was seen the mob was getting the best of the combat Eastman and Sawyer drew their revolvers and threatened to shoot the first men to step toward the ballot-box.

In the meantime a citizen turned in a riot call and a wagonload of police hurried to the scene. When the wagon appeared the crowd had dispersed. Blood could be seen all over the floor, as a result of the fight. No arrests were made. Eastman and Sawyer were bruised but none of the judges or clerks were hurt. After the place was put in order the counting of the ballots continued.

The little 4-year-old girl of J. L. Lacy, of Astoria, fell and cut the arteries of her wrist with a piece of glass and nearly bleed to death.

CORBETT.

He May Be Senator Yet.

But Will Have to Wait for a Little While.

Private advices from Washington indicate that H. W. Corbett, the senator appointed from Oregon to fill the Mitchell vacancy, will be seated. He will get votes besides the Republican members, if they are needed.

The following is an editorial from the Los Angeles Times, March 23:

"There is current in Washington, and has been for the past fortnight, a rumor that the Oregon house of assembly, in its late lamented legislature, had failed to organize just in order to prevent the election of John H. Mitchell, so as to give Gov. Lord the opportunity to appoint H. W. Corbett to the vacancy Such a story might find credence at Washington, but it will find no supporters here on the coast where both Gov. Lord and Senator Corbett are well known. If Mr. Corbett had never occupied a seat in the senate, one might look upon it as a case of senile ambition, but the fact that he was chairman of the committee on post roads in that body during the most exciting period of all its annals—the trial of Andrew Johnson on impeachment—and that he was a man generally looked up to by his contemporaries as a man of high character and sterling worth, shows that he has not sought the senatorship merely to gratify personal vanity."

"People in Washington who did not keep up from day to day with the dog-in-the-manger proceedings carried on at Salem, merely look upon it as a failure to elect, such as occurred in Idaho, Washington and Montana, some years ago. In every one of those states, at that time, both houses of the legislature were fully organized. This was a different case entirely. When the Oregon legislature met at Salem, this year, the senate organized the very first day, while the house never organized at all. The entire constitutional limitation of the legislative session went over without passing a single bill. It is the failure to organize that gives the govrenor of Oregon the right to appoint a senator to fill the vacancy; and the cases of Idaho, Montana and Washington are not parallel for this rason."

The prisoners in the Astoria jail nearly made their escape Sunday, by digging a hole through the wall under an old sink. They were caught in the act.

A woman never really knows the meaning of happiness and content until she is the mother of a healthy, happy child. She never reaches the full degree of womanly development until she has felt the pleasing responsibilities of maternity. All this happiness may be marred or may be turned into misery if the child is not a healthy child. The health of the child depends on the health of the mother, both before and after birth. Heredity is strong, and it is every woman's duty to give her children the best possible chance in life. Nothing that she could possibly give them can be as valuable as health. Wealth cannot be enjoyed without health. Nothing can be enjoyed without health. Health is life. People who are not healthy are only half alive. The child who starts out with a robust body and vigorous, virile health, has everything to be thankful for and nothing to be afraid of. You cannot expect such a child to spring from a weak and sickly mother. Most all of woman's weakness and particularly the weakness that most strongly influences the health of children, comes from some derangement or disease of the distinctly feminine organs. All such trouble is as unnecessary as it is terribly distressing. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure all troubles of this nature. There is no guess-work about this statement, and there is no qualification. The "Favorite Prescription" should be used promptly and persistently until the symptoms entirely disappear. In every case, it restores perfect health and strength and assists in the healthful and regular performances of all the natural functions. The "Favorite Prescription" should be taken regularly by every woman during the entire period of gestation. It gives strength to all the organs involved, lessens the pains and danger of childbirth and insures the health of both mother and child.

If you care to know all about the "Favorite Prescription," and to read the testimony of hundreds of grateful women, send 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, and receive free a copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser—1008 pages, profusely illustrated.

BARREL OF SQUIRRELS

FOR 25 CENTS.

TO THE FARMER.

A Word in your ear. Delays are dangerous.

If you are bothered with squirrels use

: FRY'S SQUIRREL POISON. :

It is the cheapest and speediest squirrel killer known. Do not waste any time experimenting with high priced poisons of uncertain strength, but use one can of FRY'S SQUIRREL POISON and the result will be entirely satisfactory.

Mr. N. P. Williamson of Salem, Oregon, writes:

"I have tried several brands of squirrel poison but Fry's is the best. I believe one can of Fry's Squirrel Poison will kill a barrel of squirrels, and by using early and often you stop the breed."

The circulation of the Portland Telegram is stated at 2500 copies daily. The average circulation of THE ONE CENT DAILY has been for sometime larger than that and the WEEKLY JOURNAL has a larger circulation than ever before.

THE JOURNAL is now established as the paper having the largest circulation in Oregon, next to the Oregonian. Advertisers are invited to inspect our lists of subscribers, and are reminded that our mail subscriptions are all paid in advance, and that such are a desirable class of people to do business with. They take this paper because they want it, not because it is forced upon them, and they can't get rid of it.

THE JOURNAL outsold all other papers in Oregon during the legislative session.
