Independent Comment on People in State and Nation.

"Pap" Richardson hit THE JOURNAL a fatal blow when he took away its horse-pound notices. They seldom pay for the setting.

A modest reward for the public man who does not read what is said about him. He may say he doesn't, but don't believe that for a moment.

Mayor Richardson has always had an eye on public patronage and his appetite for "pap" is so insatiable that he can serve with equal facility a Republican or Democratic administration. He was "Bill" Watkins' physician at the penitentiary years ago, and he is now Bob Hendricks' physician at the reform school, but there is this explanation in the former case, he was a Republican representative from Marion county at the time and made himself useful to the "powers that be."

It is said that during the canvass in Lane county, between Driver and Skipworth, the latter charged Driver with being a prevaricator and being unable to public discussion and being to the truth, and that Driver feeling that he ought to resent such charge, applied to a friend for advice as to what he should do. "Quit lying," said his friend.

Senator Al. Reed is quite talkative in some of his moods, and likes to hear the applause of the crowd. Al. was for Joe and opposed to Mitchell's program for an organization of the senate. He was down on Mitchell as a politician, on account of his methods and, as a senator, on account of his conduct in relation to some judicial office. Al. is a clever man and would be useful, if he were less vacillating of judgment and shunned associating his name with Driver's.

The X Ray man is still praying for prosperity and planting potatoes.

The applicants for federal patronage are numerous. Quite a number are asking for foreign appointments. Among those applying for offices of this kind are Gen. Kapus, Dr. Keene, Harry Miller, Judge Deuny and a lot of others. The rush for places seems to be increasing, instead of diminishing.

"Pap" Richardson got his first practice on convicts under a Democratic administration and has kept his hand in on insane, idiotic, and incorrigible under Republican administrations ever since.

Which is it mayor, in your case, "pap" or principie?"

Banker Tom Hendricks very prudently resigns after moving heaven and earth to be reappointed. Who wouldn't.

A Washington paper notes the fact that "Ex-Senator" John H. Mitchell of Oregon is importuning the President to appoint Van Vleet, who married the sister of Crocker of the Southern Pacific railroad co., Chief Justice of the U. S. court of appeals. This appointment ought not to be made, and we trust President McKinley's attention will be called to the matter and that he will not sanction it. We suppose this is done by the ex-senator in his capacity as "hired man" for the S. P. R. R. Co., and it furnishes a forcible reason for his exclusion from the senate. We do not believe a senator can be faithful to the interests of the people and at the same time serve these great corporations as their agent.

The recent election in the east ought to forewarn our legislators who put self of office before duty to the people, that a storm is impending that will engulf them, unless by some assurance they can induce an extra session, and then avail themselves of such opportunity to redeem their pledges to the people for relief of needless public burdens.

Capt. Ormsby's order for the payment of a certain portion of the pensions received by inmates of the Soldiers Home, to the commandant of the post, to be sent to dependent relatives, or to be used at the home for the support of such inmates, with the exception of $1 per month, has caused some of them to leave the home.

STATE HOUSE NEWS.

A. E. M. Rosenkrantz, who was brought to the penitentiary from Jackson county about a year ago, has been discharged. He was sentenced to two years for larceny, but having been made a truant soon after his arrival at the penitentiary, he shortened his term considerably.

Carry F. Martin, of the secretary of state's office, is usually engaged compiling the election laws, in accordance with the law providing for the compilation before every general election. STATE UNIVERSITY.

A regent of the state university to succeed Banker Tom Hendricks is appointed. Several prominent gentlemen of Eugene have written Governor Lord, suggesting that the interests of the university would be better served by appointing regents outside of that city. The idea is that local matters creep into the affairs of the institution, causing friction and leading to bad feeling that results injuriously to the university. This sentiment is not intended to reflect any discredit on any of the gentlemen who are regents, for their merits and character stand admitted, but, to emphasize the fact the difficulty is the result of the situation. The people of the locality are apt to feel that they have some interest in a public institution distinct from the general public, which leads them to inspire to control the direction of its affairs, and use it to further such interests. Hence, there spring up opposing parties, one criticizing and the other commending its management. We have the idea that it would be better for state schools that the regents should not be selected from its locality.
