T. HOLVERSON'S.

California. While there attending conference at Los Angeles.

Rev. G. W. Goe, Rev. A. N. Fisher and Rev. J. F. Berry, who attended the Epworth League rally, Tuesday evening went to Portland, this morning.

State Superintendent G. M. Irwin left this afternoon for La Grande where he will lecture Thursday evening. On Friday evening he will lecture at Union.

Misses Winifred and Kate Fenwick returned on Sunday from a visit of several weeks at Stockton and San Francisco. They report a most delightful trip.

J. Burk and H. B. Busick, of Liberty, started this morning for a trip of several weeks, prospecting, hunting and fishing up on the Abiqua. We hope they will strike it rich.

A reporter calling at the Cottage hotel learned the interesting fact that Mrs. Whitehorn, wife of the gentleman now giving instructions in physical culture in this city, is related to Mayor Ebenezer Barnes Ball, of Virginia, and a living relative of George Washington, to whom she bears a striking resemblance. The resemblance of Mrs. Whitehorn to the Washington family features is also quite marked. Major Ball crossed the plains in 1850 and was entertained at the home of John Minto, five miles south of Salem, and is very well remembered by pioneers of that time. Major Ball brought a troop of United States Infantry to the Pacific coast, and the battlefield, of Ball's bluff, where Colonel Baker was killed, bears his name.

THAT COMPETITIVE DRILL.—Owing to the continued rainy weather the competitive drill between Companies B., of Salem, and E., of Hubbard, O. N. G., has necessarily been postponed. Although no date has been decided upon yet the drill was to have taken place at Woodburn, some time during the present month. It is not likely the drill will now take place before the middle of May. The Salem company is having regular drills and is preparing for the contest with the Hubbard company.

ONE MORE ARRIVAL.—Luke Kykendall, aged 16 years, of Portland, was received at the Reform school Tuesday evening. This makes 285 boys within the jurisdiction of the reformatory, of which number 132 are occupants of the institution. Kykendall was committed for larceny.

MARRIED IN MISSOURI.

Max O. Buren, of This City, Weds a Fair Eastern Daughter.
At 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, April 19, 1897, in Trenton, Missouri, Mr. Max O. Buren, of this city, was united in marriage with Miss Alice Wolcott.

The ceremony which was performed by the pastor of the First Baptist church of Trenton, was followed by a sumptuous wedding breakfast. At 4 o'clock that afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Buren started on the trip for Salem. They are expected to arrive here Thursday and will be finally domiciled at 125 Court street. They will be "at home" to their many friends in this city, after May 1st.

The following is taken from the "Trenton Weekly Republican" of the 19th, last:
"The happy affair above narrated was the result of the childhood associations and subsequent friendship and love of the estimable young people. Both were born in Trenton, and grew up together in school, and the friendship of the boy and girl, ripened into the love of the man and woman."
"Eight years ago the groom's family moved to Salem, Oregon, but time and distance did not lessen the ardor of the young people, and when the affair of wedded interest had shaped themselves satisfactorily, the young man returned to claim his bride. She was well worth the waiting."
"The groom is the senior member of a firm of furniture dealers at Salem, and is not only a first class young business man, but is worthy in all respects to be the helpmeet of so fair a bride."

A Decided Success.

The entertainment given in St. Joseph's Hall on Chemsaketa street Tuesday evening by the Ladies Aid Society of the Catholic church of this city, was a decided success, both socially and financially. This association of charitable ladies is popular for its ability to entertain and the successful entertainment of all in attendance last evening was quite evident. The ladies gave the event for the benefit of the deserving poor of the city and their efforts were liberally rewarded by a large attendance. Rev. J. S. White delivered a short address on "Ancient Belles" that abounded in considerable humor. Wm. Kaiser, the well known attorney at law, followed with a short address on "Good Citizenship" which was ably discussed. Miss Lena Benoit sang a beautiful solo and the instrumental selection by Miss Ethel Kightlinger was much appreciated. The mandolin solo by Miss Miller was very gracefully given. Mrs. R. A. Kirk sang a pretty selection, very sweetly.

The ability of the gentlemen present to successfully trim hats was tested in a practical manner. Each gentleman was furnished the frame with an almost inexhaustible supply of trimmings together with a needle, thread, etc. At the expiration of a given time, work was ceased and the results of the labor of the gentlemen were examined by a committee, who awarded the first prize, which consisted of a bunch of fine cigars, to P. D. Prunty. Wm. Kaiser carried off the booby-prize—A curling iron.

Following the program, tempting refreshments were served and an enjoyable social time was had.

Pure Enjoyment.

The Smalley Grand Concert company is a "happy combination" in every sense of the word. The company is composed of five young ladies from Chicago. They sing, play and act as only Chicago girls can, and they entertain an audience, not to the "Queen's taste" but to the gratification of every one who hears them. This company appeared at the Reed under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. last evening, and although they were greeted by a small audience it was an appreciative one. Every number was encored, and the whole was received with rare satisfaction. This quintette of entertainers do not bore an audience with hours of heavy selections, but delight their hearers with the lighter things in music which are none the less classical. The entertainment last night was thoroughly recreative, and all who were so fortunate as to attend will be glad to hear them on their next tour of this coast.

For a Baseball Team.

Salem has not had a good baseball team, outside of juvenile circles, for a number of years, but the prospects are favorable for a strong team this season. A meeting of Salem baseball enthusiasts was held in this city Saturday evening when preliminary steps were taken towards organizing a team. Gen. Irwin was elected manager and J. McCormick was named as captain with Harry Olinger as assistant. Another meeting will be held this evening when further steps towards organizing for the season will be taken. Grounds have been selected in North Salem and as soon as the weather will permit the boys will begin practicing. Thus early there have been more players reported than it will require to form a team. The boys have already received a communication from the Boston Bloomer club which contemplates a trip along the coast, for a game. The advance agent is expected in a few days when final arrangements for the game will be completed. Salem certainly has sufficient material to form a strong team and judging from the manner in which the boys are responding, an organization will soon be effected. The team will arrange for games with Eugene, Albany, Portland and any valley towns that may possess a team, and the season will no doubt witness a number of exciting games.

Not Very Insane.

Emma J. Hannah, the Linn county murderess, does not impress asylum authorities as being very insane. In fact, Superintendent Paine says she has so far exhibited no evidences of insanity. It is not claimed, however, that she is not mentally unbalanced. There are patients whose periods of insanity are recurrent, and between those periods they are apparently sane. The Hannah woman has been placed in a ward, where she is carefully watched, and if her present mental condition is maintained, will be returned to the penitentiary. Mrs. Hannah was examined as to her sanity, at the state penitentiary and duly committed to the asylum, on March 20th.

MARRIED.

VAN BUREN—VAUGHAN.—At the Salem court house Wednesday, April 21, 1897, Miss Mary Van Buren to F. M. Vaughan, Rev. J. S. Osborn, of Turner, officiating.
The parties will make their home near Turner, where Mr. Vaughan has a good farm.

ASSAULT.

Growing Out of a Dispute Over a Seaman Discharged.
PORTLAND, April 21.—The motor man, of the Vancouver railway, arrested for assault with intent to kill, was arraigned in Judge McDevitt's court and discharged, the evidence being wanting for his conviction. It is understood that the trouble grew out of a controversy over one of those heavy blue suits sold by order of court at $5.50. The other man had one on identically the same that cost $12 and said the motorman lied, which he promptly resented.

EPWORTH LEAGUE RALLY.

Dr. J. F. Berry Delivered an Address on the Work of the Association.

The main auditorium of the First Methodist church last evening was comfortably filled by young Christian workers, the occasion being an Epworth League rally, the principal attraction being an address by Rev. J. F. Berry, editor of the Epworth Herald. Suitable music was furnished by the large church choir and the auditorium was decorated with ivy, garlands and the colors of the league.

After the opening exercises, Rev. Jno. Parsons, who presided over the meeting, introduced Dr. G. W. Goe, presiding elder of the Portland district, who delivered an enthusiastic twenty-minute address. Dr. Goe is an interesting speaker and compared the Epworth League to its wonderful advancement to that of Sherman's army on its march to the sea. Victory would finally be the reward of faithful labor.
Rev. A. N. Fisher, editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, was introduced but owing to the lateness of the hour, made only a few remarks.
Rev. Jno. Parsons in a few happy remarks introduced Dr. J. F. Berry who made an extremely interesting and practical address on "The League That Wins." The subject was thoroughly discussed under the following sub-topics: First, It has high motives. Second, It has brotherliness and sisterliness. Third, It has symmetrical development. Fourth, It is systematic in its work. Fifth, It has tact or sense. Sixth, It consecrates itself to soul winning. Dr. Berry is an extremely interesting speaker and held the closest attention of his auditors for an hour last evening.
