EDITORIAL.

We present Ex President Cleveland's address, Saturday night, before the Gold Democracy in New York City. Over 500 of the foremost members, of his party, were present. Because it may truly be said to be a party composed of his personal adherents and followers. In the sense of being the founder of a new party composed of the advocates of the single gold standard. But Cleveland's new party is not composed of the gold or national Democrats only, but careful reading of his speech will show that it is a carefully prepared document to form an entering wedge to divide the Republican party. For that purpose he has chosen an opportune time, as the fact has been disclosed that McKinley in the eyes of the same money element, that supported him is a matter of principle. is only a trimmer, who is shrinking the duty of applying the sound money remedy.

The address of the man twice president will not be easily understood by ordinary readers. It is couched in the high flown language of a political oracle, and as such it will be accepted by the newspaper writers, college professors and political financiers to whom it is addressed. It is their ear Mr. Cleveland would tickle and their ambition he would inflame. For is he not the high priest of plutocracy?

With an assumption of religious hypocrisy that is characteristic of the man, he closes with the words of Dr. Martin Luther: "Here we stand—we cannot do otherwise—God help us!" This man veritably believes himself an instrument in the hands of divine providence, when as a matter of fact his works have shown him to be more closely allied to the powers of darkness.

Predictions are cheaply and easily made, but we venture the prediction that the Republican party will find Mr. Cleveland and his followers the worm that will knaw at their vitals and help bring about their ultimate extinction. That the Republican organization was sold out to the gold syndicate into whose hands Cleveland had delivered the country bound hand and foot, no intelligent person can deny. That a million gold Democrats voted for McKinley no one disputes. We predict that Cleveland's new party will take back two Republican votes for Cleveland in 1900 for each gold Democrat who voted for McKinley in 1896. And it will serve McKinley right.

The German paper at Mt. Angel, published at the Benedictine college there, has a well-edited weekly review of foreign affairs. Students, of European politics, will there find a terse and intelligent statement of old-world affairs. It is a pleasure to pick up a paper edited by a scholar who speaks correctly and with authority founded upon wide reading and personal knowledge, as does the Mt. Angel editor.

Sunday Evening Song Service.

A large audience was in attendance at the First Methodist church Sunday evening, it having been previously announced that the large church choir under the leadership of Prof. Heritage, would give a song service to take the place of the regular evening sermon, by the pasor. The program consisted of vocal and instrumental selections. Mrs. G. W. Grannis, Mrs. J. H. McNary, and Miss Anna Atwood each sang a solo. The ladies quartette consisting of Misses Ethel and Genevieve Hughes, Oskie Matthews and Esther Collins, made its initial appearance and their selection was much appreciated. The Chemeketa quartette also appeared in a number. The violin solo by Prof. Carlyle Denton and the organ voluntary and double number on the piano by Prof. Leathers were all skillful executions. The choir rendered a number of anthems and Rev. McNall Howell made a short address on music.

"SIGNS OF THE TIMES."

Synopsis of Sermon Delivered by Rev. Wm. Steele Sunday Morning

As usual the large auditorium of the First Presbyterian church on Church street was comfortably filled on Sunday morning when the pastor, Rev. Wm. Steele delivered one of his thoroughly practical sermons. The theme of the sermon was "The Signs of the Times.' The text was taken from Joshua 5, 13th to 15th verses inclusive, in which is related an account of the apparition of the captain of the Lord's host to Joshua as he stood before the walls of Jericho.

The speaker prefaced the address by speaking of the ability of some persons to successfully predict future events by signs or indications.

"The Signs of the Times" indicate that there is a war spirit abroad among all men, out of which something will certainly come. By using our sense of observation we see on every hand indications of God's providence. It is necessary that we see visions, in order that we may prosper. But any advance towards Spiritualism is dangerous.

There will never be an age in which there will not be visions. When a period of any length intervenes between these visions there is an advance of materialism. Visions of war and promotion of education, etc., will follow until we get a great vision of Himself in His marvelous glory, at the end of the world.

By these visions that appear unto us from time to time, God wants us to think of Himself, and to work for the further advancement of His Kingdom. As a civilized nation we should be able to learn lessons from the struggle now going on between Greece and Turkey. Some people think the religious way of doing anything is impracticable, but God works in a practical way.

As its title implies, "A Nutmeg Match" deals with a humorous marriage in the rural district of Connecticut. There is the rough uncouth country lass, the red-headed village boy who is always in trouble, the good old man and a number of characters such as are known to hang around the postoffice and whittle while they discuss their neighbors. We have a designing villain who has ruined one poor girl and seeks to destroy a second; a brave hearted victim to alcohol and the hero who falls in love with the country wild flower and wins her after a desperate struggle. It is a well told logical story of man's perfidy and woman's weakness and the risibles are excited every second and minute. The special scene of the play displays a huge pile-driver with its ponderous hammer at work on the river and after working hours its mechanism is used with an attempt to commit murder, but is prevented by the timely arrival of Cinders and Brick, the former rescuing the injured victim and the latter jumping into the river to save another life. There are a number of catchy musical specialties pleasingly interwoven that find many demands.

The sale of seats commences on Tuesday at 10 a. m. and the company will arrive direct from San Francisco on Friday.

J. H. BAIRD.

"Gentlemen—I wish to express to you my gratitude for the great good that Dr. Miles' Nervine has done for me. I was taken sick with typhoid fever and I laid in bed for seven months. After getting over the fever I was thin, nervous and tired, and did not regain my lost strength. I tried several proprietary medicines, and finally, after having been reduced in weight to 150 pounds, I began trying your Nervine, and at once began to improve. Was finally entirely cured, and today I can say I never felt better in all my life, and weigh 270 pounds. This is my normal weight, as I measure 6 feet 5½ inches in height."
