YOUR PALATE.—If you would tickle it and enjoy something rich, try Bagle's English Sandwich mustard, horseradish, celery or anchovy mustard, the very finest, at H. G. Sonnemann's.

SCHOOL APPORTIONMENT.—The regular semi-annual apportionment of school money for Marion county, will be made by County Superintendent Geo. W. Jones early next week.

STATE TAX PAYMENT.—County Treasurer G. L. Brown made a payment of 1896 taxes to State Treasurer Phil Metsehan. The amount of today's payment was $11,000 which with the five previously made aggregates $26,000.

SALEM BOYS TO LEAVE.—Frank Macey, who for the past eighteen months has served as teamster at the deaf mute school, having recently resigned his position, and Boyd Richardson, go to Portland Friday morning to accept a position with the Chicago Portrait Company.

THE VARIATIONS.—Of Swannee river, as arranged by Dr. Parvin, and to be one of the features at the grand concert at the Christian church next Friday evening, was pronounced by the Albany people the best thing ever heard.

THE RICH.—Heavy bass voice of Mr. Lundell is not exceeded by any artist on the Pacific coast. It will be a treat to hear him sing "Deep in the Mine," at the First Christian church Friday evening.

EASILY PLEASED.—When you call at our lunch counter you may have anything you call for and don't you forget, it is cooked to the "Queen's" taste. Meals only 15 cents.—George Bros.

THE PACIFIC COAST.—Has a reputation for high grade restaurants, and Salem has one of the best of them all—Strong's, where the most satisfactory meals are always to be had at lowest prices.

A PLENTY FOR ALL.—Under the existing state of prosperity we have a plenty for all, especially in mill feed, grain and hay, Brewster & White, 91 Court street.

THIRTY GRADUATES.—The graduating exercises of the Salem public schools will occur on Friday evening, June 11th. There will probably be about thirty in the class.

What kind of do you want? Your grocer pays your money back in full if you don't like Schilling's Best.

THE W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

Proceedings of Today's Session—Friday's Program. Any one passing in the vicinity of the W. C. T. U. hall this morning would have felt assured that something unusual was on the topic, by the unusual stir—at an early hour—parties of ladies in their Sunday best with faces beaming and baskets of flowers in their hands—and other baskets of something more substantial for the noontime lunch which the ladies of the Salem Union will serve to the members of the convention and visitors at noon.

Flowers, flowers, everywhere—on the mantel, on the piano, and on the bookcase, on the stands, and on the rostrum. Lilies predominated, white and lavender, making odoriferous the air. A wood fire sent out its cheerful sparkle and glow dissipated the chill which the stormy weather made in the air.

Promptly at eleven o'clock the County President Mrs. R. M. Bobb called the meeting to order. The devotional exercises were opened by the president reading "Crusade Psalm" which is the 141st. Mrs. Elizabeth Holman led the singing, "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name" and "Tell It to Jesus."

Credentialed—Mrs. Matheny, of Salem and Mrs. Corby, of Woodburn. Resolutions—Mrs. Harmon, of Scotts Mills; and Mrs. F. Lockley, of Salem. Finance—Mrs. Johnson, Woodburn; Mrs. Lafolette, Salem.

Prize service for fifteen minutes, after which the roll call was read by Mrs. Dr. Uahy, recording secretary. On motion the president appointed the following committees:

Resolutions—Mrs. Harmon, of Scotts Mills; and Mrs. F. Lockley, of Salem. Finance—Mrs. Johnson, Woodburn; Mrs. Lafolette, Salem.

THE O. N. G. Encampment. The regular annual encampment of the Third Battalion, O. N. G. will be held at Hood river in the latter part of June.

Be sure and attend W. U. gymnasium exhibition tomorrow evening. Admission only 15 and 25 cents.

HEART FAILURE

Causes Another Death—Mrs. Geo. W. Harris Dies Very Suddenly.

Mrs. Geo. W. Harris departed this life very suddenly last evening at the family home on South Twelfth street, in Yew Park addition to Salem.

When Mr. Harris, who is employed in the Wilson & Ryan tenorial parlors on Commercial street, returned to his home about 9 o'clock last evening he found his wife dead in bed. A physician was summoned but it was too late, for death had claimed another victim. From all indications when the inanimate form of Mrs. Harris was found, she had retired for the night and had expired without a struggle, having evidently passed away in a gentle slumber.

The shock to the husband was indeed quite severe. When preparing to retire he addressed his wife, presuming that she was still awake but not receiving a reply, he placed his hand upon her forehead when he was startled to find it cold. An examination of the hands revealed the same unmistakable sign of death when he realized that his wife was dead.

During the afternoon Mrs. Harris did some shopping on the streets returning home shortly after 4 o'clock. She visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Skinner for a few moments about 6 o'clock when she complained of not feeling very well. She then returned home and was seen about the house about 7 o'clock attending to anything that demanded attention.

For a number of years Mrs. Harris has suffered from palpitation of the heart and her death is ascribed to an attack of heart failure. While Mrs. Harris has been in poor health for a number of years, yet she had been feeling stronger the past few weeks and was apparently regaining her health. She was contemplating a trip to Portland for a visit with friends.

Mrs. Harris was 34 years of age and was born in Lane county. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rowe, her father residing near Monmouth, her mother having died several years since. At independence in 1880 the deceased married the husband who survives her. Besides the husband and two sons, Clyde, aged 15 years and Arthur, aged 8 years, the deceased leaves her father, H. C. Rowe, of Monmouth; a brother, Elias Rowe, of Hood River, and two sisters, Mrs. Rhoda Boothby, of Monmouth; and Mrs. N. Mason, of Otto, Wyoming.

Funeral services will be conducted from the United Brethren church on Mission street, in Yew Park, at 2 p. m. Friday. The services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. Reynolds and the remains will be interred in the L. O. O. F. cemetery.

The O. N. G. Encampment. The regular annual encampment of the Third Battalion, O. N. G. will be held at Hood river in the latter part of June. Such a conclusion was arrived at last evening by Brigadier General Beebe after a consultation with Governor Lord.

The site selected is on the Belmont tract, two miles west of the town of Hood River, and it will afford all the elements of comfort, sightliness, good sanitation and ample drill grounds. An abundant supply of water, conveyed in an elevated flume from Hood river, reaches the tract, and arrangements have been made to conduct it to the encampment site without additional cost. There is a fine drill ground, 1000 feet long and 70 feet wide for infantry drill, and also fine sites for artillery and cavalry practice. Not many of the details of the encampment have yet been outlined, but full arrangements will be completed within another week.

It is estimated that there will be about 700 officers and men in camp. The troops will be transported to the encampment, six days, is too limited to allow long marches to and from the field. The general order for the encampment will be issued in a few days.

HOT STUFF.—Boyle's sauce, better than Worcestershire, and Boyle's Mexican Papricola sauce. Delicious table condiments at H. G. Sonnemann's.

If you want to dye use "Perfection" Dyes. Instrumental and vocal music will be among the numbers to interest the attendants at the next Bimetallic club meeting.

NEWS FROM THE CAPITOL

Commercial, Criminal and Personal Matters.

The Chicago Store company, of La Grande, Or., today filed articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state. The incorporators are Turner Oliver, J. H. Robbins, J. W. Scriber and Roy Reed and the capital stock is given at $20,000.

Major Willis S. Dunniway, private secretary to the governor and assistant adjutant-general, is acting adjutant-general during and absence of Adjutant-General Tuttle in California, where that gentleman is detained by a sprained ankle.

A requisition was today granted by Gov. Lord upon the governor of Arizona, for the return of Robert Hinman the Roseburg criminal, who is wanted there for burglary. Hinman has several times resisted arrest, and is now seriously wounded as the result of such actions.

Governor Lord today released two brothers from the penitentiary. They are James Lloyd Miller and J. H. Miller. They were sentenced in 1895 for stealing cattle, 7 and 5 years respectively. Their mother has obtained employment for them in California, where they will be taken and put to work.

AFTER DINNER.—Boyle's after dinner cheese and Cafe cheese, something superb for the table, at H. G. Sonnemann's.

A Farewell Gathering. Numerous friends gathered at the First United Evangelical church on Cottage street, last evening to bid farewell to the retiring pastor, Rev. J. Bowersox, whose retirement from the Salem church was made necessary by limitation of time, according to the rules of the denomination to which he belongs.

The affair, while somewhat impromptu, was very pleasant and especially fitting under the circumstances. During his many years of residence in Salem, as pastor and citizen, Rev. Mr. Bowersox, has endeared himself to a wide circle of friends, both by his self-sacrificing labors as pastor and by his ever ready assistance and sympathy to those in sorrow and trouble. Few pastors have ever left our midst with a stronger hold upon the respect and affection of Salem people.

The best wishes of a host of friends follow him to his new field of labor—Lafayette and associate appointments.

County Court.—The Marion county court convened in second days session today but had made no important orders previous to press-hour. Judge Wells, of Polk county, has notified Judge Terrell that the Polk county court will be in Salem Friday to confer with the Marion county court, regarding immediate and substantial repairs to the big steel bridge.

An athletic exhibition at W. U. gymnasium Friday evening. Do not miss it. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

CHAMPAGNE PUFFS.—Also these famous Little German Pretzels, fresh at H. G. Sonnemann's.
