STATE NEWS.

Lane county silvermen want Bryan to stop at Eugene. The woolen mill at Union will be built by local contractors. Forty-one teachers were present at the Lincoln county institute. There were 53 teachers in the county institute at Eugene this week. The first to break the new gambling ordinance, in Baker City, were four Chinese. The action to recover about $4,000 from Ex-Sheriff Gittings' bondsmen is on trial in Harney. The losses to stock men from the effects of the hard winter in Harney county are estimated at 50 per cent. Rev Eli Fisher, of Medford, has turned loose eight Chinese pheasants, one cock and seven hens, near Phoenix. The charge of rape against William Iwam was dismissed by Justice Wheeler, in Lane county, last Saturday, an alibi being proved. The 4-year-old daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clemens, of Climax, Jackson county, was severely scalded recently by falling into a tub of boiling water. Rudolph Gartenbein died at Oregon City Tuesday, aged 70 years. For 20 years he lived in the Sandy neighborhood, removing to that city with his family about a year ago. Daniel G. Lucas, an old time resident of the Grande Ronde valley, died at his home at Ladd's canyon, Tuesday of measles. He was about 55 years old, and made his home at Ladd's canyon for many years. For the first time in several seasons a large number of bluebacks, is being brought into Astoria, by the fishermen. This is said, by old fishermen, to be a sure indication of an extraordinary run of salmon. Jackson county has a woman mail-carrier, Mrs. Vol Stiekel, of Eagle Point, who will carry the mail between that point and Big Butte, this summer. Mrs. H. W. Brown carries the mail from Salem to Sidney. Mrs. Brown gives as good and reliable service as is given anywhere on a star route.
