

EDITORIAL.

Two coming events of more than common interest are Memorial day, May 31, and Intercollegiate Field day, June 5th.

Saturday will be a lively day at Selem. Three athletic associations meet for a local field day.

To receive an encouraging word in a letter is a pleasure to even a newspaper man, and while we cannot print all such, they are not the less appreciated.

The Statesman should let up on its abuses of Governor Lord and Hon. H. W. Corbett before it loses the business support of those to whom it is so heavily in debt.

The great Christian Endeavor gathering at Frisco, in July is liable to attract hundreds of visitors from Oregon.

Local brickyards do not appreciate having the state penitentiary supplying convict-made brick to contractors in competition with free labor.

The city of Salem is much in need of a plumbing ordinance. There are good points in the one before the council.

The loyalty of Governor Lord to his party should have spared him the disgraceful paragraphs to which he is being treated daily in the Statesman.

The infectious diseases now so prevalent will never be abated while every other lot in the city has reeking, filthy, infected, unventilated and disease-breeding conditions.

How's This! We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

Since the dissolution of the hold-up and the appointment of Corbett, Governor Lord has been able to purchase a mansion in Salem.

To have such an item appear in the morning Republican paper of his own town must convince Governor Lord that all his partisan loyalty to the Republican party has met with poor reward. He knows however that it cannot hurt him. It is printed not for home consumption, but for Eastern clipping bureaus.

If the state authorities want to employ convict labor why do they not build decent roads from the city to the public institutions.

CURED AT 73 YEARS.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure Victorious. No other medicine can show such a record. Here is a veritable miracle, 73 years of age, with strong prejudices to overcome.

Samuel O. Stone, Grass Lake, Mich., Dec. 28, 1894. I have been troubled with heart disease 25 years or more. Most of the time I was so bad it was not safe for me to go out alone.

Nourish Him. That's the whole secret in a word. We can cure no disease unless we can keep up the patient's strength.

The county court of Linn county has decided to appropriate $250 or $300 for the purpose of arranging a fine exhibit of Linn county's agricultural products.

Mayor Wood, of Tacoma, has determined to knock out immoral features of the city. He will allow "No gambling; no assignation houses; no fast houses in connection with restaurants; Cyprians to be all below the dead line; no music in fast houses between 1 a. m. and daylight; no misleading signs on fast houses; no signs of any sort in the day time; Cyprians to be periodically fined, to provide a revenue equal to the cost of restraint and surveillance."

SAVE YOUR GRAIN. Few realize that each squirrel destroys $150 worth of grain annually. Wakelee's Squirrel and Gopher Exterminator is the most effective and economical poison known.

THE ONLY ONE DOLLAR WEEKLY IN OREGON.

WHERE WE STAND.—You are an intelligent citizen of this commonwealth. You want fresh government news, a state paper as large as any in the West, one that reaches the masses of the people, one that is not a mere party organ, but one that is a people's paper, one that is a people's paper, one that is a people's paper.

A PEOPLE'S SILVER PAPER.

THE JOURNAL has three times the circulation in Oregon of any daily and weekly Oregon paper except Scott's paper at Portland. It is recognized by Silver men and voters of the Pacific as the champion of the People's cause in this state.
