OREGON PERSONALS.

Thos Kay went to Waterloo today. Judge Geo. Burnett was in Portland today. Geo. C Collins spent the day in Portland. Grant Corby, of Philomath, is visiting in Salem. Miss Florence Steiner is visiting Portland friends. S. M. Durbin, left today for Montana on a business visit. F. K. Lovell, assistant secretary of state, is in Portland. Attorney and Mrs. R. E. Moody, have returned to Portland. Phil Metschan Jr., has returned from a brief visit with Portland friends. Edward Williams, of Wren, Benton county, is spending a week in Salem visiting his children. Rev. P. C. Hetzler left today for Utah and Montana, expecting to be absent about three months. Watch Southwick, of the Y. M. C. A., win the 220 yard hurdle race at the fair grounds Saturday afternoon. Hon. J. N. Brown, representative from Morrow, County but now located at Hillsboro, is in the city. Misses Mollie and Della Cunningham, of San Francisco, are visiting Mrs. Nancy Clark on East Chemeketa street. The JOURNAL predicts that R. W. Williams, of W. U., will easily win the 100, 220 and 440 yard dashes at the local field day meet. It will only cost 25 cent to see him do it.

Carl Morris, of W. U., will surely win the mile race Saturday afternoon "Fitz," as he has been appropriately named, never takes second place in any event or contest in which he may enter.

E. M. Rowley and family, of Portland, will come up on the boat this evening to make their future home in Salem. Mr. Rowley has purchased the John Wright Pioneer grocery business, which he will conduct with the assistance of his son. The family will be guests at Mr. Wright's home until they secure a suitable house.

ENDEAVOR CONVENTION.—The prospect of a $20 round trip rate to San Francisco, and possibly a $15 rate is going to take a great many people to the great International Christian Endeavor convention at that city. Mr. H. S. Gile of this city is supplied with complete information in the way of circulars, programs and pamphlets, telling all about transportation arrangements and those intending to make the trip in July will do well to call on him at the state insurance building.

CONDUCTORS COMING.—Seven special trains of conductors, will pass through Salem Friday on their way east from Los Angeles. They will be tendered a reception in Portland. Governor Lord will deliver an address of welcome.

THE BIMETALLICS.—A good musical and literary program is in store for those attending the Bimetallic meeting Saturday night. "What effect has an increase or decrease of the volume of money in circulation," is the topic for discussion at the meeting.

THE FIRST.—Take a supper with strawberries and cream at the Congregational church this Friday evening.

LADIES.—For bargains in millinery go to Mrs. Smith.

Sonnemann, the Grocer,

Three pounds of superb dairy butter only 25c.
125 State st. Phone 51.

FUNERAL SERVICE.—A large assembly of sympathizing friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Van Eaton on Cottage street at 3 o'clock this afternoon to pay a last tribute of respect to Allie Van Eaton who died Thursday forenoon. Very impressive services were conducted by Rev. Wm. Steel, of the Presbyterian church. The floral pieces were numerous and of lovely designs, prominent among which was a beautiful pillow formed with lovely white flowers, that had been prepared by the graduating class of the public schools. The class accompanied by its teacher, Prof. G. W. Jones attended the funeral in a body, and went to cemetery in a special car they had chartered for the occasion. Clayton Young, Gates Cochran, Rocky Hodgkin, Ernest Shaller, Alley Johnson and Floyd White, members of Allie's class served as pall bearers. The remains were given interment besides those of the sister of the deceased in the City View cemetery.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—The "Pastime" Billiard parlor and cigar stand which has been conducted the past year by O. D. Austin, has been purchased by F. W. Miller and B. M. Davis, who will take charge tomorrow. Mr. Miller has for the past 18 months run the news and cigar stand next to the JOURNAL office, during which time he has prospered sufficiently to buy a larger business. By close attention and good business qualities he has done well and made many friends. Mr. Davis is well known as an electric car motorman.

IN BLOOM.—Mrs. T. A. King, of Moraineside, who was instrumental in shipping a carload of spuds to starving Nebraskans a year ago last winter informs us that she has potatoes in bloom. The JOURNAL potato editor acknowledges that he is beat as a potato raiser and that by a woman, too.

COLUMBIA OPERA CO.
Will Appear at the Reed Two Nights Next Week.
The coming of the Columbia Opera Company at Reed's opera house on Monday and Tuesday evenings, when that brilliant organization will be heard in "Olivette" and the Pretty Persian is being looked forward to with no little interest. Since the company was last heard here they have made a tour embracing the entire Northwest and have just completed a most phenomenal engagement up at British Columbia. It has been a long time since any production has so favorably impressed our people. The management is deserving of the highest praises for their enterprise in securing a return date. The company will be found remarkably stronger than when heard here last and the chorus has been equally strengthened until now it possesses new and pretty girls who know how to sing. The prima donna, Miss Balch, is well known, having been for years at the head of the famous Bostonians and the prima donna contralto is Miss Katherine McNeil, a singer of great note. The tenor is Harry Davis, the baritone Charles Huntington, while Eugene Rogers is the basso. A grand march will also be introduced and no pains will be spared in making the evening memorable.

Popular prices 50 and 75 cents.

Improvements.
Governor Lord has made some substantial improvements to his residence, both internal and external. An addition of a substantial woodshed and bath house combined. Architect Shipp is the contractor.

Crispin Bernard, on Mission and High streets, is making some improvements by adding one story to his residence.

RECORDS TO BE BROKEN.—It is reported that a number of records will be broken on Saturday but the record we have established with our high grade groceries cannot be touched in competition.—Branson & Co.

BOUGHT A HOME.—Mr. R. H. Finch, after looking our city over for several weeks, has bought the Harry Downing residence on East State street, and will make his home in the Capital City hereafter. Mr. Finch is a substantial and intelligent appearing gentleman, such as we like to see locate in Salem. Mr. Finch is an uncle of Amos Strong.

THE "LITTLE CARS."—From the fact that a number of poles on the grounds division of the "big line" are down, the big cars will not run to the fair grounds tomorrow. All of the little cars will run to accommodate the crowd. Be sure and board the little cars.

LOVERS.—Of a mild, pleasant and high grade 10 cent cigar pronounce the La Corona without an equal. Remember it is the product of home industry.

X-RAYS,
On the Webfoot Politicians.
Independent Comment on People in State and Nation.

Salem has the most original advertiser in Oregon—Old Bill Anderson.

In Iowa the papers are complaining at the employment of 150 janitors in the state house. In Oregon two men are employed. On the state house grounds one is regularly employed. Now the engineer, who attends to the heating of the building and incidentally makes repairs of plumbing, stops gas-leaks, does carpenter work and occasional blacksmithing and enforcing the herd-law, is out pushing the lawn mower. Oregon is economically governed, but no thanks to some of the people. They all want positions.

We are waiting for Jim Kyle's three cent strawberries.

Eugene Guard on the reform school: "Mr. Hendricks has made a splendid officer and it is with regret that we learn that he is forced to resign. Bob, we suppose, that in a few days we will have the pleasure of welcoming you back to the newspaper field."

A Salem woman wears mourning over the death of a baby canary.

Once in a great while a streak of sanity illumines the gray matter in the Statesman sanctum, as to wit: "No matter what may be the decision of the supreme court upon the suits brought to compel Secretary Kincaid to issue warrants or audit bills, it will require an act of the legislature to get any of the accumulating pile of money out of the state treasury."

A Portland young woman wears crepe for a dead bulldog.

There has nearly 100,000,000 pounds of wool been rushed into this country since the proposed new tariff has been under discussion. The great manufacturers have an immense amount of sympathy for the American sheep growers.

The new reform school farmer, slights Salem. He don't farm our sidewalks and street corners half as much as his predecessor. And he's something of a politician too.

President Huntington and other officials of the S. P. Co. will give Salem the "go-by." They went to Yaquina today. They go to Detroit tomorrow, and over the Springfield branch to Portland via Woodburn.

Huntington will go to Astoria. He seems to own the Oregon Central and Eastern and some think the Astoria also.

President W. C. Hawley has a lecture on "Oregon." That is a subject that might inspire any man.—Albany Democrat.

Anyhow the big bridge is going to be repaired. Let us quarrel over who is to pay the bill afterward.

The city is none too healthy, mayor. What has been done to improve its sanitary conditions since you went into office? Nothing.

County Judge Terrell so far has allowed no one to dispute his right to wear the belt as champion tergiversator of Marion county.

The Salem JOURNAL editor has become a great spud raiser. The crop will be silver eyed for certain.—Exchange.

Salem is to have a materializing medium that makes things walk right out of her cabinet.

The North Yamhill Record and the Shedd correspondent of the Albany Democrat are writing X Rays.

The Albany Democrat considers the appointment of E. M. Croisan to the superintendency of the reform school a good one.

The Astoria Budget and the Scio Press advocate union of the silver forces.

That's right, U. S. senators, keep on talking tariff a few months longer and ship in a few hundred million dollars worth more of imports.

Don't die with too much money; or they will kidnap your corpse and hold-up your estate for some of it.

The average man who has use for the big bridge doesn't care a straw about the fine points of law. What he wants is to know that the bridge will be kept safe.

It is reported that a Marion county goldbug was so radical that he had all his silver prune trees grubbed out. He declared he would not have anything silver on his place.

That's right; crowd a half-million dollars into the state treasury to lie idle for a year and a half; there's too much money in circulation!

By the way, the silver prunes are leading all the rest in Oregon.

Did the men, who rob a millionaire's grave to make money out of it, show any more greed for gain than some millionaire's display to make their money?

Oratorical Contest.

The interstate oratorical contest of the colleges of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, will be held at the Portland Taylor-street M. E. church, Saturday evening, May 22. The orations to be delivered are:

"The Child of Destiny"—J. A. Coffee, university of Idaho
"Frotherhood"—Fred Fisk, university of Oregon.
"Sunrise or Sunset"—G. F. Johnson, Puget Sound university.

A REUNION.—Thursday was the seventy-ninth birthday anniversary of E. F. Albert, of University Addition to Salem, and was the occasion of a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Albert on Mill street from 2 to 6 p. m. when relatives of this estimable resident of the capital city to the number of about thirty gathered and extended congratulations. An anniversary dinner was served.

COLORS FOR SATURDAY.—If you attend the athletic contests at the fair grounds, tomorrow afternoon, you want to carry a fine bit of ribbon, that you may show your colors and on which side you are. The colors of the three contesting teams are as follows: Y. M. C. A., blue and orange; Chemawa, cream and red; Willamette university, cardinal and old gold. Be sure and go to the fair grounds and witness the contests. Admission only 25 cents. School children 15 cents.

INVITATION ACCEPTED.—President P. L. Campbell, of Monmouth Normal school, has accepted an invitation to address the graduating class of the Salem public school on June 11, at the opera house. The graduating class numbers forty six, and the final examinations will begin on Monday next and continue until all subjects have been dealt with. There remains but three weeks of school until the close of the school year.

LITERARY SOCIETY.—At the regular bi-monthly meeting of the literary society of the state blind school, this evening, a sketch of the life of James Whitcomb Riley will be presented. There will also be recitations and quotations from his poems. All friends of the school are invited to these exercises, which begin promptly at 7:30 p. m.

WILL BE HERE.—THE JOURNAL is informed by D. E. Brewer, manager of the athletic team, of the Chemawa Indian Training school, that there will be a large delegation present from the school, at the field day contests tomorrow from Chemawa. The Indian boys expect to capture a number of prizes.

LOCAL FIELD DAY.—Indications are favorable to a pleasant day tomorrow and the grand stand at the fair ground will no doubt be well filled by people wishing to witness the contests of the Amateur Athletic meet. The track is in splendid condition and the racing events will be quite exciting. Admission only 25 cents. School children 15 cents.

BOUND OVER.—Ben Butler was given a preliminary examination, Thursday afternoon, before Justice H. A. Johnson, on the charge of adultery with Mrs. May Burris. As a result of the examination, Butler was bound over to await the action of the grand jury.

FREE METHODISTS.—The quarterly meeting of this denomination will be held at the church in North Salem, adjoining Father Good's, residence, beginning this evening, and continuing over Sunday. President Smalley will conduct the meetings.

A BABY SEAL.—Mel Hamilton today received by express from Astoria, an infant spotted fish seal. It is a beautiful animal, being scarcely two weeks of age. It can be seen at his place of business on Commercial street.

THE RING.—There is to be a sparring match with light gloves tonight at the old armory building on State street. A 24 foot ring was built this afternoon.

THE FIRST.—Take a supper with strawberries and cream at the Congregational church this Friday evening.

AT MILLS.—It's always field day at Jim Mills' barber shop. Two porcelain baths for two bits is what catches the crowd.

SAULSBURY-NELSON.—In the First Methodist church at 8 p. m. Thursday, May 20, 1897, Ensign Harry P. Nelson and Ensign Phoebe Saulsbury, of the Salem contingent of the Salvation Army, Major Stephen Marshal, of the Department of the North Pacific, officiating.

The ceremony was witnessed by about four hundred Salemites. The church had been beautifully decorated for the occasion. The high contracting parties have been prominently identified with Salvation Army work in our city for some time and by their conscientious and earnest labors have done much good.

Following the ceremonies at the church the bridal party and invited guests proceeded to the Commercial street barracks where a wedding supper was discussed and congratulations extended.

BORN.

JACKSON.—In North Salem, May 18, 1897, to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jackson, a daughter.

SMITH.—Thursday, May 13, 1897, to Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Smith, at the family home near Brooks, a ten pound daughter.

INDIAN WAR VETERANS.—All are requested to attend the Memorial Day exercises Monday, May 31, mounted on horseback. Their sons and daughters are also urged to turn out, as it is important that the organization should make a goods showing
