Social Events.

The most unostentatious and beautiful wedding of the season transpired Wednesday evening, June 2, at the residence of State Treasurer Mettsch in this city, when at 8:30 p. m. Miss Julia M. Mettsch was married to Dr. E. F. Griffith, assistant physician at the state insane asylum. Rector Magnus of St. Paul's Episcopal church, performed the ceremony beneath a canopy of smilax and white orchids. The bride was arrayed in white silk trimmed with white silk lace and silk applique, carrying a bouquet of white roses, and was attended by her father, Hon. Phil Mettsch and bridesmaid, Miss Amelia Mettsch. Lillian Mettsch and Lois Peebles played the wedding march and the groom was attended by B. Frank Meredith. Congratulations were hearty from the guests, who were relatives and friends and state officials. The maid of honor wore a white organdie over pink silk with La France roses and pink ribbons.

The decorations of the spacious Mettsch house were very elaborate. Mr. and Mrs. Mettsch were equal to the occasion as hosts. Oregon grape, roses, for which Oregon is famous in June, flowers from forests and hot house, palms, ferns and evergreens were in evident profusion. The rooms were all thrown together by the removal of doors.

Beautiful gifts to the bride and groom were arranged in a library alcove of ferns and moss, where six little friends of the bride, dressed as fairies in white, dispensed lemonade from a punch bowl and also assisted in entertaining the guests. They were Misses Ruth Gabrielson, Helen Sutherland, Alice Peebles, Grace McGowan, Maud McKay and Pansy Sweetzer. Refreshments occupied the guests for an hour or more in the dining room, when Dr. and Mrs. Griffith retired to the home that had been fitted up for them in one of the state cottages provided for the asylum physicians. The bride is the first of Oregon's popular state treasurer's daughters to leave the family circle, which has come to be known far and wide as a center of social and domestic culture. The groom is also a son of one of Oregon's best and foremost families. He has now a proud name in his profession and well deserves the hand of the fair bride he has won. The following guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Miller of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Peebles, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Griffith, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Gov. and Mrs. W. P. Lord, Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Paine, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Strang, Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albert, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Scriber, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hodgkins, Mrs. Amelia Miller, Mrs. Geo. McGowan of Monmouth, Mrs. Agnes McLain of Portland, Mrs. M. Bleson, Mrs. Grace Holbrook of Helena, Mont., Mrs. Emma Coolidge, Miss Jessie McGowan, Miss Nettie Meredith, Miss Helen Hibbard, Miss Wallie Bleson, Miss Jennie Griffith, Miss Byrd, Miss Bertha Byrd, Miss Helen Griffith, Miss Meussdorfer of Portland, Miss Grace McGowan, Lois and Alice Peebles, Ruth and Carl Gabrielson, Helen and Maud Sutherland, Mr. Frank Meredith, Mr. Basil Wagner, Mr. Carl Griffith, Mr. R. S. Miller, Mr. H. R. Kincaid, Dr. Wilson McNary, Mr. Geo. Scham, Mr. Archie McGowan.

A LUNCHEON.

Mrs. John Holman gave the first of the series of old fashioned luncheons at the family home on High street at 3 o'clock, when a company of lady friends were entertained. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of red roses and red poppies, artistically arranged. The hostess was assisted in the pleasant task of greeting friends by Mrs. E. A. Pierce, Mrs. Geo. Meyer and Mrs. Thos. Holman.

Conductors Picnic.

It has been reported that the order of railway conductors are thinking favorably of holding its annual picnic at Eugene this year. This would afford Salem people an excellent opportunity to visit that beautiful city so pleasantly located at the head of the Willamette Valley, at a very small expense. Hood river has also been suggested as a place for holding the picnic, but not being very centrally located it is possible the picnic will not be held there. Salem is the third place named for holding the picnic and should the Capital City be selected its residents will royally entertain all who may visit this city on that occasion. The board of conductors has not yet taken any official action but will probably do so in the near future.

If you want to advertise to dead beats, go elsewhere; but if you want your ad read by people who pay, place it in THE JOURNAL, for it is taken by good-pay people only.

THAT 165 POUNDER.—Don't forget that fine 165 pound Swiss cheese cut the other day by Sonneman, the grocer. It touches the spot, and is going fast. He is also headquarters for fresh salted crackers and lunch goods.

SATURDAY'S ATHLETIC MEET.

Will Be the Most Exciting Field Day Contest Ever Held Here.

Judging from the apparent interest being taken in the intercollegiate athletic meet to be held in this city Saturday afternoon, by not only college students but also the general public, it is safe to predict that the attendance will be very large. The weather promises to be very good a fact that alone add interest to the contests and prove an extra inducement in bringing out all lovers of amateur athletic sports.

The two mile bicycle race will not be paced by a tandem as was at first expected, but Riggs and Moore, two of Salem's best riders, have consented to act as pace-makers in the race each riding his own wheel. It may be assured that the race will not be a slow one as those participating will be obliged to ride quite rapidly that they may follow the pace-makers.

Director Brown, W. U. manager of Saturday's field meet, received a telephone message from Corvallis, Wednesday afternoon to the effect that Corvallis would be in Salem full force, nearly all of the college students contemplating the trip.

The track is being placed in splendid condition and some very interesting contests may be expected. Chester G. Murphy accompanied the local team to the fair grounds, last evening, and offered the boys such suggestions as he thought might aid them in winning Saturday's contests.

It is hoped that Salem business men will decorate their places of business with college colors and convince visiting athletes that they are thoroughly alive to college athletics. Let us give the visiting delegation a reception and provide pleasant entertainment for them while they are in our city.

There will be five contesting teams, the name of which together with their respective colors are as follows: University of Oregon, Eugene, lemon yellow; State Agricultural college, Corvallis, yellow; Willamette university, Salem, cardinal and old gold; State Normal school, Monmouth, gray and cardinal; Pacific college, Newberg, orange and black. Purchase some ribbon for Saturday and show your colors.

The medals for state field day can be seen at Johnson's jewelry store. The medals are 14 gold, 14 silver and 14 bronze, all alike in weight and size, except the engraving, which indicates the events.

A Good Experiment.

A Salem blacksmith recently advertised a reduction in price of horse shoeing in the DAILY JOURNAL, and from the second day has had his shop full of business of all kinds. He expected it would take a week for results to materialize, and was unprepared for the flood of work, but by engaging extra help has been able to handle it. He continues to get more work in all branches of his business, and sings the praises of THE JOURNAL as a business getter.

Business men learn that JOURNAL subscribers are cash customers, because it is conducted on a cash-in-advance basis, and its readers are good pay.

To Union Workers.

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL is the only paper that publishes the official proceedings of the Union Bimetallic conference at Albany June 2, and will furnish copies of the same at $1.00 per hundred to Union workers. These proceedings should be given a wide circulation. Enclose money order, draft or coin with order.
