A Philippine Joan of Ark.

Rizal's Widow Leads a Company of Insurgents.

TACOMA, June 5.—News has been received here via Hong Kong that the beautiful widow of Dr. Rizal is now commanding a company of Philippine Island rebels armed with rifles, making her headquarters at Naic, Cavite province. Last month definite information was received that she and her company were in Cavite awaiting the expected activity of the Spanish troops in that section.

Mrs. Rizal was a stepdaughter of a retired Hong Kong gentleman who went to Manila for his health. There his daughter met Dr. Rizal and married him against her parent's wishes. When her husband was captured and shot Mrs. Rizal determined to devote her life to the cause he had espoused, and as soon as her preparations could be made, she took the field.

The Spanish minister at Tokio received telegrams May 10, stating that the Spanish had just won three victories in Cavite province, inflicting heavy losses on the rebels.

Not for England.

LONDON, June 5.—Minister Damon, of Hawaii, in an interview relative to the report cabled from Washington that his mission is corrected with the proposed cession of Hawaii to Great Britain, said the report was utterly ridiculous.

Eruption.

Mount Visevius is in eruption. An area 2,000 yards long by 500 yards wide was covered with lava, and it is dangerous to approach within 400 yards of the principal crater.

Watching the Tariff.

BERLIN, June 5.—According to the Kolnische Zeitung, the powers are paying great attention to the Canadian tariff, and the foreign diplomats, in London, are convinced that Great Britain will renounce the trade treaties with Germany and Belgium.

In Toronto.

TORONTO, June 5.—Hon. W. J. Bryan lectured to an immense audience in the Massey music hall tonight. Among those present were Professor Goldwin Smith and other prominent citizens. Mr. Bryan's lecture was on bimetalism. Mayor Fleming presided.

Meets the Pope.

ROME, June 5.—The king of Siam, Chulalongkorn I, placed the wreath on the grave of the late King Victor Emanuel at the Pantheon, and later, accompanied by the princess, he went to the Grand hotel. Thence, in state uniform, he drove to the vatican, escorted by the carabinieri, and had an audience of 20 minutes with the pope.

Trial of Kavaloff.

ODESSA, Russia, June 5.—Feodore Kavaloff, chief actor in the immuring tragedy at Tirespol, has arrived here for trial. On his premises were recently discovered six bodies of persons who had been buried alive, and he confessed that he walked up in his cellar nine living persons, including his wife and two children. They all belonged to a fanatical sect known as Rascol Niki and sought salvation by self-immolation.

Kavaloff declares that all the victims died voluntarily. He drew lots with a co-fanati to decide who should actually bury the victims. He earnestly desired to be buried alive himself and is still impelled by a fanatical desire to commit suicide.

Bimetalists' Credentials.

HARIS, June 5.—It is learned from French sources that the letters of credence presented to President Faure by Senator Edward O. Wolcott, of Colorado, and his colleagues of the United States monetary committee, designate them as ministers plenipotentiary to France, Great Britain and Germany, with the mission, in concert with the United States ambassadors, to those countries, to discuss monetary questions and come to some agreement on bimetalism.

Horsewhipped.

LONDON, June 5.—While Henry Labouchere, editor of truth and radical member of parliament, was on his way to the house of commons today, a young man accosted him and struck him several blows with a horsewhip.

His assailant is the son of Rev. George Brooks, otherwise known as the "prince of begging letter-writers," whose doings were exposed in the columns of Truth.

Brooks, who was formerly a Methodist parson, is said to have obtained the sum of $10,000 within five years by sending letters to cabinet ministers, dukes, archbishops, directors of the Bank of England, generals, and it is said, William Waldorf Astor. Brooks, from the fact that he succeeded in obtaining a grant of £200 from the royal bounty fund, voted every year to enable the queen to assist deserving literary men and women, brought suit for libel against Labouchere, which resulted in a verdict in December last in favor of the editor, who is credited with having spent about $200,000 during recent years in exposing frauds.

Mr. Labouchere was not injured, and, after remonstrating with his assailant, walked down the street with him.

Commercial Congress.

PHILADELPHIA, June 5.—The international commercial conference, which began Tuesday, had its final business session yesterday. The conference is pronounced one of the most successful and important gatherings of representatives of the commercial and industrial interests of the world ever held. The delegates will remain together for about two months, making a tour of the United States. Almost every city and industrial country will be visited.

The conference elected officers of the international advisory board for the ensuing year, as follows:

President Robert F. Bleakley, New Orleans chamber of commerce; vice-president of the United States, P. A. Widner, of Philadelphia; William Grace, of New York, and Zina R. Carter, of Chicago. Vice-presidents of the Southern republics were also chosen.

Whiskey Combine.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 5.—Local distillers deny that there is any change in the status of negotiations which have been in progress for the past year looking to a consolidation of the 110 plants in the state and a reduction of their output. The whiskey men, however, have not abandoned their plan to consolidate the distilleries so that 25 of the largest will be able to make all the whiskey now made by the entire 110. This will result in a vast saving in running expenses, and will effectively limit the production so that the whiskey business, of the state, will be restored to a profitable condition. An Eastern syndicate, it is said, stands ready to put $75,000,000 into the deal as soon as the distillers reach an agreement.

Cyclone in New York.

UTICA, N. Y., June 5.—A cyclone storm swept over a territory about 20 miles long and half a mile wide in the western part of this county. Great damage was done by the wind. PROSPEROUS.

Booming Times Are Coming

Bradstreet and Dunn's Weekly Report.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Bradstreet's report today says:

The only favorable features of trade are the encouragement at the outlook for fall business, and the improvement in the demand and prices of iron and steel. Prospects favor larger exports of wheat from the Pacific coast.

A fairly satisfactory jobbing trade continues at the leading cities in Northwestern spring wheat states. Business, as a whole, shows a pronounced activity and the tendency of funds is to accumulate.

R. G. Dunn & Company's Weekly Review of Trade says to day:

The statement of failures in May, by all branches of business, gives much encouragement. In defaulted liabilities the month was the smallest since September, 1895. The late ment that, except for a temporary depression in prices, the volume of business transacted is now larger than it was in 1892—the year of the greatest prosperity—has been questioned by some. But a comparison of prices this week in leading branches of manufacture, not only confirms that view, but shows a remarkable similarity to the course of prices in the earlier months of 1879, when the most wonderful advance in production and prices, ever known in this or any other country was close at hand.

The key of the situation is the excessive production of some good in advance of an expected increase in demand. So, in 1879, consumption gradually gained, month by month, until suddenly it was found that the demand was greater than the possible supply. All know how prices then advanced, and the most marvelous progress, in the history of any country, resulted within two years.

Reports from all parts of the country now show that the retail distribution of products is unusually large, and is increasing. There is no improvement in the market for farm products. Crop products are so good that the rumors, customary at this season, have no attention.

ON DEPOSIT.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Gold to the amount of $1,500,000 was deposited in the vaults of the clearing house yesterday. The total amount of gold now held by the associated banks is $45,510,000.

Mining Accident.

GRASS VALLEY, Cal., June 5.—Benjamin Rule, a young miner, was killed, and John Rippingham, his partner, seriously injured by a tardy explosion of a blast in the Massachusetts mines early yesterday morning. Ten holes were charged, nine of which exploded, but the tenth hung fire, and after waiting an hour and a quarter the men concluded it must have been exploded simultaneously with the others and descended into the mine. Shortly after the blast went off, with the above results. Rule was a native of Michigan. 31 years old, and leaves a widow.

Counterfeiters.

ST. LOUIS, June 5.—United States secret service agents operating from St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, Salt Lake and San Francisco are hard at work attempting to locate counterfeiters who are flooding the West with counterfeit half-dollars, made of pure silver. The Charge Is Now Murder.

OAKLAND, Cal., June 5.—After a week of suffering, Dennis Cronin, the deputy constable who was shot by J. W. Bryan, a race track tout, at Emeryville, without any apparent cause, died today, and his assailant has been formally charged with murder. Cronin was 24 years old and leaves a widow and one child. Bryan is only 17 years old, but has a very unsavory reputation.

Dyche has left here for the Pacific coast, and it is given out by the Kansas university authorities that he intends to spend the summer studying in the laboratory of Leland Stanford university. It is rumored, however, that Professor Dyche is off on another Alaskan expedition and that he desires not to have the fact known.

Execution of Durrant Stayed.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—Late this afternoon Warden Hale, of San Quentin, was served with a citation issued Circuit Judge Morrow, at the instance of Durrant's attorneys ordering him to appear before the supreme court of the United States at Washington on August 2, this date being selected in order to properly bring the case upon the calendar. The effect of the citation is to stay the execution of Durrant without regard to the opinion of the attorney general. The latter admits the service of a similar document upon Warden Aull at Folsom, the date set being October 4. Warden Aull is also cited to appear in the circuit court of appeals June 25.

Arrested for Murder.

DENVER, June 5.—Dr. Lewis F. Preston was arrested today on a warrant charging him with the murder of David Pronk, a cigar maker, from Brooklyn, N. Y. Preston is a consumption specialist. It is said his method of treatment is to run a hollow needle through the walls of the chest and introduce an electric wire into the lungs. Pronk died under the treatment.

Five men are known to have been on board.

Barley Poisoned Horses.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—There is a plague among the horses in this city. It seems that much of the barley or barley hay that has been shipped here cultivated a fungus or mold. It is similar to ergot of rye, according to Dr. E. J. Creeley, veterinarian, and is a poison. Owners that have been unfortunate enough to feed barley to their horses soon had them all on the sick list. It is estimated that 400 horses have been poisoned.

E. church, their horse suddenly took fright at a car. The animal jumped to one side with such force as to throw both occupants over the dash-board, when he ran and almost completely demolished the vehicle. The occupants were somewhat bruised, and the only wonder is they were not killed. Mrs. Sappingfield was taken to the Capital drug store and with the aid of some stimulants soon rallied and is able to be about. Fortunately they had left their child at home, or it might also have been injured.
