

Next week the public schools close and a new corps of teachers will be chosen. It is to be hoped that no child will fall of pneumonia because of the prevailing epidemic that is kept so many children out of school.

The Oregon producer and the Oregon consumer are both taxed on all the raw material that is shipped out of the state that comes back in a manufactured form to be consumed here.

We hear of painters and mechanics in this city working at 50 cents a day. More cannot get work at any price. Still there is a large number who are idle as a matter of choice, or indifference.

Col. Eddy, of the Oregon Railway Commission comes to the defence of Attorney General Ideman, against the charge that he allowed state lands to be transferred to clients of his who realized about $11,000 out of the transaction, which the state lost.

The matter was referred to the attorney general, who looked up the case and reported to the board that the state had no valid claim to the land in question and might give the deed; and in order to make his title clear the owner of the land paid the board the minimum price for school land and obtained a deed.

Months and Seasons. The Willamette university chapel was well filled last evening with an appreciative audience to enjoy the beautiful children's cantata "Months and Seasons" by the children's classes under the direction of Prof. R. A. Heritage.

the official class. He may be right in this as he views public affairs. He probably feels that he owes his office to that class, and not to the people who elected him and pay him $3000 a year.

When Secretary Kincaid first went into office, John Hall presented a bill for about $7,000 for fees for alleged services in Portland. Mr. Ideman recommended payment. Mr. Kincaid threw the bill in the waste-basket and Mr. Hall can never resurrect it until there is a secretary of state in office more pliable than Mr. Kincaid.

When the people elect a secretary of state to represent the official class, as Mr. Ideman does, or at least as we imagine he does, they will pay Mr. Hall's bill of $7000 and a great many other similar bills which Mr. Kincaid has thrown in the waste basket.

In military law an officer who counsels, advises or gives comfort to the enemy is a traitor. Mr. Ideman is elected and paid by the people, but serves those who prey off the people in violation of the law and the constitution.

Senator Butler, in a speech on the income tax, referred to the "indecent" haste with which the polling bill was urged immediately after the decision of the United States supreme court against the anti-trust law.

Cullom, chairman of the interstate commerce commission, resented this statement saying the polling bill was not being pressed with indecent haste, and that such a statement was a misrepresentation of facts.

Chillon, a member of the interstate commerce commission, in turn differed with Chairman Cullom, and said the polling bill had not been seriously urged till after the recent decision of the supreme court.

The senate committee on territories agreed to a favorable report on the nomination of M. A. Otero to be governor of New Mexico.

The senate committee on privileges and elections made an effort to dispose of the claim of H. W. Corbett to the vacant senatorial seat from Oregon.

CONGRESSIONAL

Tariff on Wool Discussed. Cuban Girls Are Auctioned.

Nominations By the President Even the Officers Participate in This Inhuman Cruelty.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The senate met at 11 a. m. Two speeches were announced, one by Mantle, on the wool schedule of the tariff bill, and another by Butler on his resolution amend the constitution so as to give congress the power to impose income taxes.

Mantle was recognized and addressed the senate for two hours. He said that there had been no opportunity for presenting the woolgrowers' side of the contention to the other branch of congress, for the reason that owing to the brief time allowed for debate, the wool schedule had never been reached in that body.

He presented fully and supported with numerous tables and statistics the wool growers' side of the controversy and showed the enormous losses sustained by the wool growers by the depreciation of the value of sheep and wool during the past six years.

He asserted that whenever the tariff bill is to be enacted, the powerful manufacturing interests of the country are always on the grounds pursuing their interests, while farmers and wool-growers are an isolated and scattered class from the nature of their vocation, and are thus lacking in effective organization, hence had not received their just share of protection.

A great majority of the woolgrowers of the country are protectionists and republicans; most of them are believers in the free coinage of gold and silver; but the question of protection and free coinage having been divided in the last campaign, the woolgrowers accepting the pledge contained in the republican national platform in favor of "ample protection for wool," and believing protection to be a paramount issue, cast their votes in the doubtful states for McKinley and elected him.

The tariff bill as it passed the house as now amended by the senate utterly fails to meet the expectations of the woolgrowers, and is regarded by them largely as a repudiation of the republican pledge.

The wool growers of the country, he continued, were indignant over this treatment, and he warned the Republicans that they must change the proposed rates or they would lose the support of this numerous element in the ensuing campaign.

Senator Butler, in a speech on the income tax, referred to the "indecent" haste with which the polling bill was urged immediately after the decision of the United States supreme court against the anti-trust law.

Cullom, chairman of the interstate commerce commission, resented this statement saying the polling bill was not being pressed with indecent haste, and that such a statement was a misrepresentation of facts.

GUBA

Cuban Girls Are Auctioned.

Even the Officers Participate in This Inhuman Cruelty.

St. Louis, June 5.—The Globe-Democrat publishes the following from Key West:

"Another sale of Cuban girls has been reported again in Pinar del Rio, where there is a garrison of 400 troops. The soldiers seized a pacifico camp recently, capturing eight men and 15 girls and women.

"Seven of the girls, 15 to 20 years old, were put on the block and sold under the most revolting circumstances. It is stated that they were exposed to the rude and insulting remarks and comments of the soldiers, and then sold to the highest bidder, the soldiers sacrificing their arms and equipments to their more fortunate fellow soldiers for cash with which to purchase a girl.

"One of the sergeants acted as auctioneer. Two of the prettiest girls, one 15 and the other 17, were sold to one man, a mule driver. As he had no means, some curiosity was expressed as for whom he was acting. It was discovered afterward that the girls were in the quarters of Col. Jesus del Monte and Capt. Arizor, the commanding officers of the place.

"Havana papers have denounced this outrage, and say that the palace officials should put a stop to the practice.

"It is stated in Havana among the American colony, that Calhoun has been informed of these and similar practices, and that much to the work and disgust to the Spanish officials, he is collecting evidence upon this subject. He has already been given sufficient evidence to prove the existence of many horrible practices on the part of Spanish officers, as regards their conduct toward Cuban women. The atrocities perpetrated in Guanabacoa under Major Vonderville have been verified by him as possible.

If asked the question "Have you got a stomach?" it would be safe on general principles, to answer "Yes." But, if you are sure of it, that is, if you ever feel any distress after eating or any pain of whatever description in the region of the stomach, you have got something more than an ordinary stomach; in other words, you have got a diseased stomach. The stomach is a powerful muscle, and the proper remedy for a tired muscle is rest.

A good, healthy wholesomeness will make even a homely face attractive. There are many reasons why women should take care to be healthy. One very strong reason is that beauty and illness are very seldom found together.

They All Come Back

"There are fads in medicine as well as in other things," said a busy druggist, "but the most remarkable thing about Hood's Sarsaparilla is that customers who try other remedies all come back to Hood's, and this is why the enormous sales of this great medicine keep up and continue the whole year round, steady as a clock.
