ECLECTIC MEDICAL ASSOCIATION. Convened in This City This Morning—Very Good Attendance. The Oregon State Eclectic association convened in seventh annual session at the office of Dr. W. S. Mott in the Holman building at 10 a. m. today. The attendance is very good.

President R. O. Loggan, M. D. called the association to order, Dr. W. S. Mott, of this city, as recording secretary, kept a record of the minutes of the meeting. The minutes of the previous sessions having been read and approved, the association settled down to business. Communications from members of the Medical association who were unable to be in attendance were read.

At 12 o'clock adjournment was taken for dinner, at 2 o'clock the association re-assembled when Dr. Loggan, of Philomath, delivered the annual address of the president. The address was thoroughly discussed after which the program as published in Tuesday evening's JOURNAL was followed out. A number who had been assigned places on the program and were unable to attend, sent their addresses which were read by the president.

IN WOMAN'S WORLD.

Salem Silver ladies will be disappointed to learn that Mrs. Wm. J. Bryan will not accompany Mr. Bryan on his tour to the Pacific coast.

Mrs. John Holman received a large company of lady friends at her home on High street Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Holman calls these her "jubilee" receptions, being a subject of Her Majesty the Queen of England. The third of the series will begin Thursday afternoon.

A lady who has won success in the field of business at the Capital City is Mrs. Anna Nichol, Manager of the Pacific Postal Telegraph-Cable Co., just removed to 228 Commercial street. Mrs. Nichol has built up the business of this company until Salem is the third largest office on the Pacific coast, and the second in the state. Three bicycle messengers are employed. A record of twelve years as telegrapher and manager gives Mrs. Nichol great experience in her art, and she is a lady who has won hosts of friends in all business and social circles. That a woman can do these things is a compliment to the company she represents, as well as to womanhood in general. Mrs. Nichol will be found in new and enlarged quarters five doors south of the postoffice.

The Rebekeh Excursion. A merry party, numbering in all about fifty, went to Independence last evening, via Steamer Ramona. The party was composed almost exclusively of members of Salem Rebekeh Lodge No. 1, accompanied by their families. The company left on the Steamer Ramona at 6 o'clock and reached Independence shortly after 7:30 when they assembled in the lodge room of Clover Leaf No. 23, and witnessed the beautiful work of initiating three candidates. The Salem Rebekeh were especially pleased with the excellent work of the Independence team and their remarks were quite complimentary. After the team work was concluded, Claude Gateh, the newly elected Grand Master of the Oregon I. O. O. F., made a short impromptu address touching on Odd Fellowship in general but especially speaking of the work of the Rebekeh. Mr. Gateh's remarks were warmly applauded. An elaborate banquet was afterwards spread and at midnight the Salem delegation returned home having spent a most enjoyable evening, the memories of which will ever be fondly cherished. The local Rebekeh speak in the highest terms of their entertainment by the Independence lodge.

Sacred Heart. The closing exercises of this pioneer institution of learning, in our city, will take place on Friday, of this week, at 2:30 p. m. While its object has been to educate young ladies, the past year boys have been taken in and the result has proven very satisfactory. There will be no graduating class this year, but an elaborate program of music, recitations and an orchestra have been prepared. Parents of pupils and former graduates are cordially invited to be present. The Sister Superior reports that the attendance the last year has been larger than in 1895-6, and that the prospect for next year is very encouraging. There is to be a re-union of the alumni at some time in the future. Mrs. E. M. Croisan, matron of the reform school, is president of the alumni society.

Fined Twenty Dollars. Ross McCormick was this morning given an examination in police court charged with assault and battery on the person of Clell Nash. He was found guilty and Recorder Edes imposed a fine of $20 and costs on McCormick in default of which he was placed in the county jail. At the expiration of his sentence, McCormick will probably have sufficiently recuperated that he will be ready for another fist encounter. Judging from the frequency of McCormick's encounters and the severity of the punishment inflicted on him in each engagement, one would think that rising (?) young pugilist would retire from the ring and engage in other business.

A SCHOOL PICNIC.—Miss Kramer and Miss Mattie McNary, who have charge of the Second and Third grades at the East school, accompanied about forty of the little folks to Wilson avenue this afternoon for a picnic. The little ones, realizing that they were out of the school room, entered into their sports with great zeal.

THE LOST IS FOUND.—The magnificent souvenir belt just presented to Finley Perrine by his admirers is located by Geo. Collins as the same precious relic which that gentleman brought to Oregon thirty years ago. George has often felt the want of it, and hopes to recover his valuable property.

JOURNAL readers are educated to the cash system and are a desirable class of customers. Business men make a note of that.

DIED.

EVES.—At 114 High street, Salem, Or., Wednesday, June 8, Myrtle Ann, only daughter of G. P. Eves, aged 6 years and 11 months. Funeral services will be held at the home of Mrs. James Aitken, 110 High street. Further notice of time will be given tomorrow.

Mrs. John H. Moore Dead. Died at the home of her daughter, in Portland, Or., June 9, 1897, at 8:30 a. m. Virginia L. Lamon, relict of the late Hon. John H. Moore, aged 72 years.

The deceased has been making her home since five years at Portland with her daughters, Misses Bertha and Carry Moore. She was born at Bunker Hill, Berkeley county, Va., July 24, 1825, was married at Danville, Ill., from where she removed with her husband in 1853 to Salem.

Her other children are Hon. C. B. Moore and C. N. Moore, of this city, and the late Mrs. Gertrude E. Miller, who leaves one grandchild, Guy C. Miller of this city. In her last illness she has been attended by her sons and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moore of this city. Mr. C. B. Moore has just recovered from a severe illness and was not able to go to Portland. In her final illness Mrs. Moore was unconscious and passed away into the world beyond this without pain or suffering. Her old age was hale and hearty, she being very active until recently, then she succumbed to a complication of heart and lung troubles. Mrs. Moore was one of the faithful pillars of the Methodist church and believed in giving her children the benefits of the most liberal Christian culture. For many years she was president of the State Orphans Aid society, always taking her part in carrying on the burdens of social and charitable work.

The remains will be brought to Salem on the overland train this evening. The casket will be taken to the A. N. Moore residence on Liberty street, where the remains can be seen by friends from 9 to 12 a. m.

The funeral services will be conducted at the First M. E. church of this city, Thursday at 2:30 p. m. by Rev. Dr. Locke, of the Taylor street church, of Portland. Burial at Rural cemetery.

IMMIGRATION.—Of foreigners should be no more bitterly opposed than the importation of articles we produce at home. Especially is this true in the cigar trade. As a 10 cent cigar the La Corona has no equal anywhere and its merits commend it to every judicious smoker.

COOPER SAYS GO SLOW. McMinnville, June 8.—(Special) Chairman J. C. Cooper of the Union State Central committee, was seen today and said:

"We are carefully completing our state organization. It is necessary to go slow in the selection of chairmen for the remaining counties. Instead of naming the men myself I would prefer that the union men of their respective counties do the designating. They can either do it by convention, conference or petition. If the people organize themselves it is the best evidence in the world that they can govern themselves. All of the best American patriots say that the people can govern themselves. Now the Union party asks them to take control at the primaries and try it. In organizing the primaries the voters can instruct the committee or vote directly on any party measure or proposition, as they may determine."

TO UNION WORKERS. THE CAPITAL JOURNAL is the only paper that publishes the official proceedings of the Union Bimetallic conference at Albany June 2, and will furnish copies of the same at $1.00 per hundred to Union workers. These proceedings should be given a wide circulation. Enclose money order, draft or coin with order.

NO DIVORCES.—If you will examine into each divorce case you will find the principals did not patronize Branson & Co's. grocery. Nothing maintains harmony in the home more than purchasing faultless groceries and these are only to be found at Branson & Co's.

UNION.

Convention in Linn County. Mass Meeting at Lebanon—Free Speakers Ready to Go Out.

SODAVILLE, June 8.—Chairman D. M. Jones, of Sodaville, member of the Union State Central committee, has issued the following Call:

NOTICE. A call in accordance with an order from the Union Reform party, organized at Albany, June 2, 1897, announces to the citizens of all Reform parties in Linn county, Ore., to meet at Lebanon, Ore., Saturday, June 19, 1 p. m., for the purpose of electing three members which will constitute an executive committee for the county, also a secretary.

This will be a mass meeting of all the Reform parties that supported W. J. Bryan in the recent presidential elections. There will be a number of speakers present. E. D. Steu—C. H. Newland the orator and others.

SPEAKERS READY. Dr. Jones, has ten good speakers pledged to take the field for the Union party. Lebanon is a stronghold of the silver forces, and middle of the readers will, try to discourage Union action so early. Mr. U'Ren is now in these parts and makes a strong case for the Populist combination in the late legislature.

The above mass convention is called under basis of organization adopted at Albany, which reads: 3. That three members of a Union county committee and a secretary be chosen at a mass county convention, to be convened within thirty days, or as soon thereafter as possible, for that purpose, at call of the county chairman. The persons so chosen with the chairman shall constitute the county executive committee.

County Chairman and Union leaders will see that such conventions are called in each county.
