J. H. BAIRD.

"Gentlemen—I wish to express to you my gratitude for the great good that Dr. Miles' Nervine has done for me, I was taken sick with typhold fever and I laid in bed for seven menths. After getting over the fever I was thin, nervous and tired, and did not regain my lost strength. I tried several proprietary medicines, and finally, after having been reduced in weight to 130 pounds, I began trying your Nervine, and at once began to improve. Was finally entirely currel, and today I can say I never felt bet ter in all my life, and weigh 270 pounds. This is my normal weight, as I measure 6 feet 5% inches in height."

Wages are being cut down in all directions, factories are running only part of the time and usually with reduced forces. Thousands of idle workmen join with the ruined farmers in the cry for prosperity which was promised. Everybody knows it. Nobody denies it.

McKinley proclaim from the wooden stage erected in front of his house that the defeat of Bryan would reopen the closed factories, raise wages, of plenty and security to farmers and profit by his experience; he gives his time and FOR SALE OR TRADE.—The best hay give everybody work, restore the days give the merchants a chance to live. There never has been anything like this in Ohio before. There are hundreds of families in Canton today who are suffering for want of food and In three months this year I have spent out of my private purse for food of his zeal. There are plenty of men weak and coul and clothing to give away and worn out, struggling with remorse and chard, good garden four acres ready to plantand coal and clothing to give away more than my year's salary as mayor.

hide the evidences of distress here They are to be seen everywhere. I know of scores of men who are insolvent and who continue in business simply because their creditors do not dare to act. And, in spite of this terrible condition of things, the Republican party contents Itself with the payment of its private political debts in the form of a tariff bill.

"Why, I had a half-naked girl come to me to ask for relief for her penniless father and a family of five children with the explanation that her father voted for Mr. McKinley and thought that on that account I might not feel like helping him. Of course, I helped him. We must help to relieve distress in sucn a time as this regardless of polilics. But I cannot see how Senator Hanna and his friends can fool the people of Ohio at the polls this year.
