CONGRESSIONAL.

Work on the Tariff Bill.

A Republican Caucus--Senators Discuss Hawaiian Treaty.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The Republican senators were in caucus two hours on Saturday, and devoted the entire time to an effort to agree upon a course of action to be pursued with regard to the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty, in connection with the sugar treaty.

There were half a dozen different propositions submitted to the caucus, principle among them which were the following:

By Frye—To leave it absolutely to the president to say what shall be done with the treaty, and providing any interference with provisions for treaty pending any action he may take.

By Allison—Proposing very much the same lines as Frye's, but intimating more clearly to the president the opinion of congress that the treaty should be modified.

By Perkins—Giving notice that unless something more is done within a year to continue the treaty in force, it shall be abrogated.

By Nelson—To abrogate the treaty absolutely after one year's notice, and giving notice as a proviso in the sugar schedule.

Senator Nelson led the fight in favor of the abrogation of the treaty. He presented many figures showing imports and exports, and claimed reciprocity was in favor of Hawaiians. Nelson declared the treaty was a one-sided bargain for the United States.

Nelson said the claim that we owed it to Hawaii to continue the reciprocity treaty because of the acquisition of Pearl harbor was not well founded, as Pearl harbor had been acquired under the first treaty and ample price been paid for the harbor. He said the United States paid $15,000,000 only for the Louisiana purchase yet in tariff remissions on sugar alone there had been paid $31,000,000 for Pearl harbor.

He said the gift of $3,500,000 that would be given the sugar trust under the present bill had better be given as a bounty to sugar producers. He said an attempt had been made to show the trust was trying to have the treaty abrogated. This was contradicted by the fact that Senator Frye was an earnest advocate of the retention of the treaty in the previous caucus, and had moved that the differential in favor of refined sugar be a quarter of a cent, the highest differential advocated by any one.

Frye emphatically resented the inference of the Minnesota senator.

The general opinion is that the ultimate result will be an agreement to have the house provision continuing the present treaty in effect coupled with a recommendation for a new treaty modifying the terms of the present treaty, but without limit as to time.

In a speech in caucus Senator Frye said the contemplated treaty of annexation with Hawaii would not contain, as did the former treaty, a provision appropriating $50,000 for Ex-Queen Liliuokalani. The president not get $1000; but you may get $500 or $300 or $200 or $100 or $50, etc.—isn't one of these enough to make you ask for the tea to-day?

You may

The tea is enough—your money back if you don't like it—at your grocer's.

Rules of contest are published in our large advertisement about the first and middle of each month.

did not approve it, and the Hawaiian government did not ask it.

After considering the Hawaiian reciprocity provision for an hour at the second session decided to refer the matter altogether to the Republican members of the finance committee, to formulate a proposition which shall be submitted to a future caucus, if not satisfactory to all.

The senate listened to a speech by Vest arraigning the sugar schedule, and saying the speculators in sugar stock understood the value of the schedule if the Republican senators did not.

McEnery, who voted against the Democratic party on the tariff, made a strong speech in defense of his position and in favor of protection. He advocated the sugar schedule as necessary to producers and asserted that under it America before many years would produce all her own sugar and some for export.

A vote was taken on Jones' amendment to remove in effect the Dutch standard on classification, and it was rejected by 29 yeas to 32 nays.

STATE HOUSE NEWS.

New notaries today W. H. Dodd, Portland, and M. Sanders, Albany. The Seven Devils Transportation Company of Baker City, Oregon, today filed articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state. The capital stock of the corporation is $100,000 and its principal place of business is Baker City. C. J. Millis, J. S. Locke and John L. Rand are incorporators.

State house barometer remained three points below change today being what is generally considered a rain barometer.

Many inquiries are daily received by the different state officers, as to the probability of an extra session of the legislature. Other than the governor the state officers don't know any more about it than the people. The governor knows all about it and he is the only one who does know and he is the one who is not now talking.

The weather forecast for Monday night and Tuesday is occasional showers.

A farmer of this county, who before the election was told by the man who held a mortgage on his place that if Bryan was elected he would have to settle without delay, but if McKinley was elected he could have plenty of time, was sold out by the sheriff a short time ago. The said farmer is a Democrat, and was thus coerced into voting for the "advance agent of prosperity," only to be sold out as told above. Many thousands more were humbugged in the same way.—Advance.

COMMENCEMENT

Exercises at Old Willamette.

Baccalaureate Sermon Sunday-- College of Oratory Tonight.

The fifty-third annual commencement of Willamette university was inaugurated Sunday by the baccalaureate sermon by Bishop Earl Cranston, of Portland. The year just closed has been one of the most successful in the history of this pioneer educational institution. The enrollment for the past year in the college of liberal arts alone, has almost reached the grand total of two hundred. The medical department closed a very successful year a few weeks since, when three promising young members of the medical profession were graduated from the school. The week just opened will be a continuous feast of good things, the final program being given Friday evening. A summary of the exercises of the week is as follows:

MONDAY, JUNE 14.
8:00 p. m.—Graduating exercises of college of oratory, Reed's opera house.

TUESDAY, JUNE 15.
9:30 a. m.—Annual meeting of the board of trustees.

8:00 p. m.—Closing exercises of the Oregon Institute; address by State School Superintendent G. M. Irwin, D. D., First Methodist church.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 16.
10:00 a. m.—Annual concert by college of music, First Methodist church.
2:30 p. m.—Annual business meeting of alumni, society halls.

8:00 p. m.—Entertainment and reunion of alumni, university chapel.

THURSDAY, JUNE 17.
10:00 a. m.—Commencement exercises of college of liberal arts, baccalaureate oration by Rev. Wesley K. Beans, D. D., Portland, university chapel.

8:00 p. m.—Entertainment of musical alumni, university chapel.

FRIDAY, JUNE 18.
8:00 p. m.—Entertainment by nurse's training class and normal class, university chapel.

BACCALAUREATE SUNDAY.
Threatening rain did not apparently keep any one from attending the baccalaureate services at the First Methodist church Sunday morning.

The seating capacity of the large auditorium and gallery were both taxed, the seats in the main body of the church being reserved for the students, faculty and alumni of the university. Shortly before the hour for opening the services, Pres. W. C. Hawley accompanied by Bishop Earl Cranston, Rev. J. D. Hammond, of San Francisco, Rev. S. A. Starr, Forest Grove, and Rev. G. W. Grannis, of this city, passed down the left aisle and took their places upon the platform. The alumni, faculty and students of the university, to the number of 86 followed and occupied the seats that had been reserved for them. The introductory part of the services having been disposed of, President W. C. Hawley, introduced Bishop Cranston. The reverend gentleman chose for his text Ecclesiastes 2:22: "For what hath man of all his labor, and of vexation of his heart, wherein he hath labored under the sun?"

The address was a masterful one. Bishop Cranston is a profound thinker and one of the most able speakers on the coast.

Preceding and following the sermon the choir rendered two beautiful anthems.

FAREWELL SERVICE.
At 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A., of the university held a farewell service in the society halls at the university, the meeting being led by Miss Helen Matthews. Miss Melita Davis, sang "We'll Never Say Good By In Heaven" very sweetly and President W. C. Hawley, delivered a short address to the graduates of the different departments of the university. The meeting was quite largely attended and an enjoyable time was had.

SUNDAY EVENING SONG SERVICE.
The Methodist church was again filled to overflowing last evening when the large choir of that church under the direction of Prof. R. A. Heritage gave its final sacred concert. The program presented last evening was a most excellent one, each number being exceptionally well rendered. These concerts are much appreciated by the music loving people of Salem, who only regret they are not given more frequently.

The program carried out last evening was as follows:

Anthem.....Choir
Selection.....Rock of Ages
Choir and audience

Prayer.....Pres. W. C. Hawley
Anthem.....Choir
Reading Scripture Lesson, II
Kings, 18, 1-29, Rev. S. A. Starr,

He Watches Over Israel, Selection from the Elijah.....Choir
Selection, A Soldier of the Cross
Choir and audience.
Benediction.

COLLEGE OF ORATORY.
The second annual commencement of the College of Oratory of Willamette university will be held at Reed's opera house at 8 o'clock this evening. There will be two graduates Miss Esther Collins and Miss Jessie Creighton. A very excellent program has been arranged for the occasion.

OREGON

Will Have a Daylight Train

To the International Endeavor Convention at Frisco.

And the round-trip fare will be only $15.

"New York will send 800; Ohio 1,000; Pennsylvania from 1,000 to 1,200; Oregon will send 500—at least 300 on the daylight special that we have secured," said President H. S. Gile, who returned this morning from Frisco. Mr Gile has spent a week at Frisco, in the interest of Oregon at the greatest convention ever held on the Pacific coast. He has secured, as a special favor, a through daylight train. It will leave Portland at 5 a. m., July 5, and run through to Ashland by 7 p. m., stopping at all way stations for passengers. It will have to be a very fast train to make the trip in that time.

SOUTHERN OREGON CONFERENCE.
Mr. Gile spent a day at Ashland and Grants Pass, where he addressed young people's meetings and arranged for a district conference at the Chataqua building on the evening of the 5th, when the Oregon special will lay over there and distinguished workers will make addresses.

For $15 a first class ticket is sold for the round trip, no sleeper being necessary, but sleepers will be carried in the Oregon train, and parties can be depositing a dollar secure the sleeping car privileges by paying extra on the train. The ticket is good on regular trains coming back until July 15, or it can be extended for $5 to almost any length of time. At Ashland there will be hotel accommodations, those having sleeping cars remaining all night in their pullman.

At Frisco, which will be reached on the evening of the 6th, the Baldwin hotel will be headquarters at $1 a day per room for one person. Six other hotels were examined as to their moral character and contracted with Mr. Gile at 50 cents a day per person for rooms. The entire cost of the seven days' tour and convention will be covered by $24. Mr. Gile is prepared to book all, in the order of their application for all accommodations.

This is the only excursion for many years that goes through the most wonderful scenery in the world by daylight. This is made possible by taking advantage of the long days of mid summer and running on fast time. Christian endeavor people all over the state should now go to work to make the delegation from Oregon a round thousand and back up their president in his hard work for Oregon.

County Teachers' Institute.
The Marion County Teachers' Institute convened in an annual session at 9 a. m. today at the East Salem school building. There are about one hundred teachers in attendance and a very interesting session was held today. Not only teachers but all educational workers are earnestly invited to attend the sessions of the convention. County Superintendent G. W. Jones is being assisted in conducting the institute by Prof. E. H. Anderson and City Superintendent George A. Peebles, of this city, and Prof. C. W. Durette, of Oregon City. Miss Margaret Cosper, of the Salem public schools conducts a model school every morning with a class of primary pupils.

Cheap for Cash.
We desire to inform the public that we have reduced all blacksmith work to the lowest terms, for cash we will shoe horses with new shoes for $1 and resetting 75 cents all repair work reduced to suit the times.

ADULTERY.

Arrest of Two Salemites

The Husband Arrives Home Quite Unexpectedly.

Mrs. Della B. Rennie, of South Salem, and Roy Craven, who resides with his parents on Front street, occupied cells in the county jail Sunday night. It was not the intention of the couple to spend the night behind iron bars but the sudden and unexpected arrival of the husband, accompanied by a friend, brought about also a change in lodgings for the remainder of the night.

Oscar Rennie, husband of the woman under arrest, owns a ten acre fruit tract situated on the slough road a few miles south of this city. For several weeks past Mr. Rennie has been very industriously engaged about the place and rather than make daily trips between the city and the farm, decided to spend his entire time on the fruit tract. Mr. Rennie was in the city one day last week when he informed his wife that he intended to go to Turner within a very few days on a visit to his brother-in-law, Jacob Aschenfelder. But he did not go. Instead Mr. Aschenfelder came to Salem. About 11 o'clock Sunday night Mr. Rennie, accompanied by Mr. Aschenfelder proceeded to his home on South Commercial street and entered the same when he was considerably surprised to find Mrs. Rennie and her friend Mr. Craven, quite scantily attired and considerably surprised at so rude and unceremonious an intrusion. No explanations were offered, in fact none were asked for, for Mr. Rennie saw all that he wished.

He went immediately to the office of Justice Edes and swore out warrants for the arrest of both Mrs. Rennie and Mr. Craven, and Policeman D. W. Gibson soon found them, the parties were immediately arraigned before Recorder Edes on the charge of adultery when their cases were set for Tuesday afternoon. Bonds were fixed at $250 in default of which they were placed in the county jail where they still remain.

It is reported the parties will waive examination in the lower court and await the action of the grand jury. Attorney Wm. Kaiser, has been secured as counsel for the defendants.

Mrs. Rennie is a woman of pleasant appearance and is generally well liked. For several months she has served as clerk in the Salem Steam Dye works. Craven is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. Craven, who resides on Front street. He has not been engaged in any business or profession and has scarcely attained his majority. He is a nephew of Mr. Rennie.

When arrested Mrs. Rennie and Craven recited a story that under other circumstances than those immediately connected with this case, might be readily accepted. Mrs. Rennie asserts that, during the absence of her husband her nephew, Craven, had been staying at the house over night, sleeping up stairs. As usual he came over on Sunday evening and they retired at the customary hour. About 11 o'clock Craven was aroused by a disturbance at the front door and hastened down stairs to investigate. By this time Mrs. Rennie had also been awakened and proceeded to ascertain the cause of the disturbance, when the husband and his friend suddenly forced an entrance into the room. The parties were considerably embarrassed, but were given no time for any explanations.

REWARDED.—W. J. Forbs, of Morningside, was gratefully rewarded, by Chauncey Lockwood, for finding his watch charm, which he valued very highly.
