P. depot in this city about 6 a. m. Co. in this city, to-day received notice of the excursion. The matter will be brought before Salem Lodge No. 336 E. P. O. E. at its next regular meeting, which will be on Thursday evening of next week. It is quite likely the Salem Lodge, will be largely represented.

Teachers Nominated.
The board of directors of Salem district met Saturday night for the purpose of nominating and electing a superintendent of schools, six principals, six janitors and thirty teachers for the ensuing school year.

There were present Directors Waite, Ohmart, Bruce, Cherrington and Johnson.

There was a mass of endorsements attached to the 111 applications for positions on file with the clerk, and these received the careful attention of the directors during the past week.

Outside the local candidates for reelection to service here, there were 69 applicants from abroad, some from Florida, Michigan, Minnesota, Iowa, Pennsylvania, Delaware, California and other sections of the union, but the board held to the principle of employing only Oregon teachers, with the following result:

City superintendent—G. A. Peebles. Principals, without assignment—W. J. Crawford, C. H. Jones, J. O. Hall and J. S. Graham.

Principals, assigned—A. W. Long, Central school; D. W. Yoder Polytechnic school.

Teachers—Miss M. J. Morris, Miss Metta Davis, Miss Luella Carey, Mrs. Frank Kellogg, Miss E. B. Bushnell, Miss Etta Lewis, Miss Musa Gear, Miss E. Kramer, Miss Mattie McNary, Miss Allena Mellen, Miss Margaret J. Cooper, Miss Maria F. D'Arcy, Miss Maria Rockwell, Mrs. A. H. Dodd, Miss Daisey Lockley, Miss R. M. Gordon, Mrs. M. C. Matthieu, Miss Emille A. Henry, Miss Rose Moore, Miss M. E. Curran, Miss N. A. Hart, Miss Ella L. Welch, Miss Cora Litchfield, Mrs. Earl Race, Miss O. Ballou, Miss Ella Pholo, Miss F. G. Temple, Miss Carrie Bradshaw, Mrs. M. B. Nichols and Miss Carrie Shumaker.

The election of these teachers was deferred, and the board adjourned until its stated meeting in course.

The resignation of Mrs. Anna M. Hall as teacher was duly presented, considered and accepted, as that of Miss Hope Gans.

The matter of A. Klein's tax certificate and its final settlement was referred to chairman E. M. Waite with power to act.

Noted Lecturer Coming.
Through the persistent effort of a few ladies, they have secured Miss Belle Kearney, of Mississippi to lecture on the leading topics of the day. She will be here on Monday the 21st and will speak in the Presbyterian church. Admission free.

Miss Kearney, of Mississippi, a young woman of pleasing personal appearance and wonderful oratorical abilities, has delighted audiences again and again by her convincing eloquence, and has had most marvelous success. I believe we are safe in asserting that no young woman in the nation could excel Miss Kearney, in logic, wit and splendid oratory. The South should be proud of her.—Letter to "The Soldier," Columbia, B. C.

AN INCIDENT BLAZE.—Is invariably found at the end of a 10 cent La Corona cigar from the fact that the amount of pleasure derived therefrom is exceptionally large for the amount expended for the same.

A PICNIC.—Mrs. James Fruit, of Brooks, gave a singing school picnic in the Eldridge walnut grove Saturday. This is the only black-walnut grove in Oregon, so far as we know.

ADJOURNED.—The Salem Union Binnetic club has discontinued its meetings for the summer until the first Saturday in November.

CROPS.
Wheat and Oats Will Be Short
Too Late for Rains to Be of Much Benefit.

Some still think there will be a fair grain crop. Indications are that wheat, oats and hay will be short crops in Western Oregon.

A trip from Salem to Soap Creek, in the heart of the best grain region of Polk county, convinces THE JOURNAL writer that these crops will be very short.

In the Sover and Parkes neighborhood, the best grain region in the valley, there will not be over a half crop. Spring sown grain is very short. Between here and there few places will defray the expense of threshing and seeding. Many pieces will not be cut. Rains will not help it much, as the winter grain is all headed.

The hay and potato crop will be very short and both will command good prices.

Hop yards that were worked last year will yield a fine crop if they have been carefully tended this season. But no others will produce a yield. There will not be over a half crop of first grade hops.
