WAIVED EXAMINATION.

Delia B. Rennie and Roy Craven Bound Over to the Grand Jury.

The cases of Delia B. Rennie and Roy Craven, who were arrested on Sunday last on separate charges of adultery were to have been given trial Tuesday evening but a continuance of the same until 10 a. m. today was asked and granted.

At the appointed hour this morning both of the accused parties waived examination and were bound over to the grand jury. The bonds were fixed at $150 each, which they furnished and were released from custody.

Mrs. Rennie was released from the county jail Monday evening, her father, Peter Cook, of Independence, having furnished bonds to the sum of $250 for her appearance in court. Craven remained an inmate of the county jail until Tuesday evening when his father and brother furnished the necessary bonds of $250 for his appearance and he was given his somewhat restricted freedom.

Their cases will no doubt be examined into by the grand jury sometime this week and further proceedings in the case will depend on the result of the investigation on the part of that deliberative body.

DIED IN SEATTLE.

Arthur Townsend, Formerly of This City, Succumbs to Typhoid Fever.

A telegram was received in this city this morning, announcing the death of Arthur Townsend at Seattle at 4 o'clock this morning.

Arthur was the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Townsend, who formerly resided in this city. About one year ago they removed to California, Arthur remaining in this city in the meantime, working for W. T. Stoltz, at the "Spa." About three months ago he started for Montana but instead joined his parents at Portland and returned to Seattle.

About three weeks since he contracted the typhoid fever and died as above stated.

Arthur was about 23 years of age, and generally well liked. He was an industrious, hard working and an honest boy.

It is quite likely the funeral will take place in Seattle, no news to the contrary having been received.

NEW ARRIVAL.—More of the famous Little German Pretzels at SONNEMANN'S GROCERY.

LAW ALUMNI FORMED.—About thirty of the Willamette University law alumni met in the office of Attorney Jno. Bayne last evening when a permanent organization of the alumni was effected with the following officers: President, R. J. Fleming; Vice President, John Bayne; Secretary, John McCourt; Treasurer, Jay Bowerman; Historian A. W. Prescott. A constitution was adopted and after a few orations by members of the organization, adjournment was taken.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—Among the new teachers enrolled Wednesday was George Evans, a 12-year-old boy. There has been some question about issuing a teachers' certificate to one under 16 years old, but Master George Evans has one. He has had it since last August, and he is the youngest commissioned teacher in the county, if not the state. In knee pants, and with becoming modesty, he mixes among the older pedagogues.

Concert Recital of College of Music.

The board of trustees of Willamette university met in adjourned session Tuesday afternoon, when the election of officers was continued with the following result: Secretary, Rev. Jno. Parson; Treasurer, A. N. Bush.

The committee on unification, appointed by the Oregon conference, to bring about a union of the Willamette university and the Portland university, by consolidating the two schools into one, reported favorably on the plan, and the board adopted a resolution favoring the movement. It is likely that the Oregon conference, at its next session, will decide on a move in the direction of uniting the two institutions.

The remainder of the afternoon session was taken up in discussing the union of the schools, the board being unanimously in favor of such action. At 6 o'clock adjournment was taken until 9 a. m. today.

At this morning's session of the board of trustees the years business was closed up and adjournment was taken, subject to the call of the president.

The JOURNAL was a little premature last evening in stating that without a single exception the entire faculty had been re-engaged for the ensuing year. The happy proceeding did not transpire until this morning's session.

The most important business transacted this morning was the action taken regarding the improvement of the interior of the university and re-furnishing the session rooms. The board reported favorably on the proposed repairs and the same will be made during the summer vacation. Several hundred dollars will be expended.

OREGON INSTITUTE.

Fully 1000 people gathered at the First Methodist church last evening to witness the graduating exercises of the Oregon Institute, or preparatory department, of Willamette university.

The platform was very attractively decorated, while suspended immediately over the heads of the graduates was the class motto "Confidamus Sed Incipere." The motto was a beautiful piece of work, the letters being formed with marguerites. Misses Clara Scott, Roxana (Thompson) and Jennie Jones, and Messrs. C. K. Brandenburg, D. G. McPherson, and A. O. Garland ushered the large crowd to seats very satisfactorily. The ushers were chosen from the second year class and will themselves come up for graduating honors from the preparatory department in June 1898.

A great many beautiful bouquets and baskets of lovely flowers were presented to the graduates by relatives and friends.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the class, numbering twelve, and preceded by President W. C. Hawley, State Superintendent G. M. Irwin, D. D., Prof. J. T. Matthews and Rev. G. W. Granis, passed down the left aisle and marched upon the platform. The class was seated, a young gentleman occupying every alternate chair, while the young ladies, attired in white, formed a pretty sight.

The exercises of the evening opened with a pretty vocal contribution, "Answers," by Miss Rose Woodruff. Rev. G. W. Granis followed with an impressive invocation and Mrs. H. B. Holland sang Piusini's composition, "A Dream of Peace," for which she received a merited recognition at the hands of her auditors.

President W. C. Hawley, to whom was assigned the task of presenting the class to State Superintendent Irwin, who was to address the class, performed the task in a very happy manner. The university had departed from the usual program of essays, declamations, etc., rendered by the graduates themselves and had substituted therefor an address by a prominent educational worker of the state.

This change was not made because the university did not desire that the real work of the students might be shown but that the introduction of the class from the preparatory department to the college work might be made by one who had himself passed over the same course. The class, if anything, was superior to any previous company of graduates from the same department. Pres. Hawley also spoke in a most complimentary manner of the high character, excellent scholarship and high attainments of the class all of which went to make up true young men and women.

The address by State Superintendent G. M. Irwin, was an excellent and most appropriate one. Good citizenship is the goal of all education. Religion and education are the two essential things in life, without which no government can successfully exist.

An honest, patriotic, moral education comes from the school house and from religion. It is folly to legislate for a betterment in present conditions, except provision be made for the education of the masses. In addressing the class, Dr. Irwin spoke of the responsibility resting upon those members of the graduating class of normal course, who were about to assume charge of a school. It requires a person of ability to realize the possibilities of those in your keeping. It is a calling worthy a most noble ambition.

Miss Lelo Nicklin, delighted the audience with a violin solo that was very skillfully executed. This gifted young violinist received an encore to which she responded with an encore number that was equally as well rendered as the first.

After a short address congratulating the young graduates on the success that had attended them in their school work and extending them wishes for a prosperous and successful future, assuring them that wherever they might locate they would have the kindly wishes of the pioneer educational institution, from which they had graduated, President Hawley presented diplomas as follows:

Classical Course.—R. W. Davis, G. C. Miller, and D. Gans. R. V. Ohmart, also a graduate from this department, was detained at home by sickness but will receive the coveted diploma in due season.

Latin Scientific.—Miss Ethel May Fletcher.

Normal.—Misses Florence Pemberton, Alice Balsley, Alice McFadden and Grace Long; Messrs. R. L. Balhoger, G. W. Aschenbrenner, and S. S. Aschenbrenner.

The members of the class desire to express appreciation of those who so kindly assisted in the work of decorating the church for their exercises and also to thank Miss Woodruff, Mrs. H. B. Holland and Miss Lelo Nicklin for the help they rendered on the program; also the ushers and those who so nicely looked after the flowers.

ANNUAL MUSICAL RECITAL.

The First Methodist church was filled this morning by an appreciative audience to enjoy the exercises of the annual recital of the college of music.

Seated on the platform with Prof. R. A. Heritage, dean of the college, and Prof. F. C. Leathers, were the members of the class which consists of the following:

Mrs. Grace Gillingham-Davis, Mrs. Eunice Barnes-Grannis and Mrs. Esther Hall-McNary; Misses Lillian Roblin, Anna Atwood, Mina Heulat, Lona White, Rose Woodruff, Genieve Hughes, Oskie Matthews, Ethel Hughes, Esther Collins, and Juanita Lauffman; Messrs. W. P. Babcock and J. W. Bickford.

The Chemeteta quartette and Miss Ethel Hughes were programmed for numbers, but owing to slight colds on the part of J. R. Davis and Miss Hughes, the audience was denied the pleasure of hearing these splendid vocalists, a fact sincerely regretted.

The following program was very successfully presented, each number receiving a deserved recognition at the hands of the delighted audience:

Schumann.....The Two Grenadiers
W. P. Babcock.
Russell.....Wind of the Winter Night
Miss Juniata Lauffman.
Beethoven.....All is Lost, Gently O'er Me Stealing.
Mrs. Esther Hall-McNary.
Root.....Home, Sweet Home
The Cardinal Quartette.
Rossini.....Tanto L'ho Burst Thy Chains.
Verdi.....Miss Rose Woodruff.
Donizetti.....Twas no Vision
Miss Anna D. Atwood.
Mercadante.....O, My Fernando
Miss Lona White.
Mohring.....Fairy Visions
Miss Lillian Roblin.
The Heritage Lady Quartette.
Cantor, Oh Fair, Oh Sweet and Holy.
Hawley.....When Love is Gone
Coombs.....In Dreamland
Haydn.....The Marvelous Work
Mrs. Eunice Barnes-Grannis.

The selections by the Cardinal and Heritage lady Quartettes received encores to which the vocalists responded.

At the conclusion of the program, prospective of the work of the college of music for next year, Prof. J. C. Denton, has associated himself with the college and has been assigned to the head of the violin department.

It is the intention of Prof Heritage to have a pianist of international fame in Salem by Sept., 1st to take charge of that department of the college of music.

Today is somewhat of a milestone in Prof. Heritage's musical career, since the exercises conducted this morning at the church mark the 20th consecutive commencement recital of a college of music of which he was the head. Of the 50 commencements with but two exceptions, there were candidates up for graduation honors each year.

Next year there will be a class numbering about 20 to graduate from this important department of the university.

UNIVERSITY ALUMNI.

The alumni entertainment and reunion of the university alumni will be held in the university chapel at 8 o'clock this evening. The address will be delivered by B. F. Irvine, editor of the Corvallis Times, and a musical and literary program will also be rendered.

COMMENCEMENT DAY.

Thursday will be commencement day proper. At 10 a. m. at the university chapel will be held the commencement exercises of the college of Liberal Arts. The baccalaureate oration by Rev. Wesley K. Beans, D. D., of Portland. At 5 o'clock in the chapel; the musical alumni will present a program.

The ordinance committee asked and was granted more time to report on Silver Falls water franchise and plumbers ordinance, as also on the insurance and pawn brokers license ordinance.

A verbal report was made stating that the lowering of the cistern at High and Courts streets had been ordered at a cost of $100.

A verbal report was also made that Parry & Teal, the firm that had been awarded the contract for repairing the bridge has not yet signed the contract for that work. The street committee was given further power to act in the matter. It is probable the next lowest bidder will be awarded the contract, or new bids may be asked for.

The Turner estate was granted a permit to build a corrugated iron wood shed at the rear of Harritt & Lawrence's grocery store.

Liquor license applications from Bach & Nadstanek and Ang. Schriber were referred.

Upon motion of the treasurer was authorized to receive any cash for rent from the occupants of the old fire department buildings.

The complaint of a cow nuisance on Fourteenth street near Ferry was dismissed.

A FALSE ALARM.—Large volumes of smoke were seen, this forenoon, pouring out of a Commercial street cigar store. The fire chief made an investigation, but found it was only a party of men smoking the universally favorite cigar, the 10-cent La Corona. It is the best cigar in the market.

"FAIR EXCHANGE"—Is no robbery and especially is that true when you purchase your groceries at Branson & Co's. Their staples are of the highest grade and you always get your money's worth.

A Serious Difficulty.

"I suffered for three years with salt rheum. The humor was on my hands and I was obliged to keep a covering on them most of the time. The stinging and burning was very severe. Nothing did me any good until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. After taking six bottles I was cured." Mrs. S. E. Wood, DeLamar, Idaho.

Hood's Pills are the favorite family cathartic. Easy to take, gentle, mild. 25 cents.
