

Merit

Made and Merit Maintains the confidence of the people in Hood's Sarsaparilla. If a medicine cures you when sick; if it makes wonderful cures every where, then beyond all question that medicine possesses merit.

Made

That is just the truth about Hood's Sarsaparilla. We know it possesses merit because it cures, not once or twice or a hundred times, but in thousands and thousands of cases. We know it cures, absolutely, permanently, when all others fail to do any good whatever. We repeat is the best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier. It cures nausea, indigestion, biliousness, 25 cents.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

CONFESION OF FRAUD AND JOBBERY.

ADmits the whole case. The Salem Statesman now confesses the tampering with the bill and the whole fraud:

Court adjourned about noon, on Friday, June 11, without having considered the bill in open court. The charge is that the county clerk dated the bill as having been filed on the 10th, and allowed on the 11th, when the fact appears to be that it was not filed on the 10th, 24 hours after the court had adjourned. This original bill is typewritten and contained only the items as here given. Their cost is $25 less than the total. Wednesday forenoon the discovery was made that a figure "2" had been inserted with pen and ink in the "units" column of the bill, which, when amended, reads as follows:

Building cabinet in corner... 29 80"
Here was a raise of $20. At the same time it was discovered that a figure "2" had been inserted with pen and ink in the "units" column of the bill, which, when amended, reads as follows:

Repairing wash basin... 5 65"
Here was a raise of $5. This amended, the itemized bill produced a total equaling that for which warrants had been drawn. This change in the itemized bill Judge Terrell says he made because the typewriter in copying the bill from manuscript had omitted one line as follows:

Moving and adjusting bulletin boards... $25
Had this line been inserted, there would have been no occasion to raise the other two items to make the aggregate of the itemized bill agree with the total for which warrants had been drawn.

This, in brief, is the story. That the bill as paid is extravagant, exorbitant, none can deny. That the manner in which the contract was let was loose is self-evident. And that the mode of its auditing and payment irregular is not questioned. But whether or not there was criminal negligence or misfeasance, it is the duty of the grand jury to determine.

LEADING REPUBLICANS TALK. The Statesman this morning has interviews with prominent Salem Republicans all denouncing the courthouse job:

Geo. W. Davis, chairman county republican committee: "In the manner of letting contracts the court is business-like and if the irregularities alleged are true they are utterly defensible."

E. P. McCormack: "The large expenditures of public money recently made by the county court were, in my opinion uncalled for and unnecessary at this time, and not in keeping with the promises made to the people that a frugal economy would be practiced in the administration of public offices. The people will approve any reasonable expenditures for the general improvement of the county roads, but the expensive contracts for unnecessary grading at two or three remote points should be abrogated at once and a rigid inquiry should be made as to the regularity of the court's proceedings. The people are practicing the strictest economy in their own affairs and have a right to demand the same economy in public business and they should not, and will not, sit idly by and see the public money squandered."

R. J. Hendricks: "There are charges of irregularity grave enough, that warrant a thorough investigation into all the facts by the grand jury; if there is one guilty in this conduct this would result in exoneration; if there are guilty parties they should be punished as provided by law. Claude Gatch: "I do not know whether the charge against Judge Terrell and the parties with whom he made contracts for various improvements be true or not, but he, himself, should ask for a full investigation, and if the county has been imposed upon proceedings at once terminate to make the parties who have wroged the county refund what they have illicitly taken. I hope the improvement of the big bridge, which has so persistently underlain the people with no other so profitable of scandal as have the late county court house improvements."

Joseph Meyers: "It would have been more business-like had the county court called for competitive bids on the work."

Q. Barnes: "If any wrong has been committed I think it should be corrected. An officer elected by the people should be satisfied with the duty attached to the office."

F. Goode: "Had I been in the county's place the improvement never would have been made in such times. I would have had the money saved for the county."

H. Johnson: "If there is a semper of truth in the current reports

It should be investigated. I am opposed to jobbery." J. S. Graham: "If charges are true investigation is necessary without delay."

L. Patterson: "I deem the work to have been untimely in view of the financial condition of the county; if the press reports and rumors abroad on the streets are true, the matter should be investigated to the uttermost by the grand jury. All public expenditures such as this should have been submitted to a competitive bid."

J. Q. Wilson: "Outside of the clerk's office, none of the changes were necessary, in fact the building has been injured and finally it cost too much money. Extra charges are enormous."

A. N. Gilbert: "With the information the present grand jury has had from the press reports about the matter they have so far failed to do their duty; if they neglect it altogether the public should take it up."

Dr. L. A. Port: "The matter deserves the promptest and fullest investigation."

C. P. Bishop: "If what is reported is true the officers who sanctioned the matter should be impeached."

C. H. Lane: "No one should be shielded by his party; if there is any jobbery afoot it should be rooted out."

O. E. Krause: "If reports are true, for a little while it is the most barefaced I ever heard of in Salem, and the Republican party owes it to itself to rebuke it at once and forever."

J. G. Wright: "My opinion is that it is an outrage for any official to sanction a piece of work of that size without calling for bids and making it public."

J. H. Lunn: "These reports are entitled to close investigation that those charged may be properly punished or promptly exonerated."

State Horticulture Meet. The following is the program of the meeting of the State Horticultural society. Mid-summer meeting, held at Newberg, Oregon, June 29th and 30th.

CHEMAWA VS. PORTLAND.—D. E. Brewer, manager of the Chemawa baseball team, was in Salem Friday afternoon to purchase tickets for taking the school team to Portland this morning where they were scheduled for a game this afternoon with the Multnomah nine. The Chemawa team is somewhat handicapped. Teabo, the excellent catcher, is ill with measles while Sanders, the efficient second baseman is suffering with a badly bruised right hand. The game will no doubt prove quite interesting.

ADMINISTRATOR APPOINTED.—Alex. Cornoyer has been appointed administrator of the estate of Mrs. Minnie Cornoyer, who died in this city on the 10th inst., leaving property valued at about $2,000.

GIVES STRENGTH TO MEN. It is remarkable fact that a man never appreciates the sufferings of others until he himself, has passed through the fire of pain or remorse. Then it is that he looks around for those who are suffering; he wants them to profit by his experience; he gives his time and money gladly for the benefit and never tires of his zeal. There are plenty of men weak and worn out, struggling with remorse and fear, and the natural outcome of habits that brought incapacity; a sense of loneliness and a feeling as if the best side of life had been banished forever. Such men should write to Thomas Slater, Box 399, Kalamazoo, Mich. He will send free of charge by mail, in a plain sealed envelope full particulars about the method he used, and this will enable any man to get a complete cure at home. It is the method Mr. Slater used to cure himself of the trouble that sap the strength and vigor. The cure was so complete, so satisfying and such a wonderful change from his former condition that he will gladly tell others all about it, sending all particulars. He figures that he doesn't know of a better way to show his appreciation of his own cure and the sufferings of others. There must be generous men in this world to offset the tide of selfishness. Write to Mr. Slater; it will cost nothing for his description and method.
