

That Judge Terrell has been a dupe of designing parties no one can doubt. The conditions under which public business are transacted at the court house are very primitive. There is no regular form for making out bills, itemized and sworn to, as is the rule in the city and state departments. Examination of the bills allowed at the June term shows that they are brought in on all sorts of paper scraps, often not even dated or itemized, and in most cases not stating who ordered the service, or what occasion required it.

One of the first steps of the present county court was to order about $40 worth of lithographic office stationery, from St. Louis, at $8.50 per thousand, and $85 worth for one office that for two years before had used about $10 worth, printed here at Salem. Then came the $600 expediting job, which we are prepared to show did not reveal the vital matters of extra fees, and never recovered a penny for the county. Next the court gave the Statesman a $500 grab for printing the delinquent tax list, a clear steal of from $200 to $300. The court house job, of $2,300, came next, and a heavy payment on the first of the series of contracts to cut down bills and fill up quarries. The people generally are not opposed to public improvements. THE JOURNAL has always taken the broad ground that any necessary public improvement if the money is honestly expended is a public benefit, giving employment to labor. But when large sums are expended when there is no money in sight to pay with, and jobs are let without bids, or bids taken in such a manner that they are looked upon as a mere farce, the bills paid in such an irregular manner as to require to be tampered with, and the records ordered doctored up and the transactions sought to be suppressed from all publicity, there is a nigger in the woodpile. It is time to stop all such transactions if the reputation for common business honesty in this community is not to be entirely destroyed and a reign of lawlessness and anarchy inaugurated. It is pretty well understood how and why some people are enjoying the benefit or disgrace of these usufructuary contracts. But that does not bind the public to extension of such a policy. The people need no more object lessons by a public spendthrift to convince them that they made a mistake at the polls. They will pay dearly enough if the brake is put on now and kept on tight for the rest of Judge Terrell's term, if he has any.

What we wish to emphasize over and over is that expending $1000 for expert whitewash is not business. Throwing a newspaper a $500 sop to keep it on its feet is not business. Paying an eastern firm $400 for printing that could be as well done at home for $100 if needed is burning money to kill home industry. Making contracts for elegant courthouse improvements with unlimited extras, and doing it all in the dark, and not even footing the bill to see if it is correct before it is paid is proof conclusive that some one has lost his head and is committing blunders at public expense that amount in the aggregate to malfeasance, if not to crime.

The people of Oregon who have sons and daughters to educate are waiting patiently for the ending of the state university imbroglio. The president charged with untruthfulness, (in the south a graver offence than homicide) Professors McElroy, Hawthorne and ex-President Johnson charged with drunkenness, arraigned for tippling, is not a hopeful state of affairs. The crime of some of them is really graver—they are impositions on the public. Chapman, McElroy, Hawthorne and other unsatisfactory and disturbing elements do not inspire confidence in the state university. An educator should be above the suspicion of lying or appearing before his classes in a maudlin condition. The standards of integrity and personal conduct cannot be raised too high.

Secretary Gabrielson is winning the confidence of the community for his energetic and intelligent methods of advertising the coming State fair. He has secured the hearty co-operation of all the transportation companies and gets the cause of the state fair before every gathering in the state, of any note. He finds a favorable disposition among all the managers of corporations to lend a helpful hand. The business men of our city have perfect confidence in the integrity and fairness of the present secretary and it is due to his tireless zeal that the fair of 1897 promises to be a great success.

The closing of the big bridge, at Salem, is working a needless hardship on our business men. Some of the contractors familiar with such work declare the entire bridge can be overhauled and rebuilt, if necessary, without stopping travel one hour. It is certain that all railroad bridges are rebuilt without impeding travel. But as the contract has been let with that privilege, our people will have to stand it and use the ferry when necessary. The suspension of travel ought to be as short as possible at this time of the year.

The Cutting Scrape at Berry. LYONS, Or., June 22, 1897.

EDITOR JOURNAL: In justice to the people and my friends, I would like to answer a piece from some one that didn't have the manhood to sign his name to a piece in your valuable paper of June 3, 1897. In regard to the difficulty between Zumwalt and Roe. It is very easy for a convicted forger to manufacturer lies and impose them upon the people. I stand ready to prove what I say. Mr. Smith, the disinterested party spoken of, seemed to be very much interested in carrying news from myself and Roe. He is a professional at that as well as claim jumper. As for me going to move into one of the Enterprise Co's. houses, that is one of the many lies in his article. The house is mine and never did belong to said company, nor never will. Now, Mr. Smith, I suppose it will be in order for Roe to set fire to it, as you said in regard to the other building, as Roe is handy with matches, having set the whole country on fire a year ago. This can be proven. As to the first report in the Statesman I don't know how it got there, nevertheless, it is correct, or nearly so. Roe said he came up to forbid Zumwalt. That is another one of his lies, because he knows that Zumwalt intended to have him arrested for trespass if he interfered in any way, but he told me to get, and never gave me time to "get." He nor any one else ever said one word about notices. Neither did I ever refuse to go, because I expected he would order me off and I would have him arrested. As for the bill of sale, he says it is a fraud and the hands your correspondent says is a fraud. Did you ever see that bill of sale? The hands are aware that I have the bill of sale, and that it covers all the lumber and ties on and about the mill grounds. Why were some that is Caskey, opposed to send me as a committee to Salem, to fix the lean? Why did Staley and Howard come to board with me? Now Mr. Editor the statement in your paper of June 3, is a lie from Alpha to Omega. J. C. Roe is a convicted forger, and Mr. Smith is a claim jumper, and if he wants to I can find plenty of men in his own vicinity to impeach him. Now Mr. Editor will you please give the facts to the public? Respectfully, A. T. ZUMWALT.

CHEAP BICYCLES.—Sheriff T. T. Wrightman recently conducted an excursion sale when one safety bicycle and a good tandem were bid in by plaintiff for $30. Either of the wheels would be considered cheap at the price paid for both. Both wheels were of recent model and will yet render much satisfactory service.

FERRY RUNNING.—Jack Robertson, of the Salem Water Co., has just finished the job of splicing the rope cable for the Holman ferry, which has been stretched across the river at the foot of State street at old ferry boat landing. Wm. Renale and Jake Moyer will run the boat and collect the tolls.

MISTAKES.—Will occur in the best regulated families but you make no mistakes when you order one of those 15 cent meals at George Bros. They never fail to please.

UNION But Not Fusion for Spoils. Organization Has Been Effected in Josephine County.

GRANTS PASS, June 23.—(Special) In accordance with plans formulated at the conference of the silver men of Oregon, at Albany June 2, the late central committee for Josephine county, Mr. L. G. Brownell, called a mass meeting of the voters of this county, who were opposed to the single gold standard which convened in Grants Pass on the 16th, inst.

The meeting was well attended and a good deal of earnestness was displayed. A county executive committee was chosen, consisting of the chairman, Mr. Brownell, and three members and a secretary, as follows: Mr. J. W. Howard, Mr. Frank Fetsch and Mr. L. S. Cunday, with J. L. Fryer as secretary. The county is being organized in the different precincts as rapidly as possible. The people here look upon the movement, not as a fusion for the spoils of office, but as a union of the people in the fight for deliverance from the bondage in which the money power is seeking to place them, and recognizing the fact that in union there is strength, they hail the movement with gladness.

The recent thinning out of men, and reduction in wages, of the employees of the S. P. D. and L. Co., of this place, is in direct opposition to what was promised them last fall if McKinley should be elected, and if it is a sample of McKinley's prosperity it is rather disheartening to these effected and does not tend to strengthen their confidence in the present administration. However, the management of the concern is not to blame, as they are all excellent men and are doing their best in the face of the falling prices consequent upon the present financial policy of the nation.

A Wrong Conception. Those who honestly oppose the Union movement seem to have a wrong understanding of the proposition. As we understand, the plan that which has been done so far is only temporary, and the work of permanent party organization is yet to be done. The platform of principles will be adopted at the convention yet to be held. All will depend on the people who attend the primaries. The Populists have a majority in this state and they ought not to be afraid to go into convention with Democrats and Republicans.

Moreover the Populists are not required to abandon their organization, at present the party may be held in working order and if there is any sidetracking as same seem to fear, and the union proves to be a fraud, we can take up our work and go on with our own organization. Let the Populists get to the front and mould the new party to suit ourselves, and not act the boobies, for we are in the majority in this state.—The Other Side.

BERRY. Joe Miller of Scio spent Wednesday at this place. J. C. and C. E. Roe returned from Salem Thursday last. Downie and Barlow, also Ellerick Berry's men have not been at work for a few days on account of the rainy weather.

John Leonard of Lyons, who is at work for Downie and Barlow, lost a good horse by a log striking it and breaking its leg, last Friday. Gibson Myers and niece of Lyons were visitors here for a few days. Ed. V. Smith returned from a visit to Munkers, Albany, and Salem last Friday.

John Roe had quite an accident last Friday, a push-car ran off the track on trestle near the E. L. Co. mill throwing him about twenty feet, he struck on the head and shoulders and hurt him quite badly, but at the present writing he is able to be around again.

J. H. Barlm returned from the valley Saturday. Omar Wheeler moved back to his home at Kingston Wednesday, he has been working for Messrs. Downie and Barlow for a few months. Misses Luna George and Tillie Kanuteson, of Niagra, were guests of Mrs. Henkle a few days last week.

No Picnic.—The announcement that a Fourth of July picnic would be held at Prospect Hill, Monday, July 5, has been declared off. There will be no picnic.

The monkey could pull its own sugar out of the fire, but prefers to use the paws of the cat. Poor cats, how they must hurt them! Yes, it does hurt them a little, but they can stand it for the sake of their good friend the monkey. Perhaps they will get a share of the sugar, or if not that something else which they like better. Perhaps it is certain that they have long been fast friends of the monkey and that they like him for his sly and cunning tricks.

Republican Criticism of Taxed Hides. According to the protective theory the imposition of a tax on noncompetitive articles adds to their cost to the consumer. This theory would be applied to the proposed duties on hides, as the people would be compelled to pay more for their footwear. It is estimated that the increased cost of boots and shoes for one year under the proposed duty would amount to $20,000,000. With free hides our manufacturers of leather goods have been able to build up a great export trade in footwear. As Mr. Blaine said when it was proposed to put a duty on hides in the law of 1890, "It will yield a profit to the butcher only—the last man that needs it." The interests of the tanners and shoe manufacturers are vastly more important than the interests of butchers and western ranchmen.—Chicago Times-Herald, Republican.

Of No Consequence. The brewers are good campaign contributors. Therefore they are to be excused from their proper share of taxes. The wearers of clothes are of no particular account to the Mark Hannas of our time. Why shouldn't they and the consumers of sugar and shoes be made to bear the whole burden?—World.

Why Dingley Rates Are So High. Afraid to open your chops about the McKinley bill before the election, having won, you are out-Heroding Herod, out-McKinleying McKinley, because the men who furnished the money to carry the election are relentless taskmasters, clamorous for their remuneration. They have such ravenous appetites that you have been compelled to make the rates higher than in the McKinley bill. Let this not be forgotten, inscribe it on the tablets of your memory. Be it known that the average tariff tax under the McKinley bill was 49.58 per cent ad valorem; under the Wilson-Gorman bill, 39.94 per cent, and under the Dingley bill, 67.03 per cent. Hence the average rate of taxation on something like 4,000 articles of every day consumption is 8 per cent higher under the Dingley bill than under McKinley's law, and 17 per cent higher than under the Wilson-Gorman bill.—Hon. Champ Clark in Congress.

Prices Going Up. Prices of sugar, lumber, tea and other articles have already risen since duties have been increased or new ones imposed. The foreigner appears to be somewhat backward in coming forward to pay these tariff duties, but perhaps he was taken by surprise by the senate's action and will yet pay all duties assessed against him by Republicans.

"If under the reformed Dingley bill the consumer shouldn't and the foreigner wouldn't pay the tax, where would we be at?" asks the Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Look at the people you pass on the street. Their faces tell the story of their lives. They tell the story of penury or plenty, of contentment or dissatisfaction, of health or disease. Three-fourths of these people are not "exactly well." They are not all "sick," perhaps, but many of them are, and few are quite hale and hearty. Consumption has set its stamp of pallor and emaciation on many of them. Dyspepsia has drawn lines of fretfulness and worry about their eyes, and mouths. Impure blood is showing itself in blotches and pimples. One man has "a little trouble" with his kidneys. Some of the women have chronic constipation, and the other ailments that constipation brings. The most pitiful of all faces is the consumptive one. Very likely it has been through the other stages and has at previous times shown dyspepsia, weakness and bad blood. Consumption doesn't come all at once. It is a creeping disease. It comes on gradually under cover of a hundred differing symptoms. It is the most dreadful of all diseases, but it can be cured if you begin in time. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure it. It will cure all the things that lead to consumption. It is not guaranteed to cure consumption of long standing. There is a stage at which consumption is incurable. If you send 25 cts. to cover postage and wrapping only, we will send you a book of 100 pages that tells exactly what "Golden Medical Discovery" will do—what it has done in hundreds of cases. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

They All Come Back

"There are fads in medicine as well as in other things," said a busy druggist, "but the most remarkable thing about Hood's Sarsaparilla is that customers who try other remedies all come back to Hood's, and this is why the enormous sales of this great medicine keep up and continue the whole year round, steady as a clock. Why is it?" "O, simply because Hood's Sarsaparilla has more real curative merit than any medicine I ever used." This is of daily occurrence in almost every drug store. Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured more sickness, and made more happiness through restoration to health than any other medicine.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the standard—the One True Blood Purifier. Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Perpetual Motion by Protection. The California argument for higher fruit duties is a sort of perpetual motion. The only disadvantage the Californian fruit raiser is at is to be found in the cost of his land, but the only thing that makes his land expensive is the profitability of fruit culture.

So the matter works out in this way: The great profits of fruit raising set the value of land up to hundreds of dollars an acre. The interest on the value of the land makes a large item in a fruit raiser's balance sheet, and he feels the need of a high price for his fruit. This Senator Jones procures for him by letting it be known that he will not vote for the tariff bill unless it contains duties on hides and increased duties on fruit and the cheapest sorts of wool. The increased duty adds to the profits of fruit culture, and the price of land takes another rise, whereupon the fruit grower complains that the interest on his land investment is so great or the rental he has to pay for his land is so high that there is an insufficient profit in the business for him, and the only thing that will save him from disaster is more duty.

Logically this process can be carried on indefinitely. Practically it cannot, because with the increase in the price of fruit the consumption of fruit will decline. The consumer will be worse off for the change. The grower, so far as he is not to be considered as a land owner, will be no better off, but the value of the land will be as high as the profits of fruit culture will permit.—Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin.

$100 Reward, $100. The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J.
