EDITORIAL.

What are the leading men in the Republican party going to do with our county affairs? Will they allow matters to drift? Shall the present disgraceful condition continue? We auditing department in such shape meet him again. not want that.

In all we have said about the imsponsibility on the official head of the have no caudidate for any office which may become vacant and have no priin attacking any man. The people have a common interest that ail rightminded men must feel in demanding common honesty and intelligent business me hods and derent economy in the transaction of public business. The people do not care who gives this service, so far as men or parties are concerned. But the people do have an interest in knowing that there shall be an end put to shameful political jobbery and public expense, as has been the cus tom. It is assumed all big political debts and compaign obligations have been squared by this time.

It is time now to put the affairs of the county on a business basis. Judge Terrell has three years to serve. He owesit to the Republican party which put blin there to put the affairs of the county in such order that open and outright stealing shall stop. How much wisdom, intelligence, economy and retrenchment the entire county takes his dig at the judge. For the court is capable of no one can imagine.

We have long since learned not to look to party for relief or reforms. It sidered an ample sum for all needs. takes manhood and character that During the month of March, 1897, a rises above party to secure good local government.
