Salem Defeats Monogram

No Ball Game Played in Portland Monday

In the continuation of the match game of baseball played at Portland, Saturday afternoon between the Salem team and the Monogram of Portland, the significant work of Lieutenant Berry...

The game was one of the most enthusiastic of the season and was witnessed by fully 20 people of the number a large percentage were from Salem and whose presence was in evidence throughout the game. How may be said to have won the game for the Salem team by his superior pitching. He threw a scintillating ball with much accuracy, that the members of the Monogram team were unable to hit it.

Among those from Salem witnessing the game were: Mrs. Paul Grant, Misses Lizzie Robinson, Ethel Cusick, Ethel Raymond, Maude and Florence Denton, Grace Larson, Ida Childers, Jennie Porter, Lois Prange, Ethel Hughes, Marie Kim, Miss McNary, Carrie and Louise Palmer, Mrs. Dr. L. F. Griffith, Mrs. Dr. W. T. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Gen. C. B. Irvine, Roy Bishop, Floyd Taylor, Ed Baker, Edna Southwick, H. J. Oesterlemer, Rocky Hodgins, Chris Oesterlin, P. H. Hunt, H. Myers, Charles Roberts, C. E. Lockwood, W. Evans, Webster Kincaid, Boyd Richardson, W. T. Holtz, Chas. La Grande, Antonio Metachan, J. W. Cochran, Albert Lane, Walt Shupp, G. W. Walters, John Repply, and many others.

W. LAKE AT PORTLAND. Owing to the recent heavy rains, the game scheduled to take place at Portland Monday afternoon between the Chemawa Training School nine and the Portland Monogram did not take place. The game promised to be an exciting one in which the boys from Chemawa would no doubt have been victorious had the game been called.

ST. PAUL WINS. The first nine of St. Louis met defeat at the hands of the St. Paul first nine Saturday afternoon, the score standing 7 to 12 in favor of the St. Paul team for which Benjamin, formerly of Salem pitched. The game was a very interesting one. A SUNDAY GAME. A match game of baseball was played at the fair grounds Sunday afternoon between the Fair Ground
