GARDNER ON TRIAL.

The case of State vs. L. F. Gardner, charged with rape, went to trial this morning before a jury consisting of Henry Brown, John Van Wagner, E. A. M. Cone, Bruce Cunningham, J. P. Ledgerwood, Oliver Biers, O. Ireton, L. M. English, Chas. A. Gray, N. H. Looney, J. Harding and W. W. Hall.

Gardner was the postmaster at Monitor Mills, where he conducted a merchandise store in connection therewith. He is charged with raping a 14-year-old girl. Shortly before 12 o'clock adjournment was taken for dinner, the taking of testimony being resumed at 1 o'clock. The trial can hardly be concluded until late this afternoon. All attorneys, except the respective counsel, reporters and spectators were excluded from the court room and the trial is being conducted behind closed doors.

MARION COUNTY COURT.

Judge G. P. Terrell and Commissioners Watson and Davis convened the Marion county court this morning. The day's session was devoted to auditing the claims against the county. Notice of the appointment of H. T. Bruce, Ralph Parker and L. E. Geer as deputies assessor; John Knight, as deputy sheriff; and W. P. Babcock, as deputy county clerk, were received. The resignation of W. W. Stephens as superintendent of the poor farm was accepted.

Judge O'Day in a speech the other day at Portland referred to the Gold Democrats as baked half from one side and "dough on t'other."

Another Salem merchant has put up the sign "No credit given." That is a good sign.

The "chair of Ethics and Pedagogy" in the state university, created for Prof. McElroy, has been abolished by the board of regents, but the professor does not lose his job; a "chair of Logic" has been manufactured for him at a cost of $2,000 a year. So long as the professor is enabled to draw a salary, it makes very little difference whether he is seated in a chair of Ethics or Logic, Pedagogy or demagoguery. When Irwin's term expires, he might be furnished with a chair of English Literature—or probably he would prefer one of Theoretical Theology. These great educators must be provided for.—Welcome.

Now that the committee having the case of H. W. Corbett in charge has reported that the appointee should be seated, there can be little hope of Governor Lord's calling an extra session of the legislature.—Baker City Republican. If Corbett is seated we may look for Col. Alley, Dr. Driver and his man Friday, to leave Oregon. No federal offices for them this side of the hot place.

John Sherman and the editor of THE JOURNAL exactly agree that the trusts are the biggest question before the minds of the American people.

Judge Terrell has received a certificate of character from our distinguished fellow citizen Thos. Townsend.

Jesus once asked "what thinkest thou Simon, Peter: of whom do the Kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?"

Peter answered: "of strangers."

The Eugene Guard sees fit to take THE JOURNAL to task for saying that H. B. Miller made a good president of the Agricultural college. Give the devil his dues. Miller did make a good president. He was not an educator but the students liked him, he managed the finances of the school well, increased the attendance advertised the college, increased its facilities and usefulness in many ways. Of course Miller is a Gold standard man and a politician, but if he really did well we must acknowledge it. We must be fair.

One of the most attentive of the few spectators in the Supreme court room yesterday while the hearing of the Shattuck warrant case was proceeding was President McCrum of the Defunct railroad commission. A listener wondered if McCrum was not studying the case to get some light as to how he can proceed to get his pay.

The suit against the State Board of equalization comes off at the court house in Marion county Saturday morning the 11th inst. The ATTORNEY-GENERAL is by virtue of his office the only person authorized to defend the board and it is being queried whether or not he will not take sides against the board of equalization as he has against every other State Board of office.

In Probate Court.

Joseph Goodnan, W. S. Taylor and Maurice Goodman have been named appraisers of the estate of Theo. Fayas, deceased.

Jno. Hughes, Wm. England and D. L. Green will make an inventory of the estate of John Etting, deceased.

Judge G. P. Terrell has rendered his decision in the matter of the appointment of a guardian for the person and estate of Catherine Reiling. By the decision, both petitions were dismissed and each party was adjudged to assume his own costs.

STATE FAIR.

Movements to Promote Its Interests Locally.

Secretary Gabrielson has several plans of local interest for promoting the coming state fair. First, he desires all the local committees of the fraternal societies, of this city and county, to meet him on Thursday evening, of this week, at 8 o'clock, at Willis Bro's store. The plan is to have all the orders and societies unite in a suitable program for fraternal order day at the state fair, Saturday, October 9.

Another enterprise which the secretary has in mind is to form an organization of Salem business men to assist the fair by all uniting upon a certain day to attend the fair with their families and give their employees an opportunity to attend. Mr. Gabrielson believes a suitable parade could be organized, in which all could take part, with fireworks and a program in the evening.

The secretary is entitled to the warm support and cordial co-operation of every citizen of Salem, and our people owe it to themselves to push the fair.

WM. J. BRYAN

Will Speak at Salem—His Meetings at Lebanon and Oregon City.

Bryan, of Nebraska, the silver-tongued Cicero of the Silver cause (Harvey Scott calls him wind jammer Bryan) will speak at Lebanon, Linn county, Monday, July 12, at 8 o'clock (not seven as heretofore erroneously printed).

A special train will carry him to Oregon City and he will pass through Salem before noon. He will be met at Salem by an immense crowd and will make a short speech—just a few minutes talk. His big speeches on that day will be at Lebanon, Oregon City and Portland. But Bryan will be seen and heard at Salem.

D. C. Sherman still has a number of tickets for the Bryan special at Oregon City, or they can be had at this office at $1. The special will stop long enough at Salem to hitch on a car if enough tickets to fill a car can be sold, and Mr. Bryan can make quite a talk here.

MARION.

Rain, rain, too much of it for haying, some pieces cheat are already too ripe for good hay. There is some complaint of early wheat not filling and some of rust, but, we predict the largest crop of grain Oregon has produced for years, if the rain lets up soon. Gardens are excellent.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Farlow, and daughter, were passengers on the C. E. train Monday for a short visit with relatives in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ramsey, Highland, (Salem) with their family drove to Marion Sunday returning Monday.

Will Ohmes also of Highland is visiting friends in Marion.

Messrs. H. L. and A. J. Fisher, who have been operating gold mines in Southern Oregon, are visiting with their mother Mrs. Mary Fisher, of this place, having shut down work for the present, for lack of water.

Tom. Butherford has erected a fine barn on his property south of post-office.

W. J. Hactley, is having the ware house served to a coat of red.

The cracemy is standing idle at present, on account of the boiler which failed to produce sufficient power to run the machinery. Mr. Hadley shipped the same to Salem Tuesday morning for repairs.

C. A. George, is having a tangle with la gripe.

Mr. Lee Wiseman, of this place, with his family, left last week it is thought their destination is Old Missouri, leaving W. J. Hadley, to sing to the tune of $120, M. S. Norton, to the tune of $45, A. H. Hunt, to $12 and perhaps some others to sing too, but the time is as a rule very harsh, and not the sweetest of music in the world.

Miss Ruby Epler, who has been suffering severely for two weeks with a gathering on her face, is much better having the same lanced by Dr. Hawk, of Jefferson.

Rev. Achsa Kenyon, of Kansas, occupied the pulpit at Friends church, last Sunday, at 11 a. m., and 8 p. m. and will fill the same place Wednesday afternoon.

Treasurer Short.

ASTORIA, July 7, 1897.—The county treasurer of Clatsop county is $12,050 short in his accounts. He has turned over his personal effects as surety to his bondsmen. He used county funds for private speculations.

The Astoria Evening news has temporarily suspended.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Limited to Short Speeches.

The Final Vote Agreed Upon for This Evening.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The final vote on the tariff bill will be taken before adjournment today. The agreement is as follows: That the debate on the tariff bill shall proceed under the five minute rule the final vote on the bill shall be taken before adjournment today.

Allison did not ask that the hour for the vote be fixed, being content with an assurance that it should be sometime before adjournment. The limitation of speeches, to five minutes will bring the debate within narrow limits. The announcement by vice-president that the agreement was perfected, led to a general exchange of congratulations among the senators.

During the day the anti-trust question was debated at length and the Pettus amendment on the subject was defeated 33 to 38. Allen again offered an amendment for a quarter cent bounty on beet sugar— it led to lively and somewhat personal speeches from the two Nebraska senators, after which the Allen amendment was tabled 55 to 9, the Populists and Silver Republicans being the only ones recorded against the motion to table.

CAUCUS.

The Republican senatorial caucus decided not to again present a beet-sugar bounty amendment to the tariff bill, and Allison was authorized to move to have the amendment offered by Allen tabled. There was also a general agreement to take up the Thurston beet sugar bounty bill as an independent measure the first thing after congress meets next December.

The object of the caucus bore entirely upon the bounty matters. Aldrich was the first to make a general outline of the course which was ultimately agreed upon, including the postponement of the entire question until December. A motion to this effect was, however, made by Morrill, after a motion made by Davis to stand by the finance committee, withdrawing the amendment, had been carried.

Foraker suggested that the entire question should be left open, leaving each Republican senator to cast his own vote in such a manner as he should choose, independent of party affiliations. He said the effort to lay the amendment on the table might lead to filibustering tactics and cause more delay than would the opposite course of permitting the amendment to go to a vote on its merits.

This view was antagonized by the other senators, who said the Democrats would hold up the bill indefinitely, as long as there was a possibility of the amendment passing, and that the only way of infusing a speedy vote was for the party as a whole to support the motion to table. The opinion was so general that Foraker did not press his motion and no vote was taken.

When Allen was informed of the result of the Republican caucus, he said he would press the amendment to a vote, but that he would not filibuster to prevent its being laid on the table. He said it was not his purpose to prevent an early vote on the bill.

CURRENCY COMMISSION.

M. H. Hanna, chairman of the executive committee of the Indianapolis soundmoney convention, had a consultation with Secretary Gage. Later Secretary Gage had a talk with the president. The president's decision as to whether he will send a special message to congress recommending a currency commission is expected this week.

The potato crop will be a record-breaker in Gilliam this year, says the Fossil Journal. Contrary to the usual course of things, there was rain almost throughout the month of June.

STRIKE.

Ohio Strikers Secure an Advance—Arbitration Probable.

PITTSBURG, July 7.—A strike of coal miners is on in Pittsburg district, but reports as to its extent are so conflicting and meager, it is difficult to tell how many responded to the strike order. Most encouraging reports for the strikers came from the river mines, and it can be stated that fully 6,000 river diggers are idle.

A dispatch from Wheeling, W. Va., says men at Shickanes, on the B.&O., in Ohio, are at work at an advance. The 3000 on the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railroad voted two to one against the strike, and are working as usual.

LIKELY TO BE SERIOUS.

NEW YORK, July 7.—A World Washington dispatch says:

In speaking of the miners' strike, Secretary Sherman said that such disturbances were always serious, and threatened to become injurious to business interests. The withholding of so important a product as coal, if continued for a considerable period, he said, necessarily involves a liberal increase in price, and consequently affects all classes. He does not believe that politics enter into strikes.

Secretary Sherman says that the solution of these problems must be found by the employers and those in their service. They must adjust their difference in their own way and to their own satisfaction. Outside suggestions and interference would be resented. For this reason he does not believe that any general plan of arbitration for the adjudication of labor troubles, as proposed by pending congressional legislation, would be acceptable to either of the parties.

Hold-Up.

SPEARVILLE, Kan., July 7.—A number of tramps stopped the east-bound Santa Fe passenger train, near here, with the supposed intention of holding it up. The sheriff arrested them and train proceeded without delay.

An Old Feud.

EMPIRE CITY, Kan., July 7.—Sam Mitchell, husband of the postmistress of this city, wiped out an old feud here by shooting and killing Link Cole, ex-city marshal. The men met on the street and Mitchell shot without warning. Cole killed Mitchell's brother a year ago.

Practice Economy.

In buying medicine as in other matters. It is economy to get Hood's Sarsaparilla because there is more medicinal value in Hood's Sarsaparilla than in any other. Every bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla contains too doses and will average, taken according to directions, to last a month, while others last but a fortnight.

Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla. Easy and yet efficient.

CHIROPDIST.—Dr. Durnain is at room 18, Eldridge block, until July 9th, prepared to perform work in his line. The editor of the Red Bluff News says of him: "He is a skillful man in his business. We know it. We have tried him, and are sure he will please you if you have any trouble with your feet, such as corns, bunions, callouses or ingrowing toe-nails. He gives a guarantee cure. He has hundreds of first-class testimonials. Call at once and give him an opportunity to cure you." 3-6t
