Grace, of Oregon City, and Miss Bertha Stephens, of this city, registered at Hotel Salem, Tuesday afternoon.

THE BIG BRIDGE.—The work of planking the big bridge is about one-half completed and is progressing rapidly. The work of painting the piers and iron work of the sub-structure has been completed and the painter's brush has been applied to one-third of the super-structure. There is no question but what the bridge can be opened for travel by the last of the week, and all repairs will be completed in a few days afterwards.

BASEBALL TOURNAMENT.—The prospects are good for a number of interesting games of baseball during the state fair. Secretary Chas. D. Gabrielson reports entries from seven Willamette valley teams in the baseball tournament that has been arranged by the executive board of the state fair. They are from the following towns: Salem, Chemawa, Portland, St. Paul, Scio, McMinnville and Jefferson.

TRIAL TOMORROW.—"Nigger" Smith, who was arrested in Portland Friday and returned to Salem charged with larceny by bailie, was arraigned before City Recorder Ed N. Edes this morning. Smith will be given an examination at 9 a. m. Thursday on the charge petit larceny.

RENNING AGAIN.—After a vacation of several months, the plant of the Capital Lumbering Company began again this morning, preparatory to a several weeks run, with a full force of men. The mill will probably resume work in all its departments with a full force early next week.

TRAVEL SUSPENDED.—Travel over the big bridge has necessarily been suspended while the same is undergoing repairs but nothing interferes with the travel on all roads leading to Branson & Co's grocery where groceries of a superior grade are to be found.

FIVE DOLLARS OFF.—For this month only; $25 suits reduced to $20, and $20 suits reduced to $15 by C. H. Lane, the tailor.

STATE HOUSE NEWS.

Mr. B. E. Giltner, who was once chief clerk in the office of secretary of state under Geo. McBride, but who under the present administration is satisfied with the simple station of a copying clerk, is taking his summer vacation at Portland and Columbia river points.

The heads of departments are all at their desks at the state house today and routine business is again grinding.

The new notaries today were L. Harlocker, Coquille City, G. W. Cole, of St. Helens and J. H. Walker of Oregon City.

Messrs S. E. Maxon, L. W. Wynkoop, Marion Nickum, J. W. Kelly and C. W. Miller all of Portland, have incorporated the Maxon Marine Velocipede Co., for the purpose of manufacturing a patent marine velocipede and have put in a capital stock of $50,000.

S. A. Landes, S. W. Mitchell, W. S. Potter and H. S. Trask filed papers in the secretary of state's office, incorporating the Oregon School Supply House; capital, $1000, divided into shares of $25; place of business, Albany.

Approved bill, No. 24, embracing 856.84 acres of indemnity school land selection in the Roseburg district, was received at the executive office today from the general land office.

Joseph Morris, of Florence, was commissioned a notary public.

Attorney General Idleman has returned from the east and will appear Saturday morning in the state board of equalization suit in behalf of a general demurrer. This suit effects the whole state and will be tried in this county.

RIVER NEWS.

Steamers Albany and Hoag have tied up at Salem for the summer season on account of the low water. They will resume operations as soon as the stage of the river will permit.

Steamer Ruth passed down the river about noon today and the Elmore will be up from Portland, this evening. It will only be a short time until these boats will discontinue making trips between Salem and Corvallis, owing to the low stage of the water. At Corvallis the river registered only two feet above low water mark. When such a change in the O. R. & N. schedule becomes necessary the Gypsy, which now runs between Corvallis and Harrisburg, will be operated between Salem and Corvallis.

The Society Notebook. An anagram party was given Tuesday afternoon at the home of C. D. Gabrielson on Liberty street by Miss Ruth and some of her girl friends in honor of Miss Greta Rosenberg of Seattle, who is a guest at the home of her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Wright, of this city. The curious collection of anagrams were well mastered by the young people, Cora Talkington taking the first prize and Eula McCully second, Mrs. Dr. Paine, Mrs. L. F. Griffith, Mrs. Dr. Williamson, Mrs. Leveque and Miss Amelia Metschan, assisted Mrs. Gabrielson in most charmingly chaperoning the Misses, who were exceedingly happy over games, refreshments and music. Those present were: Greta Rosenberg, Eula McCully, Ruth Church, Genevieve Church, Lillian Metschan, Agnes Gilbert, Leda Buren, Cora Talkington, Jennie Collins, Kate Perrine, Ethel Knight, Annie Biesen, Otilie McAllister, Alice Meyer, Veda Cross, Lelah Belle, Maud Miller, Pansy Sweetzer, Lila Swafford, Helen Sutherland, Ryth Gatch, Maud McKay, Ella Blineman, Cecelia Haines, Emma Wagner.

As there have not been many 50th anniversaries of Oregon marriages and as the 50th year of the married life of John Minto and Martha Ann Morrison, occurs Thursday July 8, 1897. They will be pleased to see all of their friends who choose to call between the hour of 3 and 5 p. m.

Measles at Chemawa. The Indian school has until the present time been fortunate in escaping this juvenile epidemic, but today eighty cases of genuine measles.

This is most unfortunate, as the commencement exercises of the school take place tomorrow. Supt. Potter, announces that none of the cases are serious and that they are all quarantined in different buildings, so visitors need not be uneasy about coming to the exercises, yet he prefers that all should know the fact. This state of affairs will to some extent interfere with the excellent program prepared, but it will be carried out as well as possible under the circumstances, and all visitors will be made welcome.

MARRIED.

KNIGHT—HOLLINGSWORTH.—At the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. G. W. Grannis, on Church street, 7:30 p. m., Tuesday, July 6, 1897, Miss Myrtle Knight, of Argente, to J. M. Hollingsworth, of Detroit.

A Cleveland woman applies for a divorce on the honest ground that she wants to marry somebody else.

CHEMAWA MEETS DEFEAT.

Went Down Before Vancouver—Score 10 to 7.

The Chemawa Indian Training school baseball team met its Waterloo Tuesday afternoon when it played a match game with the Orions of Vancouver, the score being 10 to 7 in favor of the Vancouver team. The Chemawa team accepts its defeat very gracefully and feel pleased with the result of the game for the Vancouver team is supposed to be the champion team of the northwest.

Owing to the sickness of Graham, pitcher for the Chemawa team, Ross of Salem occupied the box for the Chemawa team and in the course of the game struck out 8 men while Fix, of Vancouver struck out but 7. At the close of the seventh inning the score stood 3 to 3 but some costly errors on the part of the Chemawa team, allowed the Orions to score 7 runs in that inning.

Speaking of the game a Portland paper says: "Up to the eighth inning, prettier ball was never played. The soldiers would frequently find the difficult drops and upward waves sent by Ross, but, through the skillful field work of the Indians, the runner rarely got behind second base before he fell a victim to some dusky son of the forest. But the Chemawas met their Waterloo in the eighth. Ross' arm grew weary and he became the prey of the soldiers, and the latter scored seven runs before they were put out. The dusky Chemawas fought hard and well, and when their turn at the bat came they scored two runs in the eighth and shut out the Orions in the ninth, and added two more to their score in the last of the ninth."

Salem Lady Injured in a Runaway. The following dispatch from Forest Grove, dated July 6, pertains to Mrs. E. M. Sorber, of this city, whose many friends will be pleased to learn her injuries are not of a serious nature: "Yesterday, near Carlton, in Yamhill county, Mrs. Sorber, of Salem, who was driving her horse here on a visit to her mother, Mrs. R. W. Traver, met with an accident while crossing a bridge. The horse shied at some lumber on the bridge, and the driver and a little child got out. Mrs. Sorber tried to lead the animal, but he ran away and went through a barbed wire fence and cut himself so severely that he was ruined, as was the cart and harness. The driver was thrown to the ground, with such force that she was unconscious for a time. She was taken to Carlton to the train, and arrived here yesterday. With the exception of a few slight bruises, she is all right now."

BOUNTY WARRANTS.—County Clerk L. V. Eihen this morning issued bounty warrants, aggregating $26.30. At the rate scalps are being brought to the city and turned over to the county clerk, it would appear that all gophers and squirrels would soon be exterminated from Marion county. J. Morley today presented 175 gopher scalps and 70 squirrel scalps for which he received a warrant for $15.75. The money thus taken from the county treasury is immediately placed in circulation and with a few more such mediums for the circulation thereof, "better times" would be more realistic than they are now. Warrants were issued this morning as follows: Levi Shanks, $5.15; B. J. Tucker, $3.00; G. W. Vedder, $2.40; J. Morley $15.75.
